Instructor Response Policy

The best way to contact me is through email. I usually respond quickly. You can expect a response within 24 hours; however, it could be a little longer on weekends or holidays.

I. Course Description:

Students will study how leaders can support and improve excellence in performance for a diverse population. Conferencing skills, observation techniques, evaluation techniques, peer coaching, management, staff development, individual decision-making, and developmental supervision are some of the concepts to be examined.

Mission

Our mission, as a community of learners, is to prepare successful, reflective professionals through the use of best practice.

Beliefs

The West College of Education believes that learning changes both individuals and society. Developing resiliency and tolerance enhances an individual's potential. Through education, the individual becomes a critical thinker and an effective problem solver. Individuals with a cause beyond self contribute to an informed, democratic, and synergistic society. Our faculty continually strives to establish a reflective and collaborative community to enhance the potential of both the learner and society.

II. Course Learning Objectives and Expectations

Course Learning Objectives:

1. The candidate will differentiate between traditional and dynamic schools/organizations.
2. The candidate will evaluate and articulate supervisory beliefs and personal supervisory styles.
3. The candidate will define and apply developmental and clinical supervision knowledge and skills to improve instruction/performance.
4. The candidate will develop and plan effective professional development based on the instructional needs of teachers/staff.

Student Learning Objectives:

1. Students will discuss and identify elements of traditional and dynamic schools.
2. Students will learn how their own interpersonal behaviors affect individuals as well as groups of people and identify ranges of interpersonal behaviors to enhance change-oriented relationships.
3. Students will design a professional development program to support teachers based on their instructional needs.
4. Students will develop professional development based on the needs of teachers to improve instruction for a diverse student body.

Course Expectations

The Master of Education degree with a major in Educational Leadership prepares students for school/organization leadership roles. The program provides opportunities for students to learn and apply knowledge, skills, and dispositions set forth in the following standards and competencies.

National Educational Leadership Preparation (NELP) standards. (A list of additional standards is located in the Appendix).

- NELP 1.1: Collaboratively evaluate, develop, and communicate a school mission and vision designed to reflect a core set of values and priorities that include data use, technology, equity, diversity, digital citizenship, and community.
- NELP 1.2: Lead improvement processes that include data use, design, implementation, and evaluation
- NELP 2.1: Program completers understand and demonstrate the capacity to reflect on, communicate about, cultivate, and model professional dispositions and norms (i.e., fairness, integrity, transparency, trust, digital citizenship, collaboration, perseverance, reflection, lifelong learning) that support the educational success and well-being of each student and adult.
- NELP 4.1: Understands and can demonstrate the capacity to evaluate, develop and implement high quality, technology rich curricula, programs, and other supports for academic and non-academic student programs.

NELP 7.2: Develop and engage staff in a collaborative professional culture designed to promote school improvement, teacher retention, and the success and well-being of each student and adult in the school.

NELP 7.3: Understands and has the capacity to personally engage in, as well as collaboratively engage school staff in, professional learning designed to promote reflection, cultural responsiveness, distributed leadership, digital literacy, school improvement, and student success.

NELP 7.4: Understands and has the capacity to evaluate, develop, and implement systems of supervision, support, and evaluation designed to promote school improvement and student success.

ISTE Educational Leader Standards

3.1. Equity and Citizenship Advocate Leaders use technology to increase equity, inclusion, and digital citizenship practices. Education leaders:

- 3.1.a. Ensure all students have skilled teachers who actively use technology to meet student learning needs.
- 3.1.b. Ensure all students have access to the technology and connectivity necessary to participate in authentic and engaging learning opportunities.
- 3.1.c. Model digital citizenship by critically evaluating online resources, engaging in civil discourse online and using digital tools to contribute to positive social change.
- 3.1.d. Cultivate responsible online behavior, including the safe, ethical and legal use of technology.

3.2. Visionary Planner Leaders engage others in establishing a vision, strategic plan and ongoing evaluation cycle for transforming learning with technology. Education leaders:

- 3.2.a. Engage education stakeholders in developing and adopting a shared vision for using technology to improve student success, informed by the learning sciences.
- 3.2.b. Build on the shared vision by collaboratively creating a strategic plan that articulates how technology will be used to enhance learning.
- 3.2.c. Evaluate progress on the strategic plan, make course corrections, measure impact and scale effective approaches for using technology to transform learning.
- 3.2.d. Communicate effectively with stakeholders to gather input on the plan, celebrate successes and engage in a continuous improvement cycle.
- 3.2.e. Share lessons learned, best practices, challenges and the impact of learning with technology with other education

3.3. Empowering Leader leaders who want to learn from this work. Leaders create a culture where teachers and learners are empowered to use technology in innovative ways to enrich teaching and learning. Education leaders:

- 3.3.a. Empower educators to exercise professional agency, build teacher leadership skills and pursue personalized professional learning.
- 3.3.b. Build the confidence and competency of educators to put the ISTE Standards for Students and Educators into practice.
- 3.3.c. Inspire a culture of innovation and collaboration that allows the time and space to explore and experiment with digital tools.
- 3.3.d. Support educators in using technology to advance learning that meets the diverse learning, cultural, and social emotional needs of individual students.

- 3.3.e. Develop learning assessments that provide a personalized, actionable view of student progress in real time.

3.4. Systems Designer Leaders build teams and systems to implement, sustain and continually improve the use of technology to support learning. Education leaders:

- 3.4.a. Lead teams to collaboratively establish robust infrastructure and systems needed to implement the strategic plan.
- 3.4.b. Ensure that resources for supporting the effective use of technology for learning are sufficient and scalable to meet future demand.
- 3.4.c. Protect privacy and security by ensuring that students and staff observe effective privacy and data management policies.
- 3.4.d. Establish partnerships that support the strategic vision, achieve learning priorities and improve operations.

3.5. Connected Learner Leaders model and promote continuous professional learning for themselves and others. Education leaders:

- 3.5.a. Set goals to remain current on emerging technologies for learning, innovations in pedagogy and advancements in the learning sciences.
- 3.5.b. Participate regularly in online professional learning networks to collaboratively learn with and mentor other professionals.
- 3.5.c. Use technology to regularly engage in reflective practices that support personal and professional growth.
- 3.5.d. Develop the skills needed to lead and navigate change, advance systems and promote a mindset of continuous improvement for how technology can improve learning.

III. Course Attendance, Assignments, and Activities

1. Attendance and Participation

This course requires active participation. Class attendance is expected to be consistent and interactive when students are taking an online course. Candidates are encouraged to contact the professor if they are unable to participate in a class discussion.

Candidates are expected to participate actively in all online discussions and to demonstrate interest and proficiency in the topics and material covered in the readings and discussions.

Students are expected to check their email at least once a day when taking a face-to-face course or an online course. It is imperative to continue open communication in an online course.

2. Assignments

Each candidate is required to complete all assignments designated for this course in the allotted time. Late assignments will receive 80% of the original available points.

Assignments are to be completed according to the guidelines. All assignments must also be completed in substantial form meeting APA requirements to receive an 'A' in the course.

3. Activities

There are several activities that must be completed for each module. The activities play an important role in preparing you for the course assessments.

VIII. Other Policy Information

Disclaimer: EDLE 5743 is a course assigned to the Master of Education in Educational Leadership without principal certification.

Online Etiquette: Students should use formal, professional language when corresponding online. Use complete sentences, follow the code of ethics and standard practices for Texas educators, and treat all members of the class with respect.

Confidentiality: Upholding confidentiality is a major responsibility of the student. Anything discussed during class, online in this class, or shared by individual students about themselves is considered confidential. Please do not share any information shared to you by other students.

Academic Dishonesty: Students at Midwestern State University are an essential part of the academic community and enjoy substantial freedom within the framework of the educational objectives of the institution. The freedom necessary for learning in a community so rich in diversity and achieving success toward our educational objectives requires high standards of academic integrity. Academic dishonesty has no place in an institution of advanced learning. It is each student's responsibility to know what constitutes academic dishonesty and to seek clarification directly from the instructor if necessary. Examples of academic dishonesty include, but are not limited to:

- Submission of an assignment as the student's original work that is entirely or partly the work of another person.
- Failure to appropriately cite references from published or unpublished works or print/non-print materials, including work found on the World Wide Web.
- Observing or assisting another student's work.
- Multiple Submission - Submitting a substantial portion or the entire same work (including oral presentations) for credit in different classes without permission or knowledge of the instructor.

AI / Chat GPT

Since writing, analytical, and critical thinking skills are part of the learning outcomes of this course, all writing assignments should be prepared by the student. Developing strong competencies in this area will prepare you for a competitive workplace. Therefore, AI-generated submissions are not permitted and will be treated as plagiarism.

You may type a question into ChatGPT, you may not copy and paste its response, and turn it in as your own. If you use ChatGPT, you must disclose this somewhere in your assignment. If you use ChatGPT or any AI, please use it in ways that are ethical, accurate, and useful.

Services for Students with Disabilities

In accordance with Section 504 of the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Midwestern State University endeavors to make reasonable accommodations to ensure equal opportunity for qualified persons with disabilities to participate in all educational, social, and recreational programs and activities. After notification of acceptance, students requiring accommodations should make application for such assistance through Disability Support Services, located in the Clark Student Center, Room 168, (940) 397-4140. Current documentation of a disability will be required in order to provide appropriate services, and each request will be individually reviewed. For more details, please go to Disability Support Services.

Students with Disabilities:

Any student who, because of a disability, may require special arrangements in order to meet the course requirements should contact the instructor as soon as possible to make necessary arrangements. Students must present appropriate verification from the University's Disability Support Services (DSS) Office during the instructor's office hours. Please note that instructors are not allowed to provide classroom accommodation(s) to a student until appropriate verification from DSS has been provided.

Late Work: All papers and assignments must be submitted the day they are due. If you have an emergency, please let me know in advance, and/or email me your assignment the same day it is due. Please begin planning your semester schedule accordingly.

Extra Credit

No extra credit will be given for this course.

Desire-to-Learn (D2L)

Extensive use of the MSU D2L program is a part of this course. Each student is expected to be familiar with this program as it provides a primary source of communication regarding assignments, examination materials, and general course information. You can log into D2L through the MSU Homepage. If you experience difficulties, please contact the technicians listed for the program or contact your instructor.

Change of Schedule

A student dropping a course (but not withdrawing from the University) within the first 12 class days of a regular semester or the first four class days of a summer semester is eligible for a 100% refund of applicable tuition and fees. Dates are published in the Schedule of Classes each semester.

Refund and Repayment Policy

A student who withdraws or is administratively withdrawn from Midwestern State University (MSU) may be eligible to receive a refund for all or a portion of the tuition, fees and room/board charges that were paid to MSU for the semester. HOWEVER, if the student received financial aid (federal/state/institutional grants, loans and/or scholarships), all or a portion of the refund may be returned to the financial aid programs. As described below, two formulas (federal and state) exist in determining the amount of the refund. (Examples of each refund calculation will be made available upon request).
