Attendance

Regular and prompt attendance is expected and is essential to success in this class. Attendance will be taken at the beginning of class. See the MSU Student Handbook for University Class Attendance Policy. If you know in advance that, you are going to miss a class, please contact me before that class. If you must miss a class due to illness or other emergency, contact me as soon as possible, preferably before class (e-mail is very effective for contact). If you must leave early, contact me before class begins.

Tardiness is NOT acceptable since late arrivals are disruptive. You are expected to demonstrate mature business behavior to include being on time for class. Excessive absences or tardiness will result in a warning from the instructor and if not corrected, may result in being dropped from the course by the instructor. You are responsible for any material or announcements missed due to absence or tardiness.

Instructor Class Policies

Class Preparation: Reading and Homework Assignments:

Chapter readings and homework problems from the text will be assigned for each class. Assigned chapters should be read BEFORE coming to class on the day the reading assignment will be discussed. It is absolutely IMPEATIVE that you diligently complete all homework assignments. Further, it is not sufficient that you just complete the homework; you must UNDERSTAND why the problems are solved as they are. Homework problems are specifically selected to prepare students for exams. Students who choose not to complete homework assignments, and therefore not challenge themselves and prepare for exams, will NOT be successful in this course.

Class Conduct Policies:

Class will be conducted in a business-like fashion. You should arrive on time (a couple of minutes prior to the scheduled start of class), be prepared to start class promptly at the posted class time, and do not leave class early unless you have been granted permission by the instructor prior to class or you experience an emergency. Be prepared to engage in class discussions at all times.

Cell phones should be silenced during class. Text messaging and/or talking on a cell phone during class are specifically prohibited and will result in the professor asking you to leave the classroom. True emergencies are the only exception. Use of cell phones during exams is strictly prohibited.

Change of Schedule

A student dropping a course (but not withdrawing from the University) within the first 12 class days of a regular semester or the first four class days of a summer semester is eligible for a 100% refund of applicable tuition and fees. Dates are published in the Schedule of Classes each semester.

Refund and Repayment Policy

A student who withdraws or is administratively withdrawn from Midwestern State University (MSU) may be eligible to receive a refund for all or a portion of the tuition, fees and room/board charges that were paid to MSU for the semester. HOWEVER, if the student received financial aid (federal/state/institutional grants, loans and/or scholarships), all or a portion of the refund may be returned to the financial aid programs. As described below, two formulas (federal and state) exists in determining the amount of the refund. (Examples of each refund calculation will be made available upon request).
