Course Description

Painting I is an introduction to painting with oils. This course is an introduction to the materials and techniques of oil painting. The semester's subject matter will explore a variety of genre and contain both class-selected assignments as well as personally driven projects. 4 major paintings total and additional studies

Prerequisites: Art 1113 2D Design, 1123 3D Design, 1323 Drawing II or consent of instructor

Course Objectives

Upon successful completion of this course, students will feel comfortable with the basic vocabulary, materials, and processes of painting. They will experience an increased ability for the seeing and crafting of form while achieving unity through color, light, and shadow. Students will predominantly work from observation in this class with some exploration into the important area of abstraction. Painting will place emphasis on the vocabulary and properties of color and color mixing as integral to painting as well as other studio practices. Furthermore, emphasis is placed on alla-prima method of painting, glazing with layered application, and experimental techniques.

Requirements and Expectations

Paintings and Critiques:

Students are required to complete all assigned work, studio and out of class work, according to the guidelines laid out for each project. Each assignment will be completed on proper painting surface, and it is the student's responsibility to store and maintain the work that preserves it through critique. It is essential to participate in all critiques and have all work complete and present for display.

Homework Environment:

Students will be required to work within the painting studios only; no other rooms in Fain should be used due to safety concerns and clean up required. When doing so, be aware of other classes working times. You may, however, use a space outside of the university if such exists. Note proper ventilation, clean up, disposal of materials, and archival concerns if doing so. Wherever working, all students are encouraged to view work from variable distances, adjust lighting for viewing and working conditions, and keep work clean until critique. Beyond painting, additional work will be achieved outside of class time: research, drawing/edits/planning, preparing surfaces, etc.

Work Ethic:

Personal motivation and discipline are keys to a student's success in this course. These qualities are demonstrated to me by actions - such as preparation for each class, thoughtful inquiry, involvement in projects, discussions, and critiques, and the successful resolution of various problems and challenges presented throughout the course. Students should expect to spend at least six hours per week on homework in addition to studio/class time. Late work will be lower in grade.

Evaluation

Student work will be reviewed by means of formal critique evaluations and portfolio reviews. Students will be evaluated according to predetermined requirements for all paintings. Individual projects will have grade weight attached when given to the class.

Final Grade Summary:

A = 90 – 100% B = 80 – 89 % C = 70 – 79% D = 60 – 69% F = 59 % OR LESS

Please save all work an organized, chronological manner.

No Final Exam will be given; your final grade will be calculated from the entirety of work produced. Quizzes may be given as a means of material and painting technique review.

All due dates will be printed on assignments as they are given. It is the student's responsibility to maintain a proper calendar of due dates, upcoming critiques, and academic events. Note that dates may change from those listed on the syllabus.

Late work will be counted against; one letter grade for each class period after it is due. Ex: An A grade is lowered to B after one period late, after two periods late the A is lowered to C, etc.

Students should never miss a class critique. Apart from late grades on projects, this counts against overall participation.

Plagiarism is unacceptable and will result in a 0 for the project. No exceptions. Any students found guilty of academic dishonesty is subject to disciplinary action as per the student handbook.

Attendance, Absence, and Late Policy

Students enrolled in the Juanita and Ralph Harvey School of Visual Arts must comply with the following department-wide Attendance, Absence, and Lateness Policy:

- Students arriving 10 minutes after class begins will be considered late, and will be counted absent.
- Three late arrivals count as a single absence.
- Students may be absent from class 3 times without penalty and without providing any documentation regarding the absence.
- If a student incurs a 4th absence, his or her final course evaluation will be reduced by a full letter grade.
- If a student is absent 5 times, whatever the reason, he or she will receive a failing grade (F) for the course, dropped from class roll, and be asked to stop attending class
- Students are required to remain in class for the entire class session. Students will earn an absence if they leave before the professor has dismissed class.
- Excused absences must be brought before me prior to the absence, or if later, the student must have supporting documentation (academic, medical, or family emergency) in the case of excessive absences.

Conduct Statement

Behavior that interferes with either the instructor's ability to conduct the class or the ability of other students to benefit from the instruction will result in the instructor's removing the disruptive student(s) from the class, either temporarily or permanently (instructor drop), and receive a final lower grade, up to and including F. In addition, and depending on the nature of the behavior or conduct, the student(s) may be subject to further disciplinary actions as per MSU policies.

Student Honor Creed

"As an MSU Student, I pledge not to lie, cheat, steal, or help anyone else do so."

As students at MSU, we recognize that any great society must be composed of empowered, responsible citizens. We also recognize universities play an important role in helping mold these responsible citizens. We believe students themselves play an important part in developing responsible citizenship by maintaining a community where integrity and honorable character are the norm, not the exception.

Thus, We, the Students of Midwestern State University, resolve to uphold the honor of the University by affirming our commitment to complete academic honesty. We resolve not only to be honest but also to hold our peers accountable for complete honesty in all university matters.

We consider it dishonest to ask for, give, or receive help in examinations or quizzes, to use any unauthorized material in examinations, or to present, as one's own, work or ideas which are not entirely one's own. We recognize that any instructor has the right to expect that all student work is honest, original work. We accept and acknowledge that responsibility for lying, cheating, stealing, plagiarism, and other forms of academic dishonesty fundamentally rests within each individual student.

We expect of ourselves academic integrity, personal professionalism, and ethical character. We appreciate steps taken by University officials to protect the honor of the University against any who would disgrace the MSU student body by violating the spirit of this creed.

Written and adopted by the 2002-2003 MSU Student Senate.
