Course Description

This course provides a broad introduction to public sector economics and helps students understand fundamental role that government can and does have on the free-market system.

Expected Learning Outcomes

By the end of the semester, students should be able to:

- Apply economic methodology to the government arena.
- Understand types and reasons for government interference.

Textbook & Instructional Materials

Stiglitz, Joseph and Rosengard, Jay, 2015. Economics of the Public Sector, 4th ed. W. W. Norton & Company, Inc., New York, and London (Not Required).

Copyright

The class materials associated with this course are provided to facilitate student learning and are protected by the United States copyright laws. Dissemination or sale of the class material (including the World Wide Web) is not permitted. The class material is only available to students enrolled in the course that requires the use of the corresponding textbook. Students should abide by these restrictions. Academic Misconduct Policy & Procedures

Academic Dishonesty: Cheating, collusion, and plagiarism (the act of using source material of other persons, either published or unpublished, without following the accepted techniques of crediting, or the submission for credit of work not the individual's to whom credit is given).

Additional guidelines on procedures in these matters may be found in the Office of Student Conduct.

Correspondence

All correspondence regarding class issues must be conducted in person or by email using your Midwestern State University (MSU) email only. I will not discuss grades or class standing over the phone. Since email is often the most convenient means of communication, it is recommended that students use and regularly monitor their MSU email account.

I suggest that you link your D2L email with your MSU email, so the messages sent through D2L will be forwarded to your MSU email. To do this,

- Log in to D2L.
- Click on your name on the right upper corner of the screen.
- Click on “account settings”.
- Click on “email”.
- Check “Forwarding incoming messages to an alternate email account” and enter your email in the box.
- Click on “save and close”.

Students are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all email messages, class discussions, assignment submissions, etc. If I consider any of them to be inappropriate or offensive, I will forward the message to the Chair of the department and the online administrators and appropriate actions will be taken.

Homework

Homework assignments will be given after the completion of each video lecture or advised accordingly. No late submission is accepted.

Exams

The exams will be either open-book exams or essay/report submission. There are no make-up exams in this course and students missing an exam without a valid excuse will receive an exam grade of zero for the specific exam. No make-up exams are given for the unexcused missed exams.

Mid-Term Exam

There are two open-book mid-term exams. The exams can be either essay writing or test based on multiple-choice, true/false, fill-in-the-blank, draw a graph, or solving problems. The precise guidance will be instructed during the semester. The exam dates are noted in the Tentative Course Schedule in this syllabus. However, the instructor can change the exam dates if necessary. Any changes in those dates will be announced in advance and posted prominently on D2L as well as being announced in video.

Final Exam

Final exam is a comprehensive open-book exam, which can be either essay writing or test based on multiple-choice, true/false, fill-in-the-blank, draw a graph, or solving problems.

Late Work

Late submission of work is not allowed.

Make Up Work/Tests

If students miss an exam or assignment without prior approval from the instructor, a make-up exam or assignment is not allowed.

Desire-to-Learn (D2L)

Extensive use of the MSU D2L program is a part of this course. Each student is expected to be familiar with this program as it provides a primary source of communication regarding assignments, examination materials, and general course information. You can log into D2L through the MSU Homepage. If you experience difficulties, please contact the technicians listed for the program or contact your instructor.

Attendance

Attendance will be checked each week based on assignment submissions and on student access to the course on D2L. Student are expected to submit all assignments for this course.

Change of Schedule

A student dropping a course (but not withdrawing from the University) within the first 12 class days of a regular semester or the first four class days of a summer semester is eligible for a 100% refund of applicable tuition and fees. Dates are published in the Schedule of Classes each semester.

Refund and Repayment Policy

A student who withdraws or is administratively withdrawn from Midwestern State University (MSU) may be eligible to receive a refund for all or a portion of the tuition, fees and room/board charges that were paid to MSU for the semester. HOWEVER, if the student received financial aid (federal/state/institutional grants, loans and/or scholarships), all or a portion of the refund may be returned to the financial aid programs. As described below, two formulas (federal and state) exist in determining the amount of the refund. (Examples of each refund calculation will be made available upon request).

Services for Students with Disabilities

In accordance with Section 504 of the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Midwestern State University endeavors to make reasonable accommodations to ensure equal opportunity for qualified persons with disabilities to participate in all educational, social, and recreational programs and activities. After notification of acceptance, students requiring accommodations should make application for such assistance through Disability Support Services, located in the Clark Student Center, Room 168, (940) 397-4140. Current documentation of a disability will be required in order to provide appropriate services, and each request will be individually reviewed. For more details, please go to Disability Support Services.

College Policies

Campus Carry Rules/Policies

Refer to: Campus Carry Rules and Policies

Smoking/Tobacco Policy

College policy strictly prohibits the use of tobacco products in any building owned or operated by WATC. Adult students may smoke only in the outside designated-smoking areas at each location.

Alcohol and Drug Policy

To comply with the Drug Free Schools and Communities Act of 1989 and subsequent amendments, students and employees of Midwestern State are informed that strictly enforced policies are in place which prohibits the unlawful possession, use or distribution of any illicit drugs, including alcohol, on university property or as part of any university-sponsored activity. Students and employees are also subject to all applicable legal sanctions under local, state and federal law for any offenses involving illicit drugs on University property or at University-sponsored activities.

Grade Appeal Process

Update as needed. Students who wish to appeal a grade should consult the Midwestern State University Undergraduate Catalog
