Required Materials

- Lesson Notebook
- Bradetich, Jeff. Double bass: the ultimate challenge. Music For All to Hear Inc., 2009.

- You may need to purchase repertoire and method books during the semester as recommended by the instructor. Some music will be provided by the instructor. Students may purchase music at any music store of their choice. Suggestions for places to purchase music include www.ovationpress.org, and www.lemurmusic.com. THIS IS EQUIVALENT TO PURCHASING TEXTBOOKS FOR CLASS.

Grading

Students enrolled in applied lessons will be graded on the following criteria:

1. The student's weekly attendance and preparation; the practice methods applied during lessons are expected to be strongly reinforced with individual practice.
2. Active participation in extra bass-related activities such as lectures, concerts, recitals, webinars, discussions, studio class (notified in advance), and extra readings is a must to obtain full credit in the class.
3. Program Notes, write appropriate program note for your performance including year of composition of each piece performed in the recital.
4. Mock Recital #1, the student is required to schedule rehearsals with pianist ahead of time and to reserve a performance space for the recital
5. Mock Recital #2, the student is required to schedule rehearsals with pianist ahead of time and to schedule a place for the performance
6. Recital, final performance at the end of the semester.

If the above criteria are not met, the student's grade will be lowered.

As music majors, you should spend a minimum of 8 hours per week practicing your instrument. Music minors, secondary and tertiary instruments should spend a minimum of 5 hours per week. More is even better. However, the quantity of practice is not nearly as important as the quality of your practice sessions.

A - 100-90%

B - 89-80%

C - 79-70%

D - 69-60%

F - 59-0%

If a student wishes to cancel a lesson, the teacher may make up the lesson at his/her discretion. Students wishing to cancel a lesson should notify the teacher at least 24 hours in advance (with exceptions of death in the family or serious illness). Students will be dropped and given a WF after three unexcused absences.

To avoid missing a lesson, students are allowed and encouraged to trade times with a colleague, with the instructor's approval. In the event that the instructor needs to cancel, or the student needs a reschedule due to a conflict with an ensemble of the university, an online make-up lesson will be scheduled.

Students are expected to show up prepared and warmed up for the lesson and should bring all appropriate music, instruments, and materials. Please knock at your time lesson on the dot.

Conduct

The instructor expects students to behave professionally and to devote class time to class work. Instances of disruption and inattention may result in a reduction of the in-class work component of the student's grade or being asked to leave. Removal from the classroom will count as an unexcused absence.
