Academic Misconduct Policy & Procedures

Academic Dishonesty is cheating, collusion, and plagiarism. Plagiarism is the use of someone else's thoughts, words, ideas, or lines of argument in your own work without appropriate documentation (a parenthetical citation in the text and a listing in "Works Cited")—whether you use that material in a quote, paraphrase, or summary. At the least, plagiarism will result in an F on an assignment. At the worst it will result in an F in the course. Additional guidelines on procedures in these matters may be found in the Office of Student Conduct.

Use of ChatGPT or Grammarly can cause you to fail assignments because their AI writes or rewrites papers for you. In this course use Grammar Check because it helps you with grammar, capitalization, and word choice without rewriting your paper.

Attendance, Participation, and Conduct

Students are expected to attend all meetings of the classes in which they are enrolled. Although in general students are graded on intellectual effort and performance rather than attendance, absences may lower the student's grade where class attendance and class participation are deemed essential by the faculty member. An absence is missing an entire class as well as

- touching a cell phone or similar electronic device while in the classroom, (*Research proves that a cell phone within reach mentally removes its owner from the classroom.) Therefore, you will submit your phone during class.
- sleeping during class
- refusing to work with your group
- missing more than 15 minutes of class time.

You can make-up an absence by

- attending a PYCHSS sponsored event (announced during class)
- meeting with the instructor for an extracurricular draft conference
- presenting proof to your instructor that you worked on a paper/essay with a writing tutor at TASP.

Your instructor will keep records on a daily basis. The instructor's records will stand as evidence of absences and participation. You are allowed 6 absences in this Monday-Wednesday-Friday (MWF) course. A 7th absence and/or low participation may mean being dropped from the course by the instructor.

You are expected to conduct yourself professionally:

- Stay in your chair: Take care of personal needs before class. If you are ill, take your possessions and exit the classroom for the day.
- Practice professional behavior: While the instructor is speaking, do not engage in conversations with your peers. When the instructor asks questions, answer. During group time, interact with your peers.

Midterm Grades

In order to help students keep track of their progress toward course objectives, the instructor provides a Midterm Progress Report through Navigate. Midterm grades are not reported on the students' transcript, nor are they calculated in the cumulative GPA. They simply give students an idea of where they stand at the midpoint of the semester. Students who are not doing satisfactory work at the midway point should make an appointment with their instructor and consider visiting TASP.

MLA Format and Policy

Papers must follow MLA format style. This style preference includes the following:

- Header: writer's last name and page number
- Identification: writer's full name, instructor's name, course title-number-section, date
- Title: centered
- Spacing: Double-spaced throughout (extra space eliminated)
- Margins: One-inch margins on top, bottom, and sides of text
- Font: Times New Roman, Calibri, or Arial; size 12

By enrolling in this class, the student expressly grants MSU a "limited right" in all intellectual property created by the student for the purpose of this course. The "limited right" shall include but shall not be limited to the right to reproduce the student's work product in order to verify originality and authenticity, and for educational purposes. Note: Students may not submit a paper for a grade in this class that already has been (or will be) submitted for a grade in another course, unless you obtain the explicit written permission of both instructors involved in advance.

Safe Zone Statement

The professor considers this classroom to be a place where students will be treated with respect as a human being – regardless of gender, race, ethnicity, national origin, religious affiliation, sexual orientation, political beliefs, age, or ability. Additionally, diversity of thought is appreciated and encouraged, provided you can agree to disagree. It is the professor's expectation that ALL students consider the classroom a safe environment.
