Course Description

"I hear and I forget, I see and I remember, I do and I understand."

Those people who can deal effectively with other people are the ones who succeed, the ones who can help organizations to be successful. This course is designed to provide fundamental skills necessary for success in the business environment. In each lesson, we discuss how a skill or concept can be incorporated into one's self-development, how a skill or concept is used in interactions with others, especially in team settings, and how the skill or concept is applied in the context of managerial roles in organizations. Each class is set up to provide a complete learning experience. This course is experiential in nature, and taking an experiential course takes time, energy, a willingness to try new things, and commitment. I hope you benefit from this class and be successful in your career.

By the end of this course, students should be able to:

- Assess personal strengths and understand how these might guide them to a major and career path
- Assess personal limitations and develop a plan for improving in these areas
- Use situational cues to guide self-disclosure and trust.
- Implement goal setting to achieve personal and professional goals
- Make better use of time by working smarter and not harder.
- Identify stressors and find ways to reduce or change responses to them.
- Seek out opportunities to increase the diversity and the benefits it brings to individuals personally and as a member of an organization.
- Differentiate between positive and negative listening behaviors.
- Improve the ability to send clear messages
- Incorporate tactics and strategies to improve influence and persuasion skills
- Utilize agendas, questioning, framing, scripting, and other negotiation strategies to increase effectiveness as a negotiator
- Ensure that all members of a team understand their roles and responsibilities and contribute equitably to meeting team objectives
- Understand natural conflict styles and know which strategy to adopt in a conflict situation.
- Teach and guide teams in utilizing effective process skills
- Make a decision before having all of the necessary information

Academic Integrity, Dishonesty, and Plagiarism Policies

These policies are explained in the Student Handbook, in the section, Code of Student Conduct, Standards of Student Conduct, and in the most recent Electronic Catalog, under the Student Honor Creed. “By enrolling in this course, the student expressly grants MSU a ‘limited right’ in all intellectual property created by the student for the purpose of this course. The ‘limited right’ shall include but shall not be limited to the right to reproduce the student’s work product in order to verify originality and authenticity, and for educational purposes.” Additional guidelines on procedures in these matters may be found in the Office of Student Conduct.

Office of Student Conduct

Violation of any of the guidelines in the MSU Student Honor Creed is an academic integrity violation. In short, cheating, collusion, and plagiarism will not be tolerated. The term “cheating” generally means representing someone else’s work as your own and includes, but is not limited to:

1. Failing to report to your professor any suspicion of cheating on exams.
2. Acting with intent to promote or assist cheating, including soliciting, encouraging, directing, or aiding attempts of fellow students to cheat before, during, or after an exam.
3. Soliciting information about exam questions from students who have taken a test.
4. Intentionally or negligently aiding someone taking an exam or quiz.
5. Looking or glancing at another student’s exam while the exam is being taken.
6. Soliciting answers from a fellow student during an exam or quiz.

Grading

Important note: You must turn in each assignment to complete/pass the course.

Quality Class Participation	100
Individual/Group Exit Tickets	150
Group Quizzes	150
Two Personal Reflection Papers	200
Midterm Exam	200, or 0 if you waive midterm score
Final Exam	200, or 400 if you waive midterm score
TOTAL	1000 points

Grades will be based upon a percentage of those points earned by the student. There will be no substitutions for the above assignments. Final grades will follow the traditional demarcations as follows:

A = 90.00% and above

C = 70.00% to 79.99%

F = less than 60.00%

B = 80.00% to 89.99%

D = 60.00% to 69.99%

Quality Class Participation (100 points maximum): Class discussion is a critical learning vehicle. The importance and value of your participation cannot be stressed too highly. In order to be successful with regard to class participation, you must participate in an active and relevant way in every class meeting. By default, every student will receive 75 points for class participation. If you make significant contributions to class discussions, you may receive more than 75 points. However, if you miss classes, do not actively participate in class discussions, or consistently make non-constructive comments, you may receive fewer than 75 points. You will lose 5 points for every class session you miss or are more than 10 minutes late. If you need to miss a class for special circumstances, you should inform me by email in advance. Please get materials and notes from a classmate. Persistently low preparation and poor contributions will jeopardize your chances of receiving a good grade. Participation grades will be assessed according to the following criteria:

Exemplary (100%)	Average (75%)	Needs Improvement (50%)	Unacceptable (0%)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You make valuable contributions during nearly all class sessions You actively discuss the topic at hand and avoid discussing matters unrelated to the course You consistently demonstrate a high level of preparation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You frequently make valuable contributions, though not every class You are a constructive member during small group discussions You consistently demonstrate a high level of preparation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You sporadically comment in class During group discussions, you are not a productive participant (i.e., you discuss matters unrelated to the course) You demonstrate a poor level of preparation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You do not participate in class You do not participate in group discussions You demonstrate a poor level of preparation

Individual/Group Exit Tickets (150 points maximum): In some classes, students will have the opportunity to earn up to 10 points depending on the quality by responding to several questions about the materials under discussion. Students can answer a maximum of two questions per week, but will only receive credit for the single question that scores the highest grade.

Group Quizzes (150 points maximum): For most classes, a group quiz will be given covering the materials under discussion. Each group can earn a maximum of 10 points on each quiz; however, the absent students cannot get any points.

Two Personal Reflection Papers (100 points maximum each paper): In each paper, you will select a skill topic area from the book/class and write about how the topic relates to a personal experience you have had. You should present a situation, explain what happened and why, and analyze how the situation could have been handled differently based on specific learning from the book/class. You should then devise an action plan for the future in order to become more competent when faced with similar situations. Do not use any cases from the assigned readings or from the class. You may submit three reflection papers during this semester. The best two papers will count for your course grade.

The paper should be between 600 and 800 words, and type-written. On the first page, you must print the following information: course number and your name (“4113 Name Personal Reflection Paper #”). Failure to follow these instructions may result in a deduction of points. Please try to be creative and insightful. You should analyze only one topic area in each paper.

Exams (400 points maximum): There will be two exams. Both exams will be in-class and closed-book. The exams will be based not only on assigned readings, but also on materials discussed in class but not covered in the readings. If you are not satisfied with your midterm score, you may ask me to discard it; however, you must submit your request to me via email at least one week prior to the final exam. You may not skip the midterm or take the final exam only. There is no make-up for the final exam – you must take the exam at the assigned time – no exceptions.

Late Work

The grade penalty for the late submissions is 10% off for each day the submission is late. Work submitted more than ten days late will not be graded. Please check and remember the due date of each assignment on the Schedule of Classes.

Make Up Work/Tests

There is no make-up provision for any missed assignments and tests. If you feel that any material in this class has been improperly graded, you may submit a written appeal within one week of receiving the graded material to be regarded. In your appeal, you must both state and prove why you deserve more credit than you received.

Desire-to-Learn (D2L)

Extensive use of the MSU D2L program is a part of this course. Each student is expected to be familiar with this program as it provides a primary source of communication regarding assignments, examination materials, and general course information. You can log into D2L through the MSU Homepage. If you experience difficulties, please contact the technicians listed for the program or contact your instructor.

The class handouts, materials posted on D2L, and supplemental readings you will receive are copyrighted works. They are provided for your educational purposes only and should not be copied or distributed.

Winter Weather Procedures

If a class is canceled due to inclement weather, the class will meet via Zoom or Microsoft Teams.

Change of Schedule

A student dropping a course (but not withdrawing from the University) within the first 12 class days of a regular semester or the first four class days of a summer semester is eligible for a 100% refund of applicable tuition and fees. Dates are published in the Schedule of Classes each semester.

Refund and Repayment Policy

A student who withdraws or is administratively withdrawn from Midwestern State University (MSU) may be eligible to receive a refund for all or a portion of the tuition, fees, and room/board charges that were paid to MSU for the semester. HOWEVER, if the student received financial aid (federal/state/institutional grants, loans, and/or scholarships), all or a portion of the refund may be returned to the financial aid programs. As described below, two formulas (federal and state) exist in determining the amount of the refund. (Examples of each refund calculation will be made available upon request).

Services for Students with Disabilities

In accordance with Section 504 of the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Midwestern State University endeavors to make reasonable accommodations to ensure equal opportunity for qualified persons with disabilities to participate in all educational, social, and recreational programs and activities. After notification of acceptance, students requiring accommodations should make an application for such assistance through Disability Support Services, located in the Clark Student Center, Room 168, (940) 397-4140. Current documentation of a disability will be required in order to provide appropriate services, and each request will be individually reviewed. For more details, please go to Disability Support Services.

College Policies

Campus Carry Rules/Policies

Refer to: Campus Carry Rules and Policies

Smoking/Tobacco Policy

College policy strictly prohibits the use of tobacco products in any building owned or operated by WATC. Adult students may smoke only in the outside designated-smoking areas at each location.

Alcohol and Drug Policy

To comply with the Drug Free Schools and Communities Act of 1989 and subsequent amendments, students and employees of Midwestern State are informed that strictly enforced policies are in place which prohibit the unlawful possession, use, or distribution of any illicit drugs, including alcohol, on university property or as part of any university-sponsored activity. Students and employees are also subject to all applicable legal sanctions under local, state, and federal law for any offenses involving illicit drugs on University property or at University-sponsored activities.

Campus Carry

Effective August 1, 2016, the Campus Carry law (Senate Bill 11) allows those licensed individuals to carry a concealed handgun in buildings on public university campuses, except in locations the University establishes as prohibited. The new Constitutional Carry law does not change this process. Concealed carry still requires a License to Carry permit, and openly carrying handguns is not allowed on college campuses. For more information, visit Campus Carry.

Active Shooter

The safety and security of our campus is the responsibility of everyone in our community. Each of us has an obligation to be prepared to appropriately respond to threats to our campus, such as an active aggressor. Please review the information provided by MSU Police Department regarding the options and strategies we can all use to stay safe during difficult situations. For more information, visit MSUReady – Active Shooter. Students are encouraged to watch the video entitled “Run. Hide. Fight.” which may be electronically accessed via the University police department’s webpage: "Run. Hide. Fight."

Grade Appeal Process

Students who wish to appeal a grade should consult the Midwestern State University MSU Catalog
