Exams

The student will read the chapter(s) and/or power point presentations associated with each exam. These exams may consist of multiple choice, short answer, definitions, listing, true false, and/or essay. Exams will have a time limit and may only be accessed once. This means that you cannot start the exam then return to it at a later time. Please be sure that when you begin an exam you set apart enough time to start and complete the exam in the allotted amount of time.

Book Review

The life and death of Henrietta Lacks is a cautionary tale that reflects the inherent contradiction between the stated purpose of medical research to provide benefit to human kind and the reality of blatant profiteering in the name of advancement of science. The tragedy of the Henrietta Lacks saga should remind us all, especially those in the medical profession, that we have a responsibility to protect those we serve.

- Several ethical issues arise in this book: identify at least two ethical issues that arise in the Henrietta Lacks case. What could have been done differently?
- Within the report cite at least 3 current (last five years) peer-reviewed research articles that focus on the ethical issues you address. These sources should correlate with your subject content. Please do not hesitate to utilize additional sources as well.
- The report is to be APA format, word processed utilizing a font no greater than 12 with 1-inch margins and double-spaced with page numbers. The amount of student written material (excluding the Title Page and References) must total at least 3-5 pages. You will be graded on overall coverage of the subject and readability of the report. Points will be deducted for spelling and grammar.
- Reports should be submitted under the assignment drop box and are due no later than November 23nd.

Begin drafting papers as early as possible and take advantage of the MSU Writing Center! Tutoring is available Monday through Thursday from 9am to 4pm; you can also find a tutor at the satellite location in Moffett Library Honors Lounge, Sunday and Thursday from 6pm to 9pm. Writing tutors will not edit your papers for you, but they will provide support and feedback at every stage of the writing process, from brainstorming to drafting, revising to proofreading.

As distance students you can email your paper to the writing center.

In an email addressed to kristen.garrison@msutexas.edu, with "Online Submission: [last name]" in the subject line, please provide the following information:

- Your full name and M#
- Course and Instructor name
- A copy or description of the assignment
- 2-3 specific questions you have for the tutor. Use questions provided on our link "How to Focus Your Session."
- Attach your draft as a Word document, and hit send!

A tutor will use both Track Changes and general email comments to provide feedback. If you submit your essay Sunday through Thursday, you can expect to receive a response within 48 hours; tutors will read essays submitted on Friday or Saturday (when the Writing Center is closed) when they return to work on Sunday and Monday

Participation & Discussion

Participation and discussion will be based on initial post and discussion with peers. It is important to remember that to be successful with the discussion board you MUST discuss. Do not simply put "I agree" as a response to a peers post. The earlier you post the more successful everyone will be. During the weeks that include discussions, an initial post must be submitted by Wednesday at 11:59pm. Two substantial responses must be made within the discussion board by Sunday at 11:59pm. Late posts do not allow for the possibility of good discussion and therefore are not accepted and will be graded as a 0.

In all discussion boards students are expected to:

- 1.) Raise thoughtful questions
- 2.) Incorporate content from readings
- 3.) Build on the ideas of others
- 4.) Synthesize across readings and discussions
- 5.) Expand the class' perspective
- 6.) Appropriately challenge assumptions and perspectives
- 7.) Use citations to support post in proper APA format
- 8.) Initial post should be at least 200 words (approximately 1/2 page); read and respond to two classmate's posts as appropriate using 3), 4), and 6) as guiding elements (avoid "I agree" or "good post" type comments)

Extra Credit

Extra credit will not be given in this course.

Late Work

Late work will not be accepted, unless prior discussion has occurred with the professor.

Attendance

Students are expected to attend all meetings of the classes in which they are enrolled. Although in general students are graded on intellectual effort and performance rather than attendance, absences may lower the student's grade where class attendance and class participation are deemed essential by the faculty member. In those classes where attendance is considered as part of the grade, the instructor should so inform students of the specifics in writing at the beginning of the semester in a syllabus or separate attendance policy statement. An instructor who has an attendance policy must keep records on a daily basis. The instructor must give the student a verbal or written warning prior to being dropped from the class. Instructor's records will stand as evidence of absences. A student with excessive absences may be dropped from a course by the instructor. Any individual faculty member or college has the authority to establish an attendance policy, providing the policy is in accordance with the General University Policies.

Online Computer Requirements

Taking an online class requires you to have access to a computer (with Internet access) to complete and upload your assignments. It is your responsibility to have (or have access to) a working computer in this class. Assignments and tests are due by the due date, and personal computer technical difficulties will not be considered reason for the instructor to allow students extra time to submit assignments, tests, or discussion postings. Computers are available on campus in various areas of the buildings as well as the Academic Success Center. Your computer being down is not an excuse for missing a deadline!! There are many places to access your class! Our online classes can be accessed from any computer in the world which is connected to the internet. Contact your instructor immediately upon having computer trouble. If you have technical difficulties in the course, there is also a student helpdesk available to you. The college cannot work directly on student computers due to both liability and resource limitations however they are able to help you get connected to our online services. For help, log into D2L.
