Homework

This class will have homework (InQuizitive) that is assigned through the textbook publishing company. Homework will be due at 11:59 PM on Friday. I will drop the three lowest homework grades at the end of the semester.

Reflection Paper

This assignment asks students to apply what they have learned in class to the world around them. The signature assignment asks students to write a letter to a policymaker of their choosing to bring up a policy that they should be concerned about and what changes can be made by the policymaker to take the appropriate steps to address the issue at hand.

Quizzes

This class will have one assigned quiz based on the Weekly News Quizzes that are assigned through the textbook publishing company. It is your own responsibility to keep up with world events and you can do so by listening/reading/watching the news on a daily basis. Some good sources to keep up with world events are National Public Radio (NPR), New York Times (NYT), Texas Tribune (TT), and the Washington Post (WP). The quizzes will be due at 11:59 PM on Friday. I will drop the three lowest quiz grades at the end of the semester.

Exams

This class will have three (3) exams total, but only two (2) of the exams will count towards your final grade. Each of the exams is worth 30% of your grade and will cover the material from each chapter in the assigned textbooks. There will be one (1) final exam which will be a makeup exam in the event you miss an exam or you are unsatisfied with one of the grades you received on an exam. However, the optional final exam is cumulative and will contain material from each of the previous exams. Exams will consist of 50 multiple choice, true/false, and matching questions where you will be given one hour to complete once open. Exams will be available on D2L and will require the Respondus LockDown Browser. Exams will open at 12:01 AM and will close at 11:59 PM on the designated Fridays located further down in the syllabus.

Extra Credit

This class will have limited extra credit opportunities. These extra credit opportunities will be announced via D2L. The type of extra credit opportunities that may be given during the course may come from a podcast, a documentary, or a current event. Extra credit assignments are worth one additional point towards the total grade in class.

Late Work

Late submissions for assignment will incur a penalty of 25 points for every 24 hours it's not submitted. For the final exam, no work will be accepted after the final day of class (December 10th).

Make Up Work/Tests

Absences due to required participation in university-sponsored activities must be approved by the college dean or Athletic Director and the Provost. Students with written approval must present a signed letter or memo to each instructor at least two (2) class days prior to the date of the absence. Only prior notification can guarantee lack of penalty for these absences. It is the responsibility of the student to arrange with the instructor to make-up all work missed during an authorized absence.

Desire-to-Learn (D2L)

Extensive use of the MSU D2L program is a part of this course. Each student is expected to be familiar with this program as it provides a primary source of communication regarding assignments, examination materials, and general course information. You can log into D2L through the MSU Homepage. If you experience difficulties, please contact the technicians listed for the program or contact your instructor.

Attendance

Students are expected to attend all meetings of the classes in which they are enrolled. Although in general students are graded on intellectual effort and performance rather than attendance, absences may lower the student's grade where class attendance and class participation are deemed essential by the faculty member. In those classes where attendance is considered as part of the grade, the instructor should inform students of the specifics in writing at the beginning of the semester in a syllabus or separate attendance policy statement. An instructor who has an attendance policy must keep records on a daily basis. The instructor must give the student a verbal or written warning prior to being dropped from the class. Instructor's records will stand as evidence of absences. A student with excessive absences may be dropped from a course by the instructor. Any individual faculty member or college has the authority to establish an attendance policy, providing the policy is in accordance with the General University Policies.

Online Computer Requirements

Taking an online class requires you to have access to a computer (with Internet access) to complete and upload your assignments. It is your responsibility to have (or have access to) a working computer in this class. *Assignments and tests are due by the due date, and personal computer technical difficulties will not be considered reason for the instructor to allow students extra time to submit assignments, tests, or discussion postings. Computers are available on campus in various areas of the buildings as well as the Academic Success Center. *Your computer being down is not an excuse for missing a deadline!! There are many places to access your class! Our online classes can be accessed from any computer in the world which is connected to the internet. Contact your instructor immediately upon having computer trouble. If you have technical difficulties in the course, there is also a student helpdesk available to you. Class Etiquette

Political Science and government classes often discuss topics that have the potential to ignite feelings for many. This class may do so and it is important for everyone to remember to be respectful of others beliefs should it become a point of topic. However, if any discussion becomes hostile towards another student or the instructor I, the instructor, reserve the right to remove students that have expressed what can be interpreted as hate speech towards race/ethnicity/gender/class/sexual expression. If you are not sure what may be interpreted as hate speech email me beforehand. Additionally, please review the link below that discusses classroom etiquette and conduct.
