Exams

Exam Policies:

There will be four required examinations: Exams 1, 2, 3, and a Final. Each exam will be worth 150 points and they will be administered online via D2L. They will consist of 75 multiple-choice questions and the student will have 75 minutes to complete the exam on the specified date and time (The scheduled examination date ranges are posted in the calendar section of D2L and the course Schedule in this syllabus). These dates are not subject to change.

Exam Make-Ups:

Since the exams will be available for 7 days there should be no reason for a student to miss one. Once the due date has passed, those students who did not take the exam will receive a grade of zero. If you missed the exam for whatever reason, you must contact me via email with a sufficient excuse for missing the exam. The instructor will determine whether the excuse is sufficient or not and if you do not contact me no make-up will be scheduled. Scheduling the make-up exam is the student's responsibility, not the instructors, and the student must make-up the exam within 7 days of the original due date. After that date NO make-ups will be allowed for any reason.

Make-up exams will be conducted on the following time-line with the noted penalty:

- Completed by Monday by 11:59pm = 10-point penalty.
- Completed by Tuesday by 11:59pm = 20-point penalty.
- Completed by Wednesday to Sunday at 11:59pm = 50-point penalty

For those students who missed the exam and have a legitimate excuse no penalty will be assessed. Technical difficulties will not be considered as sufficient reason for retaking the make-up exam, i.e. the student will only be given 1 chance to complete the exam after the due date has passed.

Only one exam extension per student per semester will be allowed, however, this does not include the final.

Final Exam:

Any student who misses the final exam and has a legitimate excuse will receive a grade of 'Incomplete' and will have to take the make-up exam within 30 days of the beginning of the next semester or else the grade will be changed to reflect the student's grade without the final.

Taking Exams Early:

Only under extraordinary circumstances will a student be allowed to take an exam, including the final, early. Only university approved excuses (i.e. death in the family, illness, etc.) will be considered for taking an exam early. Plane tickets or summer vacation plans are not a legitimate reason. You must request to take an exam early well before the date of the exam and approval is solely at the discretion of the instructor.

Quizzes

Each chapter will be accompanied by a quiz in D2L which will consist of 25 multiple choice questions. The purpose of the quizzes is to help the student focus on the main topics of the chapters and to give them an idea of the types of multiple-choice questions that will be on the exam. The exam monitoring software will not be required as these are essentially 'open book' quizzes, and each one will be worth 10 points. The student will have 2 attempts for each quiz with no time limit. The quizzes will be opened and closed on the dates specified in the Course Schedule, but basically, they will be open for 7 days. The student's lowest quiz score will be dropped.

Note: The quizzes will be the only review for the exams, i.e. there will be no study guides.

Discussions

There will be 10 discussion topics this semester that will run concurrently with the assigned topic for that week. In these discussions I will post a multi-part question similar to an essay type question that you might find on an exam. The student will need to post a complete response by Sunday night to receive credit for the assignment. Late responses will not be accepted. The discussions will be graded the following week and are judged on three levels of achievement: Needs Improvement, Satisfactory, and Excellent. These discussion grades will focus on an explanation of the selected topic, an analysis of an AI query, an assessment of the research, and a peer response. Last, but not least, the student's ability to follow instructions and utilize good grammar will also be graded.

Core Assessment

There is one core assessment assignment given during the semester worth 100 points. Instructions for this assignment will be posted in D2L in its own module.

Extra Credit

There is NO EXTRA-CREDIT for this class.

Late Work

There will be no make-ups allowed for late quizzes or discussions for any reason. If you do not complete the assignment by the due date, you will receive a zero. If you email me asking for an extension on past due assignments weeks after they were due, for whatever reason, you will only get a response to "See the Late Work section of the syllabus." In other words, late work will NOT be accepted.

Technology Requirement & Desire-to-Learn (D2L)

Extensive use of the MSU D2L program is a part of this course. Each student is expected to be familiar with this program as it provides a primary source of communication regarding assignments, examination materials, and general course information. You can log into D2L through the MSU Homepage. If you experience difficulties, please contact the technicians listed for the program or contact your instructor.

All exams will utilize the Respondus Lockdown Browser and Respondus Monitor for testing. In order to utilize these programs, you will need to note the following:

- Chromebooks are not compatible with the Respondus Lockdown Browser and Monitor;
- Apple iPads may be used for quizzes and exams, but these are not advised for any assignment with a written component;
- Mobile phones and similar devices are not compatible with the required programs;
- A working webcam on the computing device is needed for all exams and quizzes.

Please note: a limited number of webcams and laptops with cameras are available for check-out through the MSU Texas Moffett Library.

Online Computer Requirements

Taking an online class requires you to have access to a computer (with Internet access) to complete and upload your assignments. It is your responsibility to have (or have access to) a working computer in this class. *Assignments and tests are due by the due date, and personal computer technical difficulties will not be considered reason for the instructor to allow students extra time to submit assignments, tests, or discussion postings.

Computers are available on campus in various areas of the buildings as well as the Academic Success Center. *Your computer being down is not an excuse for missing a deadline!! There are many places to access your class! Our online classes can be accessed from any computer in the world which is connected to the internet. Contact your instructor immediately upon having computer trouble. If you have technical difficulties in the course, there is also a student helpdesk available to you. The college cannot work directly on student computers due to both liability and resource limitations however they are able to help you get connected to our online services. For help, log into D2L.

Instructor Class Policies

Expectations:

Since this is an internet course, the logistics will be somewhat different than a regular lecture class, however all assignments must be completed by the specified due dates. If, however, an issue arises that will cause the student to miss an assignment the following policy must be followed: contact me before the assignment is due and provide valid documentation for not completing it on time. Each case will be judged individually, and it is up to the instructor to decide whether or not to permit late work. Extra credit for missed assignments will not be granted.

Readings:

The assigned chapters serve as a foundation for all of the assignments, and they should be read and studied. Do not rely solely on the lecture videos or posted notes. Not all of the material from the chapters is covered in them and the student is accountable for all of the assigned information.

Communication Policy:

In order to facilitate timely and effective communication between the instructor and the student the following policies will be put in place:

All emails need to be sent through Desire2Learn. This will keep student communications separate from the day to day administrative and campus wide emails.

All emails need to begin with your full name (i.e. the name that you are registered under) and your class number and section.

All emails received Monday through Friday (before noon) will be answered within 24 hours, while emails received on Saturday, Sunday, or Friday afternoon will be answered on the following Monday.

All emails that concern questions that are already answered in the syllabus, exercise instructions, announcement section of D2L, or given during class will merely be referred to those communications (i.e. my response will be, "Please refer to the syllabus or instructions to answer this question.").

Change of Schedule

A student dropping a course (but not withdrawing from the University) within the first 12 class days of a regular semester or the first four class days of a summer semester is eligible for a 100% refund of applicable tuition and fees. Dates are published in the Schedule of Classes each semester.

Refund and Repayment Policy

A student who withdraws or is administratively withdrawn from Midwestern State University (MSU) may be eligible to receive a refund for all or a portion of the tuition, fees and room/board charges that were paid to MSU for the semester. HOWEVER, if the student received financial aid (federal/state/institutional grants, loans and/or scholarships), all or a portion of the refund may be returned to the financial aid programs. As described below, two formulas (federal and state) exists in determining the amount of the refund. (Examples of each refund calculation will be made available upon request).

Services for Students with Disabilities

In accordance with Section 504 of the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Midwestern State University endeavors to make reasonable accommodations to ensure equal opportunity for qualified persons with disabilities to participate in all educational, social, and recreational programs and activities. After notification of acceptance, students requiring accommodations should make application for such assistance through Disability Support Services, located in the Clark Student Center, Room 168, (940) 397-4140. Current documentation of a disability will be required in order to provide appropriate services, and each request will be individually reviewed.
