Course Description:

This course introduces students to the political system of the United States and the state of Texas. In this course we will study the institutions of American government including the three branches of government at the Federal and state level; governmental bureaucracy and foreign policy.

Texas Core Objectives:

This course will support the development of the following state mandated core learning objectives: Critical Thinking, Communication Skills, Social Responsibility, and Personal Responsibility.

Texts: American Government in Black and White: Diversity and Democracy (4th edition), Paula McClain and Steven Tauber. (2019), New York: Oxford university Press. There will also be some readings on Texas politics that will be available in D2L.

In addition to text books there are a series of readings on Texas politics and various material as well as for our discussions that I will place in D2L.

Expectations, Examinations, and Grading: Students are expected to attend class. Lectures will not reproduce the texts. During lectures, students are expected to behave in an adult fashion:

i.e. no note passing, punching, kissing, kicking or other juvenile behavior. Disrespectful behavior towards other students or the teacher will not be tolerated and will result in your removal from the class. Also, please turn cellular phones off during class. There will be two inclass exams and a final exam. The format of each is short answer questions and a identification of key terms. The highest grading scale will be 90 (A), 80 (B), 70 (C), and 60 (D). If for any reason you should have to miss a test or assignment you must inform the instructor prior to the time of the test and proper documentation is required for any makeup test. The privilege of additional work will not be granted.

Throughout the semester we will discuss some contemporary political events. In order to engage in thoughtful discussions it is imperative that students begin paying attention to some reliable news source, such as National Public Radio, Newshour (PBS), ABC, CBS, NBC, FOX, The New York Times, USA Today, Dallas Morning News, Austin American Statesman, Washington Post, Wallstreet Journal or any variety of reputable news sources. Separate discussion readings will be posted in D2L to guide these discussions. Students are expected to participate in classroom discussion and will be graded on their participation.

Grading:

Activity	Grade
First Examination:	25%
Second Examination:	25%
Final Exam:	25%
Current Events Project:	10%
Quizzes:	15%

Disability Policy: Any student in this course who has a disability that may preclude demonstrating fully his or her abilities should contact me as soon as possible. We will discuss the accommodations necessary to ensure full participation and to facilitate education.

Calendar The following course schedule represents the schedule of readings and topics for the course. The reading assignments are located under the date and topic. Student's should read the assigned readings prior to class. The instructor reserves the right to change the schedule.
