

APPLIED VOICE

AMUS 1201, 1202, 2201, 3201, 3202, 4201, 4202, 4961, 4962
Spring 2022

Dr. Don Maxwell, Professor

Hardin N 101 ~ 397-4242

Cell: (940) 867-8474

Email: donald.maxwell@msutexas.edu

Welcome to Spring Semester 2022

The following information will explain the requirements for this course – individual voice instruction. Lessons are taught one-on-one, hence they are arranged at mutually acceptable times. You will receive two half-hour lessons per week- one lesson with me and the other with me and your accompanist. The accompanist will be at your lesson time marked with an “S”. The ultimate objective is simple: to learn how to use your voice in the freest, most expressive manner possible regardless of whether you are group or solo singing. Since many of you may become teachers of singing by choice or circumstance, learning how your own voice works is crucial to understanding how to teach voice. Voice training is a long, arduous process fraught with difficulties. However, amazing progress can be made if we work together to understand the natural physical laws which govern vocalization.

Although we are beginning the Spring 2022 semester face to face, MSU may require COVID restrictions at any time, should circumstances warrant it.

MUSIC ASSIGNMENTS-For new students, I will need to vocalize you before I can assign appropriate music. For returning students, your accompanist already has much of your music. Additional assignments will be made as needed.

COURSE DESCRIPTION: Although we will be spending a good deal of time voice building in lessons, the main objective is to learn to communicate effectively to others through the singing of solo vocal literature. It is therefore mandatory that you quickly learn the material assigned. Your homework will consist of memorizing music, not vocalizing. All vocalizing will take place during scheduled lessons.

REPERTOIRE: FIVE pieces of music will be assigned for the semester. In some cases extended works may count for more than one song. I will help you secure copies of assigned music.

DEGREE RECITALS- If you are a Music Education voice major, your recital will be a 25- minute program. Vocal Performance majors will present a 25-minute Junior recital and a Senior recital of 50 minutes in length.

GRADING POLICY: Grading is based upon 1) attendance 2) memorization of music and 3) the Voice Jury (Final Exam). The Voice Jury is held at the end of the semester, when you will perform music you have learned during the Spring 2022 semester. You are expected to attend all scheduled lessons. If you are ill or unavoidably detained, please contact me at 867-8474 (cell phone). You are allowed one unexcused absence during the semester. Additional unexcused absences will result in one grade reduction for each absence.

During the weeks listed below, you will be graded on a new song; if it is MEMORIZED and well sung, you get an A. If not, your grade will be anywhere from B to F, depending on my assessment of where you are on the piece. It should be obvious if you get even one grade of F, you cannot possibly get an A for the semester.

Week of	January 31	1st song
Week of	February 21	2nd song
Week of	March 21	3rd song
Week of	April 18	4th song
Week of	May 16?	5 th song

UPPER-LEVEL: Voice majors may not begin junior-level courses (3000) until they have passed the Sophomore Barrier. At the conclusion of the 4th semester of study, the student must meet specific requirements in order to proceed to upper-level (see student handbook).

In the process of learning how to sing, we will address topics of vital importance to singers and prospective teachers of singing-- the physiological vocal mechanism, mental vocal control, resonance, the breathing process as it pertains to singing, voice change at puberty, and good vocal health habits.

IMPORTANT: PLEASE BRING A FLASH OR THUMB DRIVE TO YOUR LESSONS! MAKE SURE YOU TAPE YOUR NAME ON IT SO YOU DON'T GET THE WRONG ONE BACK. PIANO ACCOMPANIMENTS WILL BE RECORDED EARLY IN THE SEMESTER SO THAT YOU CAN USE THEM FOR YOUR PRACTICE TIME.

GRADING POLICY –Grading is based upon 1) attendance, 2) memorization of music, 3) proper pronunciation of languages, and 3) the Voice Jury (Final Exam).

1) ATTENDANCE: Students are expected to be present for all lessons. In the event of illness or unavoidable delay, please call my cell phone (397-4242) BEFORE your scheduled lesson. Two unexcused absences will lower the final grade by one letter— four unexcused absences, two letter grades, etc. Students with more than four unexcused absences will be dropped from the course by the instructor.

2). MEMORIZATION OF MUSIC: Five pieces of music will be assigned for the semester, In some cases, extended works count for more than one song. I will help you secure copies of assigned music.

3) THE VOICE JURY: The voice Jury is the Final Exam for this course. It is held at the end of the semester when you will perform the pieces you have learned for that given semester in front of a panel of voice teaching instructors. The jury grade is 30% of your final grade.

OFFICE HOURS: If you need to talk to me for any reason out of class, please refer to the available office hours posted on my door, Hardin North 101, which is located just across from the Akin Auditorium entrance. If the need is urgent, please call my cell phone (940-867-8474).

COVID19 AND ITS RAMIFICATIONS: Although we are beginning the Spring 2022 semester face to face, MSU may require remote instruction at any time, should circumstances warrant. It.

DISRUPTION OF TEACHING: Disruption or obstruction of teaching, research, administration, disciplinary proceedings, or other university activities authorized to be held or conducted on the premises of Midwestern State University. Such activity includes classroom behavior that interferes with either the instructor's ability to conduct the class or the ability of other students to profit from the instructional program.

INSTRUCTOR DROP: An instructor may drop a student any time during the semester for excessive absences, for consistently failing to meet class assignments, for an indifferent attitude, or for disruptive conduct.

SOCIAL JUSTICE: Social justice is one of Midwestern State University's stated core values and the professor considers the classroom to be a place where students will be treated with respect as human beings, regardless of gender, race, ethnicity, national origin, religious affiliation, sexual orientation, political beliefs, age, or ability. Moreover, diversity of thought is appreciated and encouraged, provided the students can agree to disagree. It is the professor's expectation that ALL students be able to consider the classroom a safe environment.

If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, if you have emergency medical information that needs sharing, or if you need special accommodations in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible.

Federal privacy law prohibits me from releasing information about students to certain parties outside of the university without the signed consent of the student. Thus, in almost all cases I will not discuss your academic progress or other matters with your parents. Please do not have them call me. Regardless of these important legal considerations, it is my general policy to communicate with the students, not their parents even when a student has signed a consent form. College students are adults and are expected to behave accordingly.

Senate Bill 11 passed by the 84th Texas legislature allows licensed handgun holders to carry concealed handguns on campus, effective August 1, 2016. Areas excluded from concealed carry are appropriately marked, in accordance with state law. For more information regarding campus carry, please refer to the University's webpage at Campus Carry Policy