Text: Trigonometry by Larson (11th edition)

Credit Hours: 3 undergraduate hours

Office Hours: WF 8am-9am, TR 9:30am-11am

Quizzes: There will be several quizzes throughout the semester. Most of them will be unannounced. The questions will come from the sections that we have just covered. Hence you might want to come to class with questions if you don't understand the section we just went over. The quizzes will constitute 100 points in your grade calculation. There will be NO make-up quizzes.

Exams: There will be 3 exams during the semester, each covering the material previously presented in class. Each exam will be worth 100 points. You will be informed about each exam no less than one week before.

Final Exam: There will be a comprehensive final exam given at the time listed in the Final exam schedule. Math 1433.101 exam will be given Monday, Dec 6 8am-10am. Math 1433.102 exam will be given Wednesday, Dec 8, 10:30am-12:30.

Grade calculation: Your grade will be based on the total number of points you accumulate during the semester.

		Total points	Letter Grade
Quizzes	100 points	500-450	A
Exams	300 points	449-400	B
Final Exam	100 points	399-350	C
Total	500 points	349-300	D
		Below 300	F

Attendance Policy: You are expected to come to class on a regular basis, and to be prepared for class.

Classroom Policies and Procedure: You are expected to attend every class that you are assigned to meet. This includes arriving on time, staying until the end, and being prepared and engaged. If you are unable to attend class due to illness or family emergency you will need to inform your professor via e-mail prior to your absence with details. Failure to do this will result in a zero for any assessment perform during your absence.

This syllabus reflects the expectations and grading procedures if the university remains in Phase III or moves to Phase IV. In the event that the university moves to Phase II or Phase I, this syllabus will be revised and procedures and grading scales will be posted on D2L
