Academic Misconduct Policy & Procedures

Academic Dishonesty: Cheating, collusion, and plagiarism (the act of using source material of other persons, either published or unpublished, without following the accepted techniques of crediting, or the submission for credit of work not the individual's to whom credit is given). Additional guidelines on procedures in these matters may be found in the Office of Student Conduct. Office of Student Conduct

Campus Carry Rules/Policies

Senate Bill 11 passed by the 84th Texas Legislature allows licensed handgun holders to carry concealed handguns on campus, effective August 1, 2016. Areas excluded from concealed carry are appropriately marked, in accordance with state law. For more information regarding campus carry, please refer to the University's webpage for Campus Carry.

Services for Students with Disabilities

In accordance with Section 504 of the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, MSUTexas endeavors to make reasonable accommodations to ensure equal opportunity for qualified persons with disabilities to participate in all educational, social and recreational programs and activities. After notification of acceptance, students requiring accommodations should make application for such assistance through Disability Support Services, located in the Clark Student Center, Room 168, (940) 397-4140. Current documentation of a disability will be required in order to provide appropriate services, and each request will be individually reviewed. For more details, please go to Disability Support Services.

Grading/Assessment

Assignment Overview and Grading Criteria

Due dates will be shared in-class and on D2L. Any assignment can be submitted before the due date. Late assignments will have a minimum automatic 5 point deduction for each day late. Do not wait until the last minute on any of your work!!

Grammar, punctuation and spelling will be graded as a part of any course work. All work should be in your own words! Format – FOR ALL PAPERS: 11 or 12 point Times New Roman or Ariel font, one (1) inch margins, and doubled spaced. A running heading is not required for student papers and the document should be right-justified on the page. Papers that do not follow this format will not be accepted or graded.

I will give feedback on assignments when appropriate, including, comments through “news items”, comments directly in the discussion board, and comments to the feedback box associated with each assignment submitted to dropbox. Please take the time to read these comments as I am taking the time to make them.

Grades for each assignment will be posted in the D2L course grade book.

Homework

A tentative course schedule has been posted on D2L. All course content, assignments, and due dates have been outlined.

Quizzes/Exams

These assignments are to check students understanding of knowledge on each of the chapters and information covered. The exams will be done online through the D2L platform, each quiz will be timed. These will appear on the Course Schedule in more detail.

Projects Required

Field Interview: Each student will select professionally appropriate interview questions from those provided that will then be used to interview an individual within leisure/recreation profession. Preferably with someone who does programming for a recreation/leisure organization now.

Facility Planning: Students will develop an appropriate schedule for a recreation facility that encompasses fitness, workout and recreation areas.

Marketing: Students will be tasked with developing and presenting a verbal and tactile marketing pieces for a select event.

Budgeting: Students will develop an appropriate budget that is appropriate for their mock grant project.

Mock Grant: Students will work in pairs or teams to research, write and present to an independent committee a grant application that is common within the field of recreation and leisure services.

Risk Assessment: Students will physically assess and report on risks and how, as an organization leader address the risks by either accepting, modifying or removing them with appropriate reasoning.

Professional Resume': Students will develop their professional resume' for review by the MSU career center and the instructor.

Electronic Portfolio: Students will develop an electronic portfolio of their accomplishments and work samples throughout this course.

Volunteer Hours: Each student is expected to complete six (6) hours of volunteer work that encompasses the delivery of an event from behind the scenes. This means students will be helping with the development, set up delivery and tear down on such an event. Local organizations contacts will be provided to the student by February 1st by the professor for options. Students may also volunteer in their community but the activity/event must be approved by the professor.

Final Exam

Final exam will be over chapters and information from weeks 10-15 in our semester. It will be a timed test and is scheduled TBA. The exam will be available from 6:00 AM – 11:00 PM on that day only.

Extra Credit

Both the pre and post survey are for extra credit of up to 5 points each. An individual flipgrid of the field interview submitted by the due date will be worth an additional 5 points. If there is a special event put on by the university that the professor deems as valuable to the students, she reserves the right to add attendance of the event as extra credit to the course.

Make Up Work/Tests

Unless contacted by the student a minimum of 1 week prior to an assignment or quiz due date no make-up work or test will be allowed. In the case of an unexpected emergency that incident will be evaluated and decided upon on a case by case situation by the instructor.

Desire-to-Learn (D2L)

Extensive use of the MSU D2L program is a part of this course. Each student is expected to be familiar with this program as it provides a primary source of communication regarding assignments, examination materials, and general course information. You can log into D2L through the MSU Homepage. If you experience difficulties, please contact the technicians listed for the program or contact your instructor.

Online Computer Requirements

Taking an online class requires you to have access to a computer (with Internet access) to complete and upload your assignments. It is your responsibility to have (or have access to) a working computer in this class. Assignments and tests are due by the due date, and personal computer technical difficulties will not be considered reason for the instructor to allow students extra time to submit assignments, tests, or discussion postings. Computers are available on campus in various areas of the buildings as well as the Academic Success Center. Your computer being down is not an excuse for missing a deadline!! There are many places to access your class! Our online classes can be accessed from any computer in the world that is connected to the internet. Contact your instructor immediately upon having computer trouble. If you have technical difficulties in the course, there is also a student helpdesk available to you. The college cannot work directly on student computers due to both liability and resource limitations however they are able to help you get connected to our online services. For help, log into D2L.

Instructor Class Policies

CITATION AND REFERENCE STYLE

Students will follow the APA Style Manual, 7th Edition as the sole citation and reference style used in written work submitted as part of coursework to the University. Assignments completed in a narrative essay or composition format must follow the citation used in the APA Style Manual, 7th Edition.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS

Students are expected to submit class assignments by the posted due date and to complete the course according to the published class schedule. As adults, students, and working professionals I understand you must manage competing demands on your time. Should you need additional time to complete an assignment please contact me a minimum of 72 hours before the due date so we can discuss the situation and determine an acceptable resolution. Routine submission of late assignments is unacceptable and may result in points deducted from your final course grade.

THREE THEN ME RULE

Before contacting me, make sure to follow the "Three then Me" rule. The "Three then Me" rule says that you search for your answer regarding the course in at least three other places before you contact me. For example, if you have a question about an assignment, you should consult your syllabus, your grading scale or rubric, or the assignment description on D2L, you can also reach out to a peer in the course for needed information. Remember, check three sources before emailing me your question. It is very likely you'll find the answer and not need to email me. If you don't find the answer, and need clarification, feel free to email me.

Please note: By enrolling in this course, the student expressly grants MSU a "limited right" in all intellectual property created by the student for the purpose of this course. The "limited right" shall include but shall not be limited to the right to reproduce the student's work product in order to verify originality and authenticity, and for educational purposes.

Plagiarism Statement

Change of Schedule

A student dropping a course (but not withdrawing from the University) within the first 12 class days of a regular semester or the first four class days of a summer semester is eligible for a 100% refund of applicable tuition and fees. Dates are published in the Schedule of Classes each semester.

Refund and Repayment Policy

A student who withdraws or is administratively withdrawn from Midwestern State University (MSU) may be eligible to receive a refund for all or a portion of the tuition, fees and room/board charges that were paid to MSU for the semester. HOWEVER, if the student received financial aid (federal/state/institutional grants, loans and/or scholarships), all or a portion of the refund may be returned to the financial aid programs. As described below, two formulas (federal and state) exists in determining the amount of the refund. (Examples of each refund calculation will be made available upon request).

Services for Students with Disabilities

In accordance with Section 504 of the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Midwestern State University endeavors to make reasonable accommodations to ensure equal opportunity for qualified persons with disabilities to participate in all educational, social, and recreational programs and activities. After notification of acceptance, students requiring accommodations should make application for such assistance through Disability Support Services, located in the Clark Student Center, Room 168, (940) 397-4140.
