Copyright

The class materials associated with this course are provided to facilitate student learning and are protected by the United States copyright laws. Dissemination or sale of the class material (including the World Wide Web) is not permitted. The class material is only available to students enrolled in the course that requires the use of the corresponding textbook. Students should abide by these restrictions. The publisher of the textbook owns the copyright for the class materials associated with this course.

Homework

Homework assignments will be given after the completion of each chapter. All questions are solvable based on the lectures. Students are required to submit the assignments before the due date.

On the homework review day, the instructor may ask each student to volunteer and explain how to solve problems on behalf of their colleagues. This is to develop the problem-solving and presentation skills as well as to practically review how much the students are understanding the materials. A bonus point will be earned accordingly.

11 homework assignments will be completed on MyLab Economics. No late submission is accepted.

Quizzes

Quizzes will be conducted online via Learning Catalytics (one of the modules in MyLab Economics) during the regular class time. The pop quiz questions are only set for the in-class exercise.

10 quizzes will be given during the entire semester (one question per quiz). No make-up quiz is given.

Exams

The exams must be taken as scheduled. There are no make-up exams in this course and students missing an exam without a valid excuse will receive an exam grade of zero for the specific exam. A valid excuse is defined as an authorized absence (see Midwestern State University Undergraduate Catalog for the definition) or an unforeseeable, proved, and documented event that requires the student's presence in a place other than the classroom during the class period, and such event is deemed acceptable by the instructor. No make-up exams are given for the unexcused missed exams.

Mid-Term Exam

There are two mid-term exams, which will be held during the regular class hours. The exams can be multiple-choice, true/false, fill-in-the-blank, draw a graph, and/or solving problems. The exam dates are noted in the Tentative Course Schedule in this syllabus. However, the instructor can change the exam dates if necessary. Any changes in those dates will be announced in advance and posted prominently on D2L as well as being announced in class.

Final Exam

A final exam is a comprehensive exam, which can be multiple-choice, true/false, fill-in-the-blank, draw a graph, and/or solving problems. Following the university schedule, the final exam will be held on 12/14 (Thursday), 1-3pm.

Late Work

If students miss an exam or assignment without prior approval from the instructor, a make-up exam or late submission of work is not allowed.

However, for those who have missed homework submission and got a zero grade, I may give you a grace period at the end of the semester, but only 50% of the points will be counted.

This will be announced accordingly right before the final week. Please do not email the instructor about this make-up work before then.

Most importantly, this opportunity will be given solely based on your instructor's decision. If the instructor thinks this grace period is not a well-deserved opportunity to this class, the opportunity will not be given.

Attendance

Students are expected to attend all meetings of the classes given the university attendance policy. For an excused absence, the document justifying the absence must be handed in to the instructor beforehand or within one week from the absence. Instructor's records will stand as evidence of absences. A student with excessive absences may be dropped from a course by the instructor.

As a matter of courtesy, do not leave lecture early without prior approval. Leaving class early, without prior approval, can result in an absence. To avoid disturbing the class, you are not to walk in and out of the classroom during class except for in an emergency.

Use of cell phones, laptops, iPad, or other electronic devices is also not allowed in this class.

I may consider your tendency of class participation in favor of a better grade if you only miss a higher score by a narrow margin. If you have any concerns or excuses during the semester, please let your instructor know.
