Research Article Review and/or Actual Case Report

Select a topic relating to a disease/condition covered in the text.

You have two options for this assignment:

1. Write and an actual case study related to the disease/condition you chose.
 - a. The case study can be one you found online or from your professional practice (no patient identification please)
 - b. Focus on patient assessment, therapeutic interventions, care plan and management of the disease/condition.
 - c. Discuss whether the patient was or was not managed according to published standards (evidence based practice).

Or

2. Write a research article review from current peer-reviewed article(s) related to the disease/condition you chose.
 - a. A research article review is NOT a report about a disease. It is a review of a research article or multiple articles relating to the disease. This may include, for example, new treatments, controversial therapies, advances in diagnostics, etc.
 - b. The article(s) should be current (last 5 years) and peer-reviewed.

References: Within the report cite at least 3 current (last five years) peer-reviewed research articles that focus on the topic of your report. These sources should correlate with your subject content. Please do not hesitate to utilize additional sources as well.

The report is to be APA format, word processed utilizing a font no greater than 12 with 1-inch margins and double-spaced with page numbers.

The amount of student written material (excluding the Title Page and References) must total at least 5 pages. You will be graded on overall coverage of the subject and readability of the report. Points will be deducted for spelling and grammar.

Desire-to-Learn (D2L)

Extensive use of the MSU D2L program is a part of this course. Each student is expected to be familiar with this program as it provides a primary source of communication regarding assignments, examination materials, and general course information. You can log into D2L through the MSU Homepage. If you experience difficulties, please contact the technicians listed for the program or contact your instructor.

Attendance

This is an online course and students are required to regularly login and check for any announcements posted. Students are expected to attend all meetings of the classes in which they are enrolled. Although in general students are graded on intellectual effort and performance rather than attendance, absences may lower the student's grade where class attendance and class participation are deemed essential by the faculty member. In those classes where attendance is considered as part of the grade, the instructor should so inform students of the specifics in writing at the beginning of the semester in a syllabus or separate attendance policy statement. An instructor who has an attendance policy must keep records on a daily basis. The instructor must give the student a verbal or written warning prior to being dropped from the class. Instructor's records will stand as evidence of absences. A student with excessive absences may be dropped from a course by the instructor. Any individual faculty member or college has the authority to establish an attendance policy, providing the policy is in accordance with the General University Policies.

Online Computer Requirements

Taking an online class requires you to have access to a computer (with Internet access) to complete and upload your assignments. It is your responsibility to have (or have access to) a working computer in this class. Assignments and tests are due by the due date, and personal computer technical difficulties will not be considered reason for the instructor to allow students extra time to submit assignments, tests, or discussion postings. Computers are available on campus in various areas of the buildings as well as the Academic Success Center. Your computer being down is not an excuse for missing a deadline!! There are many places to access your class! Our online classes can be accessed from any computer in the world which is connected to the internet. Contact your instructor immediately upon having computer trouble. If you have technical difficulties in the course, there is also a student helpdesk available to you. The college cannot work directly on student computers due to both liability and resource limitations however they are able to help you get connected to our online services. For help, log into D2L.
