Engagement Activities: 20 %

Each student brings a unique perspective and life experience to the learning environment and is expected to actively and thoughtfully participate by making pertinent contributions. You are expected to read through course modules and watch embedded videos, and to actively participate by completing all work for each week including course activities and discussions, and these need to be fully completed to the best of your ability.

Autobiography: 20%

To better understand researcher positioning, you will create an Autobiography presentation that explores the factors that inform your own viewpoint. There are many facets that contribute to our outlook on life, and you will highlight significant events, people, or experiences that have shaped your personal perspective . See more details in D2L.

Perspective Analysis Portfolio Assignments: 40%

The purpose of this portfolio is to help you develop a deeper understanding of how individual, family, and community experiences shape individual perspectives. Through critical analysis of real-world media, narratives, or case studies, you will reflect on differing perspectives and apply course concepts to evaluate the factors influencing these perspectives. See further instructions in D2L.

Portfolio Presentation: 20%

For this assignment, you will present a clear, engaging, and impactful talk covering your portfolio assignment. This format challenges you to communicate complex ideas concisely, using accessible language for a general audience.
