COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Why did Europeans colonize the Americas in the 1600s, patriots overthrow their mother country in the 1700s, and Americans fight a deadly war against one another in the 1800s? This course examines the history of colonial America and the United States to the end of the Civil War. The first third explores the effects of colonization, including the rise of race-based slavery, the displacement of Indigenous peoples, and the road to revolution. The second third considers how diverse Americans envisioned the meanings and consequences of independence. The final third examines the polarizing politics of slavery that led to the secession of eleven states. It took a deadly civil war to restore the Union and destroy slavery. Throughout the semester, we will contemplate what it meant to be free—or unfree—at various moments in American history.

By the end of the semester, you should be able to:

- Synthesize historical material about colonial America, the American Revolution, the early republic, the antebellum era, and the era of the Civil War
- Develop an argument that draws on primary sources to answer a historical question
- Identify and evaluate the arguments of primary and secondary sources, paying close attention to language and context
- Communicate effectively by writing clear, well-supported exams and papers

REQUIRED READINGS:

Locke and Wright, eds., The American Yawp, Vol. 1: To 1877

- This textbook is available for free online at <http://www.americanyawp.com>. Should you desire a hard copy, you can either print out the chapters (~ 40 pages each) or purchase a print edition in the book store or on Amazon (currently listed for $21.85). There is also a PDF available online for e-Readers.

The American Yawp Reader, <http://www.americanyawp.com/reader.html>

- This collection of primary sources is available for free online. The sections correspond with chapters in The American Yawp. The primary sources are also available at the end of each chapter under “Primary Sources.” Simply scroll to the end of the chapter. (Note: If you purchase the hard copy of the textbook, you will need to go to the above website to access the sources.)

COURSE EXPECTATIONS:

ATTENDANCE AND CLASS MEETINGS IN THE AGE OF COVID: You are expected to regularly attend class. Your success depends upon your engagement with the course materials and class discussions. But, please do not come to class if you are feeling under the weather or have been exposed to COVID. No exceptions. Instead, please contact me. We'll work together to make a plan that fits your needs.

READING ASSIGNMENTS: You are expected to complete all assigned reading, which includes your textbook and primary sources. These should be read differently.

- Read the textbook for major themes and content. Consider the context, causes, and consequences of the people and events it discusses.
- Read the primary sources for perspective. Why is the author writing the source? What does it reveal about the time the author lived? How does it better help you—and historians—understand what people were thinking and doing in the past?

SYLLABUS QUIZ (2%): You will take a syllabus quiz the first week of class. It covers that materials found on the syllabus. You are welcome to consult the syllabus as you take it.

READING QUIZZES (10%): There will be 6 reading quizzes throughout the semester. They are timed (15 minutes) through D2L and consist of 10 multiple choice questions based on the textbook chapter. They are due by midnight on Friday (but will be posted a week prior). A missed quiz will be recorded as a zero. Your lowest quiz grade will be dropped.

PRIMARY SOURCE ANALYSES (18%): Throughout the semester you will be required to turn in 6 one-to-two page primary source analyses. You can choose which week you submit a PSA based on your schedule and interests, but you must complete two by each exam. These must be turned in on different weeks. To earn extra credit, students can turn in both primary source analyses before the week of your exam. You will receive 1 extra credit point added to the multiple choice portion of your exam. See the schedule below.

- Your first two PSAs must be turned in by Sept. 24 (or both by Sept 17 for extra credit).
- Your second two PSAs must be turned in by Oct. 29 (or both by Oct. 15 for extra credit).
- Your third two PSAs must be turned in by Dec. 3 (or both by Nov. 26 for extra credit).

Your Primary Source Analysis should respond to one primary source in the American Yawp Reader (link on D2L, also available under “Primary Sources” at the end of each online chapter). These assignments are to be turned in, via D2L, during the week that the sources are assigned. An instruction sheet on how to complete these assignments is on D2L.

EXAMS (70%): You will take 3 exams during the semester. Each exam will consist of multiple choice questions and short essays. Before each exam you will receive a series of possible question themes that you should spend time researching/preparing. You will be required to answer the short essays in paragraph form. The best answers make arguments with specific evidence. More information about the exam will be circulated the week before the exam.

GRADING SCALE: A = 100-90; B = 89-80; C = 79-70; D = 69-60, F = 59 and below

GRADES:	Syllabus Quiz = 2%	Exam 1 = 20%
	Primary Source Analyses: 18%	Exam 2 = 23%
	Reading quizzes = 10%	Exam 3 = 27%

CLASS STRUCTURE: Think about this class as consisting of 3 five-week sections. Each section requires you to take two reading quizzes, submit two primary sources analyses, and take an exam.

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT POLICY: “As an MSU Student, I pledge not to lie, cheat, steal, or help anyone else do so.” Academic misconduct—cheating, collusion, plagiarism, etc.—will not be tolerated and will receive an F. For example, “cutting and pasting” from any internet source or poorly paraphrasing (i.e. changing a few words with the synonym function) without citing that source is plagiarism. It is unacceptable.

DROP DATE: Last Day to drop with a grade of “W” is October 25, 2021. It is the student’s responsibility to visit with their academic advisor prior to withdrawing from a class.

ACCOMMODATIONS: Students should visit the DSS webpage for current students. If you have never applied for accommodations before you may qualify for them under the vulnerable population designation. The application may be downloaded or completed online. Once an accommodations letter is provided students will discuss their specific accommodation needs with their professor(s).

COMPUTER REQUIREMENTS: This class uses D2L. You will find readings, take reading quizzes, and submit papers through D2L. It is your responsibility to have (or have access to) a working computer in this class. Computers are available on campus in various areas of the buildings.

TUTORING & ACADEMIC SUPPORT:

TASP offers tutoring assistance. Please contact the TASP, (940) 397-4684, or visit the TASP homepage for more information.

NOTICE: Changes in the course syllabus, procedure, assignments, and schedule may be made at the discretion of the instructor. Look on D2L for any relevant announcements.
