

SYLLABUS

CRIMES AGAINST CHILDREN

CRJU 4283-101

Spring 2026

- Course Time and Place: Tuesday/Thursday, 11:00 A.M.-12:20 P.M.; Martin Hall 108
- Course Instructor: Prof. Ted Paddack, Martin 112, (940) 397-4090
ted.paddack@msutexas.edu
- Required Textbooks: Klika, J. Bart and J.R. Conte (Ed.), The APSAC Handbook on Child Maltreatment (4th Ed.), Sage Publications, ISBN 978-1-5063-4170-5 (2018)
- Supplemental Textbooks:
(Student Option) Besharov, Douglas J. Recognizing Child Abuse: A Guide for the Concerned. The Free Press/Simon and Schuster, ISBN 0-02-9030820 (1990)
Texas Crime and Traffic Law Manual (2019-2020 Ed.). Blue360media Publ., ISBN 978-1-6413-0421-4
- Course Description: This course is designed to acquaint the student with the differing aspects of crimes that are committed either against children, or crimes involving children. Among the topics discussed are physical abuse, sexual offenses, psychological manipulation of children, the legal aspects of dealing with crimes involving youth, family violence, school violence, and some of the actions society and professionals can use to prevent a higher incidence of these acts perpetrated against children.
- Instructor Perspective: Workload in this course will be moderate. Material may be new to the student. Some concepts presented may be controversial. Do to the nature of the course, some material may be personally offensive or very emotionally sensitive. A career in the field of criminal justice or a closely related area requires exposure to this information.
- Today's society has liberalized acceptance of substance abuse, electronic games of violence, and free social media access to children of both adult and illegal sexualized content. Much of the material utilized in this course is developed from a social treatment and/or a child protective services perspective, adapted to meet the needs of criminal justice students entering the field. This course aids the student in a greater understanding of the nature of criminal behaviors involving children, birth to eighteen years.
- Communication: Each student enrolled in CRJU 4283-201 must have a valid functional email address and phone number at the beginning of and throughout this course. D2L will not be used. Supplemental Instructor Class Materials (by Instructor) and Student Work Submissions (by Student) will be done via email pdf Attachment.
