Textbook & Instructional Materials

- Langan, John. Clear Thinking and Writing. Townsend, 2019. (9781591945659)
- Wood, Nancy V. Essentials of Argument. Pearson, 2011. (9780205827022)
- Supplies: 1 ½-inch three-ring binder (1 binder will hold 1143 and 0043 materials), 5 labeled dividers (Notes, Grammar, Writing Resources, Papers, Research), notebook paper (not jagged-edged spiral paper), pens/pencils, highlighter, black Sharpie, D2L email

D2L: D2L is MSU’s digital learning platform. At msutexas.edu, login is in the upper left corner. The drop down menu will give you the D2L option. In D2L, login in with your student credentials. Selecting the tiles in the upper right corner will show you a list of the courses for which you’ve registered. Make certain you open both ENGL 1143 and ENGL 0043—different assignments and assessments are in each D2L shell.

Plagiarism Policy: Plagiarism is the use of someone else’s thoughts, words, ideas, or lines or argument in your own work without appropriate documentation (a parenthetical citation at the end and a listing in “Works Cited”)—whether you use that material in a quote, paraphrase, or summary. It is a theft of intellectual property and will not be tolerated whether intentional or not. At the least, plagiarism will result in an F on the assignment; at worst, the consequence will be an automatic F for the course. I will follow the reporting procedure required by the Dean of Students. Refer to Office of Student Conduct

Grading: Your grades in this course are based on this scale: A=100-90%; B=89-80%; C=79-70%; D=69-60%; F=59-0%. According to MSU’s Undergraduate Catalogue, “letter grades have the following significance: A indicates excellent work, B indicates good work, C indicates satisfactory work, D indicates passing work, F indicates failing work” (73). Consequently, an essay that meets the basic requirements earns a C, not an A or B. If you wish to earn As and Bs, you will have to work hard to produce better than satisfactory, or average, writing.

Passing each of these courses requires a final grade of C or better. Although ENGL 0043 is a developmental course, it is part of your overall GPA.

Homework: Homework assignments are listed on the daily schedule on their due dates. Homework is due at the beginning of class.

Participation: Participation is bringing your books, binder, homework, and writing assignments to class. It is also taking part in individual work, group work, and workshops. Participation is keeping your phone out of reach until it is used for classroom purposes. Failing to participate during class lowers your participation grade. You may raise this 0043 grade by attending and signing in at an event sponsored by the English Department. See the classroom bulletin board.

Attendance Policy: Attendance in 0043 is mandatory. Each absence lowers your participation grade by 5%. You're allowed 4 absences. That is more than a full week of class—too much to miss in college. The fifth earns an F in the course and the lost opportunity to continue attending class. Don't miss out on an education due to absences.

If you are unable to attend class due to illness, watch the live stream of that day's lesson through Zoom on D2L. Send an email to becky.green@msutexas.edu explaining your absence. Watching the class through Zoom does not make you present for class, but it may help you keep up in the course. In case of your hospitalization or a family member's death, contact the dean of students 940.397.7500.

Dropping the Course: If you are enrolled in both ENGL 0043 and 1143 (R sections), you may drop one course and remain enrolled in the other under the following condition: If you are taking a beginning or intermediate math course, you may drop ENGL 0043 on 19 October 2020 or later. (This option does not apply to students who exceed four absences before this date and are dropped with an F.) You may drop 1143 any time before the semester drop date, the final day of classes.

Submission Format and Policy: Submit all writing assignments—paragraphs and papers—in MLA format. The guidelines are as follows:

- Double space.
- Maintain a one-inch margin around the text.
- Use a font of Times New Roman 12.
- Type on one side of the paper.
- Give the essay a title, centered. Do not use the thesis statement or question as a title.
- Indent each paragraph.

- Number each page in the header after your last name followed by a space in the upper right corner.
- List your first name, instructor's name, course and class number, and due date—day and then month and then year (no commas)—in the identification on the left, as part of the text, not the header.

Do not send assignments as email attachments. Submit all writing assignments in D2L, unless a hard copy is requested during class time. Due dates are listed on the Course Schedule at the end of this syllabus and notifications are on the D2L calendar.

Note: you may not submit a paper for a grade in these two classes that already has been (or will be) submitted for a grade in another course, unless you obtain the explicit written permission of me and the other instructor involved in advanced.

By enrolling in this class, you expressly grant MSU a "limited right" in all intellectual property created by you for the purpose of [these courses]. The "limited right" shall include but shall not be limited to the right to reproduce your work product in order to verify originality and authenticity and for educational purposes.

Writing Quizzes: Clear Thinking and Writing teaches point and support, argument, and relationships in writing. After practicing these ideas and skills, you will demonstrate your competence on a D2L writing quiz. (Each quiz will support the work you are doing in 1143.) The four writing quizzes are 10% of your 0043 total course grade.

Grammar Quizzes: Grammar quizzes are 10% of your 0043 total grade. You will take 5 quizzes on D2L outside of class so that you can use your Clear Thinking and Writing textbook and class notes while you test and practice the skills.

Writing Workshop Assignments: Workshop Assignments are 40% of your 0043 grade. You'll complete 4 of them—A through D. Type these paragraphs and follow MLA format. Although they are 0043 grades, they are building blocks of your 1143 papers. These assignments are submitted as hard copies in class, not in D2L.

Chapter Quizzes and Discussions: In 1143 you'll be reading eight chapters in Essentials of Argument. After six of the chapters, you will either take a quiz or "begin a thread" on a discussion board in D2L. Then you will read your peers' threads and post responses. The combined quizzes are 10% of your grade; the discussions are 10%.

Extra Credit: I do not give extra credit assignments. Check the course schedule daily so that you know when an assignment is due. Give yourself time to put your best effort into an assignment to earn the best grade possible.

Late Work:

- I do not accept late homework, which consists of assignments from Clear Thinking and Writing.
- I do not accept late grammar quizzes or writing quizzes.
- I do not accept late workshop paragraphs.

You have a schedule for this class which gives you the date that every assignment is due. In addition, Pulse, an app for iPhone, iPad, or Android, can notify you about assignments and tests. See D2L for information.

TASP: Tutoring and Academic Support Programs (TASP) provides free drop-in tutoring for MSU students. Located on the first floor of Moffett Library, TASP's Learning Center provides tutoring support in a number of core courses and subject areas. Writing tutors are available Monday through Thursday from 11:00am to 6:00pm and Sunday 2:00pm to 9:00pm. Remember that you don't need an appointment to utilize these services. For Distance Education students, TASP has partnered with Thinkingstorm, an online tutoring company that provides you with high-quality, 24/7 tutoring support. Located at the top of your D2L course page, select the tutoring tab to book an appointment with a tutor.

Instructor Class Policies

Be on time

- If you are repeatedly late to class, I will begin marking you absent.
- If extenuating circumstances prevent you from arriving on time, please let me know.

Practice courtesy

- When I am speaking to the class, do not walk in front of me. If you arrive late to class, wait outside the classroom until I invite you in. When another student is speaking, listen.
- You do need a cell phone or laptop this semester. But silence and put away all electronic devices until I instruct you that it's time to use them for classroom purposes.
- If you leave the classroom for any reason, you do not need my permission. Simply leave when I or a classmate is not speaking.
- Do not eat in the classroom. You may, however, drink from spill-proof containers.
- Disruptive behavior is grounds for being asked to leave the room and being counted absent.
