Course Description

Political Science 1333 is an introductory course in American and Texas government and politics that focuses on how the U.S. government and Texas government work and why they work the way they do. The purpose of this course is to assist you in developing a better understanding of the government institutions and the political processes that you will interact with as citizens. This course is also designed to provide you with analytical tools so that you can understand and meaningfully participate in American and Texas politics throughout your life. This course will be challenging and critical thinking about Texas and American government will be part of everything that we do. The syllabus provides a general plan for the course; changes may be necessary.

Communication

The best way to reach me is to contact me via email. My email address is listed on the first page of the syllabus. When emailing me, if you would like a helpful response, you must include your full name, a subject in the subject line, the name of the course in which you are enrolled, and your question. Please use full sentences and not texting language. Individual Zoom or phone appointments can also be set up.

Assignments

Weekly Module Assignments: Each week there will be module activities to complete listed in a checklist such as chapter reading, outlines, flashcards, watching content, and taking a quiz. Assignments that are graded will appear in the gradebook. Weekly modules can be accessed in D2L by clicking on CONTENT, then COURSE SCHEDULE.

Quizzes

Quizzes will cover recent weekly textbook material. These help make sure students are keeping up with content. No notes, book, cell phones or electronic devices may be used during quizzes or exams. You will be required to take your quizzes on a lockdown browser through D2L. If you have previously utilized the lockdown browser with a different school, you may be required to uninstall from your device and reinstall the MSU Texas version. Graded quizzes can be accessed on D2L by clicking on, ASSESSMENTS, then TESTS.

Exams

All exams will be taken using Respondus Monitor and Lockdown Browser through D2L. You will need to make sure you have a device that has a webcam enabled to use Respondus Monitor. This safeguards the academic integrity of performance on an exam. Please be sure that you are in an area free from distractions, with a strong and reliable internet signal, you are in full view of the camera and on a computer that has the minimum system requirements to run Respondus Monitor and Lockdown Browser. Your exam sessions are recorded and any indication of academic dishonesty, or cheating, will result in an automatic grade of ZERO for that exam, as well as possible expulsion from the course.

Make Up Work/Tests

It will be at the discretion of the instructor to allow make up work or tests. Please contact the instructor directly to be assessed. Since this is an online course, work conflict will not be considered a reason as to why an assignment, quiz, or test cannot be completed by the due date.

Desire-to-Learn (D2L)

Extensive use of the MSU D2L program is a part of this course. Each student is expected to be familiar with this program as it provides a primary source of communication regarding assignments, examination materials, and general course information. You can log into D2L through the MSU Homepage. If you experience difficulties, please contact the technicians listed for the program or contact myself.

Online Computer Requirements

Taking an online class requires you to have access to a computer (with reliable Internet access) to complete and upload your assignments. It is your responsibility to have (or have access to) a working computer in this class as well reliable internet or data to submit assignments. Assignments and tests are to be completed/submitted by the due date, and personal computer technical difficulties or service issues will not be considered reason for the instructor to allow students extra time to submit assignments, or complete tests, or quizzes. There are many places to access your class, including on a tablet and/or smartphone. Our online classes can be accessed from any computer in the world which is connected to the internet. If you have technical difficulties in the course, there is also a student D2L helpdesk available to you. The college cannot work directly on student computers due to both liability and resource limitations however they are able to help you get connected to our online services. Contact distance education and copy your instructor immediately upon having computer trouble. For help, log into D2L.

Class Policies

The Learning Environment: Since this course does not take place in-person where body language, facial expressions, and tone can be interpreted, let us all try to be mindful of what we type. Students are expected to be respectful of their classmates and instructor, always during this course. Students should be respectful of their classmates' identities and backgrounds, such as racial, ethnic, and class backgrounds; religious and political beliefs; language, national origin, and migration or refugee status; gender and gender identity.

This syllabus serves as written notice that harassing or disruptive behavior, either verbal or written, will not be tolerated in the course and that actions will be subject to the disruptive behavior policy.

Disruptive Behavior:

Disruptive behavior, including but not limited to using vulgarity, threatening the instructor or classmates, excessive intentional comments that are meant to troll other classmates or the instructor will not be tolerated. This syllabus serves as the warning that such behavior will not be allowed. Students committing disruptive behavior will be removed from the class.
