Course Description

This course will introduce students to the American political system with a brief survey of the political dynamics of the state of Texas. By the conclusion of this course, students will have a basic understanding of the key components of American and Texas governments, such as political culture, the constitution, federalism, election, political parties, interest groups, and the media. To do that, we will discuss historical evolution of the American government and see how Texas state politics have developed in conjunction with the federal government. This course also provides students with opportunities to practice various analytical skills in a range of real-world cases. The course will include lecture, debates, and presentations, which will help students stay up to date on current issues.

Course Engagement (10%)

Your attendance and participation are vital to learning the material presented in this course. You will be expected to come to class prepared to engage thoughtfully, listen attentively, and interact with your peers respectfully. If you cannot come to class, contact me via email and provide details about your situation at your earliest convenience for your absence to be excused. Over the course of the semester, 4 absences will be excused for all students. More than 4 absences and unexcused absences will lower your final grade.

Current Event Presentation (20%)

All students are required to sign up for a slide presentation in the first week. The 30-minute presentation should include an in-depth case study on a topical political issue and some questions for class discussion. Each student/team will decide a presentation topic and notify the instructor by the end of the first week. An effective and interactive presentation will earn extra credits.

Movie Reflection Papers (10%)

During the semester, we will watch 2 movies on American politics. You will be expected to respond to each of the movies in a short reflection paper (500 words). Your response must be critical and go beyond a summary or a description of those movies. Originality will be critical for your grade (AI assistance or similarity rate above 5% will be penalized). All papers should be submitted electronically via D2L.

Mid-Term Exam (30%)

The exam will consist of multiple-choice questions and some short answer questions. Questions will test your understanding of the key concepts of American and Texas governments covered in class. We will utilize the Respondus Lockdown Browser and Respondus Monitor. A study guide will be provided a week before the exam.

Final Exam (30%)

The exam will cover the chapters discussed AFTER the midterm exam. We will utilize the Respondus Lockdown Browser and Respondus Monitor. A study guide will be provided a week before the exam.

Extra Credit

There will be no assignment or activity for extra credit. However, when I determine your semester grade at the end of the semester, I may raise grades for students who have actively participated and contributed to class discussions throughout the semester.

Late Work

Late assignments will be accepted with a grade reduction.

Desire-to-Learn (D2L)

Extensive use of the MSU D2L program is a part of this course. Each student is expected to be familiar with this program as it provides a primary source of communication regarding assignments, examination materials, and general course information. You can log into D2L through the MSU Homepage. If you experience difficulties, please contact the technicians listed for the program or contact your instructor.

MSU Attendance Policy

Students are expected to attend all meetings of the classes in which they are enrolled. Although in general students are graded on intellectual effort and performance rather than attendance, absences may lower the student's grade where class attendance and class participation are deemed essential by the faculty member. In those classes where attendance is considered as part of the grade, the instructor should so inform students of the specifics in writing at the beginning of the semester in a syllabus or separate attendance policy statement. An instructor who has an attendance policy must keep records on a daily basis. The instructor must give the student a verbal or written warning prior to being dropped from the class. Instructor's records will stand as evidence of absences. A student with excessive absences may be dropped from a course by the instructor. Any individual faculty member or college has the authority to establish an attendance policy, providing the policy is in accordance with the General University Policies.

Change of Schedule

A student dropping a course (but not withdrawing from the University) within the first 12 class days of a regular semester or the first four class days of a summer semester is eligible for a 100% refund of applicable tuition and fees. Dates are published in the Schedule of Classes each semester.

Refund and Repayment Policy

A student who withdraws or is administratively withdrawn from Midwestern State University (MSU) may be eligible to receive a refund for all or a portion of the tuition, fees and room/board charges that were paid to MSU for the semester. HOWEVER, if the student received financial aid (federal/state/institutional grants, loans and/or scholarships), all or a portion of the refund may be returned to the financial aid programs. As described below, two formulas (federal and state) exists in determining the amount of the refund. (Examples of each refund calculation will be made available upon request).

Services for Students with Disabilities

In accordance with Section 504 of the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Midwestern State University endeavors to make reasonable accommodations to ensure equal opportunity for qualified persons with disabilities to participate in all educational, social, and recreational programs and activities. After notification of acceptance, students requiring accommodations should make application for such assistance through Disability Support Services, located in the Student Wellness Center, (940) 397-4140. Current documentation of a disability will be required in order to provide appropriate services, and each request will be individually reviewed. For more details, please go to Disability Support Services.

The safety and security of our campus is the responsibility of everyone in our community. Each of us has an obligation to be prepared to appropriately respond to threats to our campus, such as an active aggressor.
