ATTENDANCE POLICY

Class attendance is mandatory. Students will receive 5 points for each lab session attended and a minus 10 points for each lab session missed. Absence without prior approval for an exam will result in a grade of zero. All medical excuses must have a written, dated, and signed note by the attending physician on the appropriate stationary or Rx pad. The medical excuse must state that you were not to attend class and with the specific dates of absences noted. Medical excused notes not received by the second day, after returning to class, will not be accepted. Do not let tardiness become a habit. Two days of being late will be equal to one absence. Plan to be on time for class.

CLASSROOM ETIQUETTE

Student & professor agree that class time is dedicated to mutual respect and focus. For example, to avoid distraction cell/mobile phones will be on 'vibrate' mode and placed away (e.g., in backpack) so students and professor can focus on class activities/instruction (this applies to all electronic devices).

What I expect from you:

- Attend every class meeting

- Come to each class prepared, having done the assigned reading
- Participate in class
- Respect your fellow students and their role in this course

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Midwestern State University does not discriminate based on an individual's disability and complies with Section 504 of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). If you have a physical, learning, sensory or psychological disability and require accommodations, please let your instructor know as soon as possible. You will need to register with, and provide documentation of your disability to the Counseling and Disability Office at 940-397-4618 or in Clark Student Center, Room 108.

ACADEMIC HONESTY/DISHONESTY

Midwestern State University is built upon a strong foundation of integrity, respect, and trust. All members of the University community have a responsibility to be honest and the right to expect honesty from others. Any form of academic dishonesty is unacceptable to our community and is not tolerated.

Plagiarism is strictly forbidden in any course and on any course assignment, this includes class notes and fellow student's work! All, work, besides your own, should be cited with a reference given. Do not misrepresent any of your efforts on any academic task for which you will receive a grade.

Student Honor Creed

“As an MSU Student, I pledge not to lie, cheat, steal, or help anyone else do so.”

As students at MSU, we recognize that any great society must be composed of empowered, responsible citizens. We also recognize universities play an important role in helping mold these responsible citizens. We believe students themselves play an important part in developing responsible citizenship by maintaining a community where integrity and honorable character are the norm, not the exception.

Thus, we, the Students of Midwestern State University, resolve to uphold the honor of the University by affirming our commitment to complete academic honesty. We resolve not only to be honest but also to hold our peers accountable for complete honesty in all university matters.

We consider it dishonest to ask for, give, or receive help in examinations or quizzes, to use any unauthorized material in examinations, or to present, as one's own, work or ideas, which are not entirely one's own. We recognize that any instructor has the right to expect that all student work is honest, original work. We accept and acknowledge that responsibility for lying, cheating, stealing, plagiarism, and other forms of academic dishonesty fundamentally rests within each individual student.

We expect of ourselves academic integrity, personal professionalism, and ethical character. We appreciate steps taken by University officials to protect the honor of the University against any who would disgrace the MSU student body by violating the spirit of this creed.

Written and adopted by the 2002-2003 MSU Student Senate.

DEFINITIONS.

A. ACADEMIC DISHONESTY. An action attempted or performed that misrepresents one's involvement in an academic endeavor in any way, or assists another student in misrepresenting his or her involvement in an academic endeavor. Examples of academic dishonesty include, but are not limited

- i. Plagiarism: presenting the work (i.e., ideas, data, creations) of another, wholly or in part, as one's own work without customary and proper acknowledgement of sources and extent of use, unless authorized by the instructor
- ii. Cheating: using information, study aids, notes, materials, devices, or collaboration not explicitly approved by the instructor. For example: doing a class assignment for someone else or allowing someone to copy one's assignment; copying from, or assisting, another student during an examination; or stealing, or otherwise improperly obtaining, copies of an examination before or after its administration.
- iii. Fraud: altering or inventing data, research, or citations for an academic endeavor; fabricating, forging or otherwise misrepresenting to an instructor or an institution one's past or current academic or professional activities; impersonating someone or allowing oneself to be impersonated for an examination or other academic endeavor; using a ghost writer, commercial or otherwise, for any type of assignment.
- iv. Violation of Standards: violations against ethical and professional standards required by individual University programs, academic courses, and clinical programs that may result in qualification for entry into a profession that maintains standards of conduct.
- v. Multiple Submissions: submitting, wholly or in part, the same academic endeavor to earn credit in two or more courses without explicit approval by all concerned instructors.
- vi. Interference/Obstruction: interfering with academic efforts of other students to gain unfair advantage for personal academic advancement. Interference may include but is not limited to, sabotage, harassment, tampering, bribery, or intimidation of another student.
- vii. Complicity: assisting another person in any act of academic dishonesty as defined above.

B. ACADEMIC ENDEAVOR. Any student activity undertaken to earn University credit or meet some other University program requirement. Examples of academic endeavors include, but are not limited to:

- i. Course assignments (written/oral, projects, research, exhibitions of work)
- ii. Exams (written/oral, quizzes)
- iii. Clinical assignments (internships, rotations, practical)
- iv. Presentations (on and off campus)
- v. Publications
- vi. Independent study coursework
- vii. Plan B papers/projects, theses, dissertations
- viii. Student media associated with academic credit

Students are expected to do their own work at all times. This includes all tests, papers, quizzes, projects, reports, and notebooks. Plagiarism of any authors (including self and fellow classmates) work will not be tolerated.

Copying of materials using a previous student's work, notebook, etc. will not be tolerated. Students who miss class will need to get notes from other students. HOWEVER, IT IS EXPECTED THAT THIS WORK WILL BE REDONE IN THEIR OWN WORDS. Students using computers, word processors, etc. may not share discs or other materials between each other. To do so will be considered the same as copying of materials. In all cases, students who allow for the copying of materials will be treated just like the student who does the copying.

STUDENTS WHO ARE FOUND TO BE IN VIOLATION OF THIS POLICY WILL HAVE A GRADE OF ZERO RECORDED FOR THE INVOLVED PAPER, TEST, QUIZ, PROJECT, REPORT OR NOTEBOOK. FURTHERMORE THESE STUDENTS WILL BE REFERRED TO THE APPROPRIATE DEPARTMENT, COLLEGE, OR UNIVERISTY COMMITTEE FOR THE APPROPRIATE DISCIPLINARY ACTION

EMERGENCY EXIT PROCEDURES

In the event of an emergency, please evacuate the room in an orderly fashion through the nearest exit. The nearest exit is through the door at the front of the room. Follow the exit signs to the nearest available exit.

Once exiting the building, please meet your instructor across the street from D. L. Ligon in front of the tennis courts. The fire extinguisher is located immediately outside of the room 223 classroom, next to the door nearest the stair case exit.

MSU ALERT

All students are encouraged to participate in the University's emergency warning system "MSU ALERT". Because of this, your cell phone should be set to vibrate. If all of our phones go off at the same time, we should take the appropriate action.

If your cell phone vibrates by itself, please ignore it and continue with class.
