Course Description:

This course gives students a comprehensive introduction to international economics and finance. The first half of the course focuses on international trade theory and policy. This includes comparative advantage and the basis for trade, trade models, the international location of production, and the role of firms in the global economy. The second half of the course focuses on international finance issues. This includes issues of balance of payments, exchange rates, money, interest rates, price levels and output.

Course Prerequisites:

Junior standing or above or consent of the chair, ECON 2333 and ECON 2433.

Learning Goals:

The general objective of this course is to help students understand international economics theory and policy as well as their relations to international business.

A. General Learning Goal:

1. Critical Thinking and problem solving through critical analysis, evaluation, and interpretation of business information. The students will demonstrate their abilities in critical thinking and problem solving and decision-making by applying international trade and finance theory and policy to the problem/short essay section of homework, quizzes and examinations.
2. Understanding the influence of global and multicultural issues on international business activities. The students will gain the basic understanding of international economics and related issues by working on homework and solving problems in the examination related to the topic.

These general learning goals either represent or are related to those established by the Dillard College of Business Administration. The learning goals represent the skills that graduates will carry with them into their careers. While assessing student performance in obtaining these general learning goals, the College hopes to assess its programs. The assessments will assist us to improve our curriculum and curriculum delivery.

B. Course Specific Learning Goals:

- Learn about comparative advantage and basis of trade
- Learn about issues of trade policies
- Understand economies of scale and international location of production.
- Learn about open-economy macroeconomics
- Learn about the balance of payments
- Learn about balance of payments adjustments
- Learn about foreign exchange rate determination

Teaching Method:

The method to present the class material will be based on lectures and discussions. The student is allowed to ask questions at any time during the lecture on a point that is not understood. The instructor has academic freedom to bring in class material and technology to the class in his own way. In this class, you will use the internet to access D2L to get class notes. D2L will be used for posting announcements and scores, and perhaps bonuses.

Course Policies:

A. Attendance Policy:

Attendance is important because of announcements of specific course requirements, instructions for assignments, and more detailed discussions of critical material that are covered in class. Attendance will be checked each class day through a boarding pass. The student must get a boarding pass from the instructor at the beginning of the class (at 8am) and must hand in the boarding pass to the instructor at the end of the class. If a student loses his/her boarding pass, a 10-point penalty on the final score (total semester points) will apply. Entering class late will not be allowed because the doors will be locked at the beginning of the class. If you come to class at 8:01 am or later, you will be late and will not have access to the boarding pass and will lose attendance. In addition, departing early will make the student lose attendance. Come to class on time. To avoid disturbing the class, you are not to walk in and out of the classroom during class except for an emergency. I may also consider your tendency of class participation in favor of a better grade if you only miss a higher score by a narrow margin.

Students are expected to attend all scheduled classes for this course given the university attendance policy. Missing 3 classes from 06/03/2019 to 06/20/2019 (the withdrawal date) is considered excessive by the instructor; therefore, students who reach this level of missed classes will be dropped by the instructor with a grade of "F", given the university attendance policy. Additionally, missing 5 classes during the semester is also excessive; therefore, students who reach this level of missed classes will get a final grade of "F", given the university attendance policy, as shown in the 2017-2018 Student Handbook and Activities Calendar which may be found at link for student handbook. In addition, the classroom is not a place for children and therefore cannot be used in lieu of daycare or babysitting. If you attend with a child, you will be dismissed from class and counted as absent.

B. Other Related Policies

Academic Integrity:

Regarding academic honesty, students are referred to the "Student Honor Creed" (See the Student Handbook).

Exam Policies:

Exam policies are related to academic integrity and can also be stated in the first page of the test.

Americans with Disability Act:

This class follows the guidelines suggested by the Center for Counseling and Disabilities Services for those students who qualify for disability services. Please notify the instructor of your special needs during the first week of classes (See the section on “Disability Support Services” in the Student Handbook).

Dillard Building Classroom Policy:

- No food or drink is allowed in the classroom.

Syllabus Change Policy:

- This syllabus is a guide for the course and is subject to change.

Correspondence:

All correspondence regarding class issues must be conducted in person or by email using your Midwestern State University (MSU) email only. I will not return answers to questions to other email accounts. Grades will be posted on D2L and on MSU Banner. I will not discuss grades or class standing over the phone or by emails. Since email is often the most convenient means of communication, it is recommended that students use and regularly monitor their MSU email account.

I suggest that you link your D2L email with your MSU email, so the messages sent through D2L will be forwarded to your MSU email. To do this,

- Log in to D2L.
- Click on your name on the right upper corner of the screen.
- Click on “account settings”.
- Click on “email”.
- Check “Forwarding incoming messages to an alternate email account” and enter your email in the box.
- Click on “save and close”.

Netiquette: Communication Courtesy Code:

Students are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all email messages, class discussions, lecture hall posts, chats, etc. If I consider any of them to be inappropriate or offensive, I will forward the message to the Chair of the department and the online administrators and appropriate actions will be taken.

Deadlines:

We cannot totally rely on cyberspace—emails get lost and servers disconnect temporarily. Do not wait for the last hour to do your homework. Reply and check for replies on every email sent and received. The student is responsible for checking deadlines on D2L and for submitting the work to the instructor on time. I will not reply to emails regarding homework issues during the last 7 hours prior to the deadline.

Classroom decorum:

- Free discussion, inquiry, and expression are encouraged in this class.
- Classroom behavior that interferes with either (a) the instructor's ability to conduct the class or (b) the ability of students to benefit from the instruction is not allowed.
- Doing another class assignment is not allowed. The student must focus on this class only.
- Routinely entering class late or departing early is not allowed. This will cause the student lose his/her attendance.
- Use of laptop computers, iPad, or other electronic devices is not allowed in this class. These devices must be turned off.
- Wearing headphones is not allowed. If the instructor believes the student is wearing a hooded sweater to hide headphones, the student will be asked to remove the hood from his/her head.
- Use of cellular phones is not allowed in this class. Cellular phones must be turned off and away from your desk. In the event of a situation that a student legitimately needs to carry a cellular phone to class, prior notice and approval of the instructor is required.
- Repeatedly talking in class without being recognized, talking while others are speaking, or arguing in a way that is perceived as "crossing the civility line" is not allowed.
- The first time a student violates any of these rules, the instructor will give the student a verbal warning. The second time a student violates any of these rules, the instructor will ask the student to leave the room and a 20-point penalty on the final score will be assessed.
- A 20-point penalty on your final score will be assessed for violating each of these rules.
- Classroom behavior which is deemed inappropriate and cannot be resolved by the student and the faculty member will be handled as per the Code of Student Conduct as shown in the 2017-2018 Student Handbook.

Exams, Coursework and Grades

Exams: During the semester, there will be two midterm exams (150 points each) and a comprehensive final exam (200 points). The three-exam scores will be for 500 points. Every student will be required to take the final exam. The exams' structure can include definitions, problems, short essays, and multiple choice questions. You will need a calculator to solve some of the problems in the exams, so you are required to get a TI-

30X IIS calculator. It is the only model accepted to do the exams.

If you miss an exam without prior approval from the instructor, please do not expect a make-up exam. With prior approval you may take a make-up exam during the week of finals if you wish. If you anticipate a valid reason for missing an exam, please inform the instructor in advance by email. An unexcused absence from an exam will result in a score of zero on that exam and may be compensated for by counting your final exam in its place with my approval, and a 20% penalty on that exam's score will be assessed. The exam dates are noted in the Tentative Course Schedule in this syllabus. The instructor can change the exam dates if it is necessary. Any changes in those dates will be announced as soon as possible and posted prominently on D2L as well as being announced in class.

Homework and Quizzes: There will be 14 homework and quizzes corresponding to each of the chapters that we will cover during the semester. All of these assignments will be completed on MyLab Economics website. There will be no make-up assignments under any circumstances. The student is responsible for having an appropriate internet connection. You are responsible for submitting each assignment by the deadline set online. You will have an adequate amount of time for each assignment and you must not fall behind. If you miss an assignment, you will earn zero credits. The homework and quizzes score will be for 300 points.

Course Grade:

Course work		Grade Scale	Percentages*
14 Problems and applications (HW)	150 pts	720 to 800 pts	90% & above	A
14 Quizzes (Q)	150 pts	640 to 719 pts	80% to 89%	B
2 Mid-term Exam Scores	300 pts	560 to 639 pts	70% to 79%	C
Final Exam Score	200 pts	480 to 559 pts	60% to 69%	D
Total	800 pts	below 480 pts	below 60%	F

Notes: * Percentages are only given for relative levels. Your final score is a total of all your exam, quiz, and homework scores with any bonus points added separately. Therefore 89% is not 1 point short of an A. 89% is only 712 points which is 8 points short of an A.  Each midterm exam is 150 points.

Senate Bill 11
