ACADEMIC CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

Southeast German Studies Workshop | 2024

- Title: "Comparing and Contrasting the Ravensbrück Concentration Camp to Other Concentration Camps During the Holocaust (1939-1945)"
- For this workshop, papers are not allowed to be more than 1200 words in effort to promote fruitful discussions and inspire further dialogue with colleagues. As such, I will present small portions of this chapter at this conference.

Texas A&M University History Conference | 2024

- Title: "Comparing and Contrasting the Ravensbrück Concentration Camp to Other Concentration Camps During the Holocaust (1939-1945)"
- This is a chapter of my thesis, which highlights Ravensbrück's six years as the only women's concentration camp that housed Jews, Jehovah's Witnesses, asocial women, resistance leaders, trained female SS guards and more. For this conference, I plan on presenting my entire chapter as a paper.

Phi Alpha Theta North Central Texas Regional Conference | 2023

- Title: "One After the Other: How the Fall of the Weimar Republic led to the Nazi Regime"
- The primary argument of this paper was that there were three events, more than others, that led to the destruction of the Weimar Republic and ultimately opened the door for Hitler's political coup and the Nazi Regime. The three events were the Treaty of Versailles, the weak leadership in the Weimar Republic, and the Great Depression.

Phi Alpha Theta National Conference | 2023

- Title: "Two Different Worlds: The Separation Between East German Women and West German Women During the Cold War (1949-1990)"
- This paper was a broad approach to Germany's divide as a whole and how women were impacted throughout the Cold War. Comparing and contrasting West German ideals to East German ideals and how they related to the women on both sides was the primary focus.

Phi Alpha Theta North Central Texas Regional Meeting | 2022

- Title: "Comparing the Roles between German and Russian Women in World War II"
- For this paper, I compared the domestic roles German women were given by the Nazi Regime to the aviation roles the Russian women volunteered for during World War II. I explained the different ways German and Russian women supported the war and the lack of lasting memory of what the women did for the war, whether they were on the winning side or not.
