Weekly Learning Experiences

Weekly learning experiences (WLEs) will provide opportunities for students to interact demonstrating a depth of learning required for understanding the concepts found in this course. The learning experiences will include, but will not be limited to discussion boards, videos, individual or group products, and reflective essays. The WLEs will be due on Monday evenings by 11:59 PM unless noted differently in the assignment due date schedule.

Window Notes

A Window Note is a tool you may use to reflect on and dig deeper into the readings associated with each textbook chapter we will explore during this course. The tool is a research-based strategy and will help you to walk away with a clear, conceptual, and applied meaning in a real-world context. During this course you will complete a Window Notes template for 4 textbook chapters or section within a chapter you find most interesting. Your efforts are assessed by a rubric. The template is found in the D2L Important Course Materials-Note Taking section. The window notes will be due on Monday evenings by 11:59 PM unless noted differently in the assignment due date schedule.

Quizzes

Content quizzes will be given through D2L. The quizzes will be aligned to important content from specified chapters or explored concepts and ideas. The quizzes will open at the beginning of the course and are due the Sunday by 11:59 PM of the assigned week. This means each student has the assigned week to complete the 50-point quiz. Each quiz will consist of multiple-choice items and be timed based on the number of items. You will have 2 opportunities to successfully complete each quiz demonstrating your understanding of key concepts and ideas.

Creative Product – Infomercial Promoting Wellness for Young Children

The infomercial creative product will demonstrate the students' understanding of the health, safety, and nutrition practices and policies in early care and preschool programs. Students may work individually or in pairs producing the infomercial. Delivery of the infomercial will include both written and video components outlining important health, safety, and nutrition practices and policies supporting their program/school/classroom/facility. The infomercial will be due at the end of the semester and uploaded through D2L.

Extra Mile Effort Points

Periodically throughout the course the professor will offer assignments for students to earn extra mile effort points. These assignments will be offered at the professor's discretion and are not required to be completed by the student. The assignments will vary on point total while the total for all will not exceed 100 points. The students will submit responses through D2L, Google, or other formats based upon the intent of the assignment. When these assignments are offered, each will be due by Monday of that the corresponding week at 11:59 PM unless additional time is needed to complete the effort.

Final Exam

This course has no final exam...sigh of relief!

Late Work

Late work will generally not be accepted. At times extenuating events occur and require grace to be extended by the professor regarding a specific due date or time. The determination on whether to accept late work will be determined by the professor. If a late work pattern emerges then the student and professor will meet via Zoom to discuss ramifications of not completing work in a timely manner. Ramifications may include reduction in assignment scores and/or course grades.

Make Up Assignments

Weekly course learning assignments will generally not be made up. At times extenuating events occur and require grace to be extended by the professor regarding a specific due date or time. The determination on whether to allow work and/or tests to be made up will be determined by the professor. If a pattern or poor performance emerges, the student and professor will meet via Zoom to discuss ramifications of not completing assignments and/or tests. Ramifications may include reduction of assignment scores and/or course grades or any efforts on learning assignments or test efforts receiving 0 points.

Online Computer Requirements

Taking an online class requires you to have access to a computer (with Internet access) to complete and upload your assignments. It is your responsibility to have (or have access to) a working computer in this class. Assignments and tests are due by the due date, and personal computer technical difficulties will not be considered reason for the instructor to allow students extra time to submit assignments, tests, or discussion postings. Computers are available on campus in various areas of the buildings as well as the Academic Success Center. Your computer being down is not an excuse for missing a deadline!! There are many places to access your class! Our online classes can be accessed from any computer in the world which is connected to the internet. Contact your instructor immediately upon having computer trouble. If you have technical difficulties in the course, there is also a student helpdesk available to you. The college cannot work directly on student computers due to both liability and resource limitations however they are able to help you get connected to our online services. For help, log into D2L.

Desire-to-Learn (D2L)

Extensive use of the MSU D2L program is a part of this course. Each student is expected to be familiar with this program as it provides a primary source of communication regarding assignments, examination materials, and general course information. You can log into D2L through the MSU Homepage. If you experience difficulties, please contact the technicians listed for the program or contact your instructor.

Helpful Hints for Using D2L at MSU

- Do not use Internet Explorer. Firefox, Chrome, or Safari work best. Most issues are browser related.
- If you encounter technical issues, submit an Online Problem Report (OPR) to Online Problem Reporting System. Please fill out the form correctly and completely. This form is not for asking course related questions, only reporting technical issues. You may also email Distance Learning at d2lhelp@msutexas.edu.
- OPRs are answered until 10pm, seven days a week. After 10pm, it will be answered the next morning.
- If you have an exam due late at night, we recommend you take it early the first time. That way there will be someone available to assist.
- Do not take quizzes/exams on your phone. Use a computer. Occasionally phone exams do not submit.
- Remember technology is like Murphy's Law. If it can go wrong, it probably will. So be prepared.

The Distance Education Staff are here to help make sure you have a successful semester.

Additional Instructor Class Policies

- "Turning in" all assignments is not enough to insure an "A" in the course. Quality of work turned in on time is the most important criterion for receiving an "A."

- Correct grammar, punctuation, and spelling are expected on all written assignments (although web discussions are not held to the high standard of a research project or other written assignment). APA style should be followed.
- Written assignments should be done in Microsoft Word and turned in as an attachment on D2L or other platform described by the assignment. Email submission will generally not be accepted.
- Discussions should be completed within the D2L discussion space and not uploaded as an attachment unless the discussion requires a visual or video. Proper netiquette which is described in the course content will be honored on all discussions.
- Due dates should be honored to receive the highest score.
- When referring to the ideas of others, works should be cited using the APA format.

Change of Schedule
