Electronic Devices In Class

No cell phones, headphones, music, computer games, nor texting/IMing/e-mail/camera devices of any description are to be used during class: ZERO TOLERANCE. This means all aforementioned devices (and presently unknown versions of such) are to be turned off and out of your sight and mind.

Class Participation and Presentation Attendance

The lecture portion of the class will be conducted online ... videos, readings, discussion, etc. Participation is critical to your success. You are expected to actively participate and keep up with assignments. For discussions posted online, students should write one original comment as well as reply to at least one other posting. Students will be notified via D2L email when modules open and when they will be closed.

All speeches will be presented in B114 of the Fine Arts Building. Acceptable excuses for being absent from a presentation include: the death of a family member, personal illness, required attendance at an official school function, and verifiable emergency. You must notify me when you are going to miss a presentation, except when an emergency happens on the way to class (notify me ASAP).

If you fail to notify me when you are absent, you may receive a reduced grade for the presentation unless it is a verifiable emergency.

I reserve the right to determine what, exactly, constitutes an excused absence.

Privacy

Federal privacy law prohibits me from releasing information about students to certain parties outside of the university without the signed consent of the student. Thus, in almost all cases I will not discuss your academic progress or other matters with your parents. Please do not have them call me. Regardless of these important legal considerations, it is my general policy to communicate with the students, not their parents, even when a student has signed a consent form. College students are adults and are expected to behave accordingly.

Late Work, Make Up Work/Tests

Late work, make up work/tests are accepted at instructor discretion on an individual basis.

Desire-to-Learn (D2L)

Extensive use of the MSU D2L program is a part of this course. Each student is expected to be familiar with this program as it provides a primary source of communication regarding assignments, examination materials, and general course information. You can log into D2L through the MSU Homepage. If you experience difficulties, please contact the technicians listed for the program or contact your instructor.

Attendance

Students are expected to attend all meetings of the classes in which they are enrolled. A student with excessive absences may be dropped from a course by the instructor. The class has a hybrid format. It will meet 5 times during the semester ... Once for the first day of class and then for each of the 4 speech presentations.

Online Computer Requirements

Taking an online class requires you to have access to a computer (with Internet access) to complete and upload your assignments. It is your responsibility to have (or have access to) a working computer in this class. Assignments and tests are due by the due date, and personal computer technical difficulties will not be considered reason for the instructor to allow students extra time to submit assignments, tests, or discussion postings.

Computers are available on campus in various areas of the buildings as well as the Academic Success Center. There are many places to access your class. Contact me immediately upon having computer trouble. If you have technical difficulties in the course, there is also a student helpdesk available to you. The college cannot work directly on student computers due to both liability and resource limitations however they are able to help you get connected to our online services. For help, log into D2L.

Services for Students With Disabilities

In accordance with Section 504 of the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Midwestern State University endeavors to make reasonable accommodations to ensure equal opportunity for qualified persons with disabilities to participate in all educational, social, and recreational programs and activities. After notification of acceptance, students requiring accommodations should make application for such assistance through Disability Support Services, located in the Clark Student Center, Room 168, (940) 397-4140. Current documentation of a disability will be required in order to provide appropriate services, and each request will be individually reviewed. For more details, please go to Disability Support Services.

College Policies

Campus Carry Rules/Policies

Refer to: Campus Carry Rules and Policies

Smoking/Tobacco Policy

College policy strictly prohibits the use of tobacco products in any building owned or operated by WATC. Adult students may smoke only in the outside designated-smoking areas at each location.

Alcohol and Drug Policy

To comply with the Drug Free Schools and Communities Act of 1989 and subsequent amendments, students and employees of Midwestern State are informed that strictly enforced policies are in place which prohibits the unlawful possession, use or distribution of any illicit drugs, including alcohol, on university property or as part of any university-sponsored activity. Students and employees are also subject to all applicable legal sanctions under local, state and federal law for any offenses involving illicit drugs on University property or at University-sponsored activities.

Notice

Changes in the course syllabus, procedure, assignments, and schedule may be made at the discretion of the instructor.

Personal Presentation Description

The Personal Presentation

For your introductory presentation, you will formally introduce yourself to the class via 3-5 things that tell us something about you. You can either bring the actual 3-5 items or you can create a powerpoint type presentation to present your items.

For this assignment, you may want to ponder the questions below as you put together your presentation (do not attempt to answer all of the questions in your presentation!):

1. Did some person (or persons) have an impact on your life? Explain.
2. Have you been shaped by some unusual experience? Explain.
3. Is there an activity/organization in which you participate that reflects your personality? How?
4. Do you have some special purpose or goal in life? What?

Next, construct the informative portion of your presentation by using the "introduction-body-conclusion" format. Your body will normally have 3-5 main points. Be sure to catch our attention in the intro and leave us excited in the conclusion. You will need to turn in a brief outline for this presentation reflecting your organization (see example outline). The outline must be submitted to the instructor the day you are assigned to speak. No outline = no presentation. The outline is worth 25 points.

Practice your presentation! You will have 3-4 minutes to enlighten the class about yourself! This assignment is worth 100 points. Good luck!

Informative Presentation Description

The Informative Presentation

The informative presentation is a bit more in depth than the introductory presentation. This assignment requires you to research a topic of which you are passionately interested and relates well to your audience (the class). Remember, your guiding question for any presentation: Why should my audience care about this topic/issue/problem? What are some timely topics that might appeal to the audience? The following guidelines will assist you in completing this presentation.

- Select a worthwhile, relevant, well-researched topic.
- Consider your audience.
- Include at least two credible sources of supporting material – not including your own testimony.
- Develop three main points to cover in your presentation.
- Utilize “introduction-body-conclusion” format.
- Determine and develop one presentation aid (visual aid). The visual aid should be appropriately utilized in your speech.
- Practice your speech.
- Submit a typed “presentation outline” for this presentation. Follow the sample outline. The outline must be submitted the day you are assigned to speak. No outline = no presentation.
- Submit a typed “works cited” page with your outline.
- You are allowed 5 minutes for this presentation.
- *Orally cite sources in your speech appropriately.

This assignment is worth 100 points. Good luck!

Persuasive Presentation Description

The Persuasive Presentation

This can be done in a group – no more than four students. You are to devise a persuasive presentation that urges your audience to make a choice. Examples include:

1. A Question of Policy: Today, I hope to convince you that assisted suicide should/should not be legalized in the United States.
2. A Question of Fact: With the evidence I present today, I hope to convince you that Intelligent Design is responsible for the universe and all living things.
3. Take Action: Today, I hope to persuade you to get involved with Meals on Wheels

Remember, your guiding question for any presentation: Why should my audience care about this topic/issue/problem? The following guidelines will assist you in completing this presentation:

- Select a worthwhile, relevant, well-researched topic/issue. Why is this topic relevant to your audience?
- Include at least (2) credible outside information sources. Remember, you are using information as evidence in order to move your audience to action. What types of evidence will best support your ideas?
- Include a thorough introduction (attention, thesis/central idea, preview, and credibility/relation to the audience steps)
- Include a thorough conclusion that includes a summary statement and an apparent “call to action”—what do you want your audience to do?
- Cite sources appropriately during the presentation.
- Utilize transitions for unity and flow.
- If done in a group, each group member must present and utilize at least one presentation aid.
- Construct a thorough outline of your presentation (a single outline to be turned in by the group). Follow the sample outline. Document your sources within the outline as well as on a works cited! The outline must be submitted the day you are assigned to speak. No outline = no presentation.
- Rehearse the presentation.
- You are allotted 5-6 minutes (8-10 minutes for groups) for this presentation.
- Be prepared for a question and answer session.

This presentation is worth 100 points! Good luck!

Special Occasion Presentation Description

The Special Occasion Presentation

For the Special Occasion presentation, you are to decide on the type of special presentation to develop. You should address the following:

- What message do you want to send to your audience?
- What will make it memorable?
- You have 2-3 minutes to deliver your special occasion message.
- A manuscript of the speech must be submitted to the instructor the day you are assigned to speak. No manuscript = no presentation.
25 points for the manuscript.

This presentation is worth 100 points. Good luck!

Outlines

Outlines are a very important aspect of this course. You are required to complete four formal outlines during this course: one for the personal crest presentation, one for the informative presentation, one for the persuasive presentation, and one for the farewell performance. All outlines must be created as a Word document and submitted the day you are assigned to speak. Late outlines will not be accepted. No outline, no presentation!
