Course Description:

An introduction to reading, evaluating, conducting, and writing research in the sport management field. A study of the basic methodological approaches to research, writing a literature review, and the basic statistical techniques common in sport management research.

Conceptual Framework Overview

The West College of Education believes that learning changes both the individual and society. Developing resilience and tolerance enhances an individual's potential. The individual becomes a critical thinker and an effective problem solver. Individuals with a cause beyond self -contribute to an informed, democratic, and synergistic society. We will establish a reflective and collaborative community to enhance the potential of both the learner and society.

- Learner Development - understand how learners grow and develop, recognizing that patterns of learning and development vary individually within and across the cognitive, linguistic, social, emotional, and physical areas, and design and implement developmentally appropriate and challenging learning experiences.
- Learning Differences - understand individual differences and diverse cultures and communities to ensure inclusive learning environments that enable each learner to meet high standards.
- Learning Environment - work with others to create environments that support individual and collaborative learning, and that encourage positive social interaction, active engagement in learning, and self-motivation.
- Content Knowledge - understand the central concepts, tools of inquiry, and structures of the discipline(s) he or she teaches and creates learning experiences that make the discipline accessible and meaningful for learners to assure mastery of the content.
- Application of Content - understand how to connect concepts and use differing perspectives to engage learners in critical thinking, creativity, and collaborative problem solving related to authentic local and global issues.
- Assessment - understand and use multiple methods of assessment to engage learners in their own growth, to monitor learner progress, and to guide the teacher's and learner's decision making.
- Planning for Instruction - plan instruction that supports every student in meeting rigorous learning goals by drawing upon knowledge of content areas, curriculum, cross-disciplinary skills, and pedagogy, as well as knowledge of learners and the community context.
- Instructional Strategies - understand and use a variety of instructional strategies to encourage learners to develop deep understanding of content areas and their connections, and to build skills to apply knowledge in meaningful ways.
- Professional Learning and Ethical Practice - engage in ongoing professional learning and use evidence to continually evaluate his or her practice, particularly the effects of his or her choices and actions on others (learners, families, other professionals, and the community), and adapts practice to meet the needs of each learner.
- Leadership and Collaboration - seek appropriate leadership roles and opportunities to take responsibility for student learning, to collaborate with learners, families, colleagues, other school professionals, and community members to ensure learner growth, and to advance the profession.

Course Objectives:

Throughout the class and upon completion of the course the student will:

1. Define the three types of research designs
2. Define the steps in conducting a literature review
3. Identify potential sources for conducting a literature review
4. Describe the criteria for evaluating research articles

Evaluations, Assignments and Grading Criteria:

- This course will be carried out in a format of 15 weeks. Each week the course will focus on an aspect of research methods and how these ideas correlate to sports management.
  - Students will learn weekly through doing assignments based on the readings, participating in discussion forums, and/or completing quizzes associated with readings.
  - Students will participate in the writing process by contributing as a peer editor during the preparation of the literature review.
  - Students will also continually complete assignments related to preparing a professional paper, which will conclude in a final paper (literature review) at the end of the semester.
- Familiarize yourself with the course by looking over the weekly modules. If you don't see the correct folders (Course Welcome, Professional Writing Assignments, Weekly Modules) or can't figure out how to share, contact me right away. See the "Navigating Google Drive" document in the "Course Welcome" folder for specific requirements and other information about the course.
- See ALL DUE DATES below in the schedule. All assignments are due at 5:00 p.m. on the due date. Any assignment can be submitted before the due date.
  - "Weekly Modules" will contain a syllabus for the week detailing reading and assignment information. Assignments must be completed the week they are assigned. Any work that you do after a Module period ends WILL NOT count toward your grade. You will find that it is necessary to spend some time with this almost every day. Do not let yourself get behind.
  - "Professional Writing Assignments" will be spread throughout the semester during the weekly modules. Each of these assignments is designed to prepare you for the final literature review paper and have been designed to build on one another. Late assignments will have a minimum automatic 25% point deduction for each day late. Do not wait until the last minute on any of your work!!
- Grammar will be graded as a part of any course work. All work should be in your OWN words!
- Student Honor Creed "As an MSU Student, I pledge not to lie, cheat, steal, or help anyone else do so."
- I will grade assignments for this course on Sunday of each week, so you can expect grades to be available by Monday each week.
- Grades will be posted in D2L.

Other Class Policies:

WRITING EXPECTATIONS

All written submissions should be submitted in a font and page set-up that is readable and neat. It is recommended that students try to adhere to a consistent format, which is described below.

- Typewritten in double-spaced format with a readable style and font and submitted inside the electronic classroom (unless classroom access is not possible and other arrangements have been approved by the professor).
- Arial 12-point font or Times New Roman styles 12-point font.
- Page margins Top, Bottom, Left Side and Right Side = 1 inch, with reasonable accommodation made for special situations and online submission variances.

CITATION AND REFERENCE STYLE

Students will follow the APA Style Manual, 6th Edition as the sole citation and reference style used in written work submitted as part of coursework to the University. Assignments completed in a narrative essay or composition format must follow the citation used in the APA Style Manual, 6th Edition.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS

Students are expected to submit classroom assignments by the posted due date and to complete the course according to the published class schedule. As adults, students, and working professionals I understand you must manage competing demands on your time. Should you need additional time to complete an assignment please contact me before the due date so we can discuss the situation and determine an acceptable resolution. Routine submission of late assignments is unacceptable and may result in points deducted from your final course grade.

THREE THEN ME RULE

Before you email me, make sure to follow the "Three then Me" rule. The "Three then Me" rule says that you search for your answer regarding the course in at least three other places before you email me. For example, if you have a question about an assignment, you could consult your syllabus, the assignment description on D2L, or another student in the class. Remember, check three sources before you email me your question. It is very likely you'll find the answer and not need to email me. If you don't find the answer, and need clarification, feel free to email me.

NETIQUETTE

Online courses promote the advance of knowledge through positive and constructive debate. Discussions on the Internet, however, can occasionally degenerate into needless insults and "flaming." Such activity and the loss of good manners are not acceptable in a university setting--basic academic rules of good behavior and proper "Netiquette" must persist. Remember that you are in a place for the fun and excitement of learning that does not include descent to personal attacks, or student attempts to stifle the discussion of others.

DISABILITY SUPPORT

The office of Disability Support Services provides information and assistance, arranges accommodations information and assistance, arranges accommodations and staff. The office has assistive devices such as books on tape, recorders, and adaptive software that can be lent to qualified individuals. A student/Employee who seeks accommodations on the basis of disability must register with the Office of Disability Support Services. Documentation of Disability from a competent professional is required.

In accordance with the law, MSU provides students with documents disabilities academic accommodations. If you are a student with a documented disability, please contact the instructor before classroom accommodations can be provided. The Disability Support Services may be contacted at 940-397-4140 (voice), 940-397-4515 (TDD), <http://students.mwsu.edu/disability>, or visit 3410 Taft Blvd., Clark Student Center Room 168.

Plagiarism Statement

"By enrolling in this course, the student expressly grants MSU a 'limited right' in all intellectual property created by the student for the purpose of this course. The 'limited right' shall include but shall not be limited to the right to reproduce the student's work product in order to verify originality, authenticity, and educational purposes." from Student Handbook

Senate Bill 11 passed by the 84th Texas Legislature allows licensed handgun holders to carry concealed handguns on campus, effective August 1, 2016. Areas excluded from concealed carry are appropriately marked, in accordance with state law.
