Course Description

Painting IV focuses on a unified body of work mindful of a shared visual language and concept. These works are more independent, yet must be considerate of the following: subject, form, content, process, and context. Level of finish, technical ability, research, and perceived intention will determine the success of the work as they are meant to be exhibited. At least 5 major works will be completed along with a series of smaller studies. One show application outside of MSU environment is required (does not need to be painting-centric).

Approximately 5 paintings (1 large scale); quantity deadlines as determined by student contracts, approved by instructor.

Prerequisites: Art 3323 Painting III or consent of instructor

Course Objectives

Upon successful completion of this course, students will display higher command over a more personal body of work. Compositional elements, imagery, concepts, technique, color harmony, and work ethic are all expected developments and should feel intentional. As upper-level classwork, students will have learned how to nurture the creative process, allowing experimentation, and then focusing their experiences towards work that is ready for exhibition purposes.

Requirements and Expectations

Paintings and Critiques:

Students are required to complete all assigned work, studio and out of class work, according to the guidelines laid out for each project. Each assignment will be completed on proper painting surface, and it is the student's responsibility to store and maintain the work that preserves it through critique. It is essential to participate in all critiques and have all work complete and present for display.

Painting Studies:

Students are expected to complete a series of smaller studies for the class. These 1 - 5 day studies will act as supplement works to the major paintings. Furthermore, studies allow for experimentation that, in turn, aids in the success of the major projects. Drawings may suffice as studies through discussion.

Homework Environment:

Students will be required to work within the painting studios only; no other rooms should be used due to safety concerns and clean up required. When doing so, be aware of other classes working times. You may, however, use a space outside of the university if such exists. Note proper ventilation, clean up, disposal of materials, and archival concerns if doing so. Wherever working, all students are encouraged to view work from variable distances, adjust lighting for viewing and working conditions, and keep work clean until critique. Beyond painting, additional work will be achieved outside of class time: research, drawing/edits/planning, building stretchers or preparing surfaces, etc.

Work Ethic:

Personal motivation and discipline are keys to a student's success in this course. These qualities are demonstrated to me by actions - such as preparation for each class, thoughtful inquiry, involvement in projects, discussions, and critiques, and the successful resolution of various problems and challenges presented throughout the course. Further, tenacious students who exhibit an interest in how painting is synthesized will most likely excel to a higher level of understanding and technical achievement, beyond a student who merely performs the requirements. Students should expect to spend at least six hours per week on homework in addition to studio/class time. Late work will be lower in grade.

Evaluation

Student work will be reviewed by means of formal critique evaluations and portfolio reviews. Students will be evaluated according to predetermined requirements for all paintings. Individual projects will have grade weight attached when given to the class.

Final Grade Summary:

A = 90 – 100% B = 80 – 89 % C = 70 – 79% D = 60 – 69% F = 59 % OR LESS

Please save all work in an organized, chronological manner.

No Final Exam will be given; your final grade will be calculated from the entirety of work produced. Quizzes may be given as a means of material and painting technique review.

All due dates will be provided with assignments as they are given out. It is the student's responsibility to maintain a calendar of due dates, upcoming critiques, and academic events. Note that dates may change from those listed on the syllabus.

Late work will be counted against; one letter grade for each class period after it is due. Ex: An A grade is lowered to B after one period late, after two periods late the A is lowered to C, etc.

Students should never miss a class critique. Apart from late grades on projects, this counts against overall participation.

Plagiarism is unacceptable and will result in a 0 for the project. No exceptions. Any students found guilty of academic dishonesty is subject to disciplinary action as per the student handbook.

Attendance, Absence, and Late Policy

Students enrolled in the Juanita and Ralph Harvey School of Visual Arts must comply with the following department-wide Attendance, Absence, and Lateness Policy:

- Students arriving 10 minutes after class begins will be considered late, and will be counted absent.
- Three late arrivals count as a single absence.
- Students may be absent from class 3 times without penalty and without providing any documentation regarding the absence.
- If a student incurs a 4th absence, his or her final course evaluation will be reduced by a full letter grade.
- If a student is absent 5 times, whatever the reason, he or she will receive a failing grade (F) for the course, dropped from class roll, and be asked to stop attending class
- Students are required to remain in class for the entire class session. Students will earn an absence if they leave before the professor has dismissed class.
- Excused absences must be brought before me prior to the absence, or if later, the student must have supporting documentation (academic, medical, or family emergency) in the case of excessive absences.

Gallery Attendance Policy

If the student cannot attend the gallery opening, they must meet following requirements:

The student must write a paper on the artist exhibited in the Juanita Harvey gallery.

The paper should emphasize the student's reaction to the work.

The paper must be formatted in Times New Roman, 12-pt. font, and be double-spaced. The paper must consist of 500 words.

The paper must be submitted to the art office one week after the exhibition opening.

If the exhibition extends past the final class day of the semester, the paper will be due one week before the final class day of the semester.

If a student does not attend the show nor submit a paper, their final grade will be dropped 3.3% per gallery opening.

If a student misses all of the gallery openings and does not write a paper for each required exhibition, the student's final grade will be dropped by 10%.

Weather Closure Policy

In case of impending weather or related cases, check MSU Alerts and msutexas.edu for updates. Note that some instances may impact a full day closure while others may delay or close for only a portion of the day. Class will take place if university is open. Use wise judgement in special cases as safety is a priority, such as driving outside city limits. Class updates will continue to be posted on D2L.

Conduct Statement

Behavior that interferes with either the instructor's ability to conduct the class or the ability of other students to benefit from the instruction will result in the instructor's removing the disruptive student(s) from the class, either temporarily or permanently (instructor drop), and receive a final lower grade, up to and including F. In addition, and depending on the nature of the behavior or conduct, the student(s) may be subject to further disciplinary actions as per MSU policies.

Student Honor Creed

"As an MSU Student, I pledge not to lie, cheat, steal, or help anyone else do so."

As students at MSU, we recognize that any great society must be composed of empowered, responsible citizens. We also recognize universities play an important role in helping mold these responsible citizens. We believe students themselves play an important part in developing responsible citizenship by maintaining a community where integrity and honorable character are the norm, not the exception.

Thus, We, the Students of Midwestern State University, resolve to uphold the honor of the University by affirming our commitment to complete academic honesty. We resolve not only to be honest but also to hold our peers accountable for complete honesty in all university matters.

We consider it dishonest to ask for, give, or receive help in examinations or quizzes, to use any unauthorized material in examinations, or to present, as one's own, work or ideas which are not entirely one's own. We recognize that any instructor has the right to expect that all student work is honest, original work. We accept and acknowledge that responsibility for lying, cheating, stealing, plagiarism, and other forms of academic dishonesty fundamentally rests within each individual student.

We expect of ourselves academic integrity, personal professionalism, and ethical character. We appreciate steps taken by University officials to protect the honor of the University against any who would disgrace the MSU student body by violating the spirit of this creed.

Written and adopted by the 2002-2003 MSU Student Senate.

AI Generated Text or Imagery

All artwork and text will be constructed without the use of AI unless otherwise stated. This is to maintain academic integrity as well as respecting a strong ethical foundation regarding unique works and original authorship in the arts. That being said, conversation about this topic is encouraged for those interested as it pertains to class material and greater topics of plagiarism, ethical copies, appropriation, and sourced inspiration.
