Course Description

The instructor has designed this course first and foremost with the intention of providing her students with a basic understanding of the themes and events that dominated the American past since the Civil War. For obvious reasons, she has not designed the course to be in anyway comprehensive, but rather foundational. It is a course from which further exploration of this nation's history may be launched. In addition to providing students with a broad knowledge of US History, the course will help students critically analyze historical events. The course design also includes interpretive techniques in an effort to help students better understand what it is that historians do.

Required Book

*Eric Foner, Give Me Liberty! An American History 7th ed., vol. 2

Attendance

Students will be permitted to make up missed assignments in the case of official university-related absences. If documentation is provided as evidence, students will also be allowed to make up missed assignments in the case of illness and/or close family death. If you have more than 4 unexcused absences, you may be dropped from the class.

D2L

Extensive use of D2L is part of this course. I will use D2L for posting syllabi, course communication, course schedule, and gradebook. You should regularly check D2L for information pertaining to the class.

Academic Misconduct Policy & Procedures

Academic Dishonesty: Cheating, collusion, and plagiarism (the act of using source material of other persons, either published or unpublished, without following the accepted techniques of crediting, or the submission for credit of work not the individual's to whom credit is given). The instructor will be using Turnitin.com to check for plagiarism and Artificial Intelligence. Plagiarism and/or use of Artificial Intelligence is academic dishonesty and will result in a zero for the assignment.

Make Up Work/Tests

Both exams and all the quizzes are available on D2L. If you fail to take an exam or quiz by the given deadline, you must provide a legitimate reason as to why if you expect to make it up. Forgetting is not a legitimate excuse.

Midterm Progress Report

In order to help students keep track of their progress toward course objectives, the instructor for this class will provide a Midterm Progress Report through each student's WebWorld account. All students will receive this midterm progress report. Midterm grades will not be reported on the students' transcript, nor will they be calculated in the cumulative GPA. They simply give students an idea of where they stand at the midpoint of the semester. Students earning below a C at the midway point should schedule a meeting with the instructor.

Important Dates

Last day for term schedule changes: August 28-31
Deadline to file for December graduation: September 25
Deadline to file for May graduation: October 2
Last Day to drop with a grade of "W:" October 30

Instructor's In-Class Policies

*Attendance requires more than being present in class. It means showing up prepared; contributing to class discussions; and exhibiting respect for classmates and the instructor.

*Cell phones should be on silent and put away during class.

*If seen wearing airpods or headphones, students will be asked to remove them. Repeat offenders will be asked to leave the classroom.

*Laptops are a privilege and not a right. Students are welcome to use laptops to take notes. However, if they are seen using the laptop for a non-class-related purpose, students will be given a verbal warning. Repeat offenders will no longer welcome to bring a laptop to class.

Services for Students With Disabilities

In accordance with Section 504 of the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Midwestern State University endeavors to make reasonable accommodations to ensure equal opportunity for qualified persons with disabilities to participate in all educational, social, and recreational programs and activities. After notification of acceptance, students requiring accommodations should make application for such assistance through Disability Support Services, located in the Clark Student Center, Room 168, (940) 397-4140. Current documentation of a disability will be required in order to provide appropriate services, and each request will be individually reviewed.
