Seligman, L. W., & Reichenberg, L. W. (2014). Theories of Counseling and Psychotherapy: Systems, Strategies, and Skills (4th Ed). Merrill Counseling

Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (7th Ed.). (2020). Washington D. C.: American Psychological Association.

Course Requirements

Grades will be based on your performance on 1 midterm (100 points), 1 final (100 points), and a paper (100 points).

Goals

- 1. Become acquainted with many of the major theories of counseling.
- 2. Identify 1-2 theories as main foundation for providing services.
- 3. Become aware of the impact of the self on practicing psychology.

Grade

Tests will be multiple choice and essay. Multiple choice answers will be marked on Scantrons and essay questions will be answered in the space provided on the test. The paper is to be written in APA 7th Ed. format and is to be 7-10 pages not including title or reference pages.

300 points are possible and grade ranges are as follows:

Paper

The paper for this course is different for the typical graduate paper. It is a "know thyself" paper that will be based upon take-home exercises. Through the take-home exercises, the student should begin to identify personal strengths, weaknesses, and beliefs (e.g., religious, political, morals/values, race, gender, etc.) that may positively or negatively impact the therapeutic relationship. The majority of the paper will be about those three areas, and the student is expected to regularly cite Kerr (question/page number) as one responds to the exercises. The final area will be about the theoretical orientation that best fits the student's personal style (4 peer-reviewed sources beyond the text). Please note: this exercise is not designed to limit the student's theoretical orientation. It is designed to help the student identify the theory that would be a good beginning point for professional development and practice. It is expected that the student will expand one's theoretical knowledge and practice base throughout the program and career.

Papers are due by the end of class. Late papers will lose one grade for every day they are late.

I will provide handouts from: Kerr, D. R. (2000). Becoming a therapist: A workbook for personal exploration. Prospect Heights, IL: Waveland Press.

Student Code of Conduct

MWSU's official policy in the University's Code of Student Conduct on page 52, states:

Instructor Drop: An instructor may drop a student any time during the semester for excessive absences, for consistently failing to meet class assignments, for an indifferent attitude, or for disruptive conduct. The instructor must give the student a verbal or written warning prior to dropping the student from the class. An instructor's drop of a student takes precedence over the student initiated course drop of a later date. The instructor will assign a grade of either WF or F through the first 9 weeks of a long semester, the first 6 weeks of a 10 week summer term, or the 12th class day of a 4 or 5 week summer term consisting of 20 days. After these periods, the grade will be an F. The date the instructor drop form is received in the Office of the Registrar as the official drop date. A student dropped from a class by a faculty member for disruptive behavior has the right of appeal to the Student Conduct Committee through the Student Conduct office.

Midwestern State University Student Honor Creed

"As an MSU Student, I pledge not to lie, cheat, steal, or help anyone else do so."

As students at MSU, we recognize that any great society must be composed of empowered, responsible citizens. We also recognize universities play an important role in helping mold these responsible citizens. We believe students themselves play an important part in developing responsible citizenship by maintaining a community where integrity and honorable character are the norm, not the exception.

Thus, We, the Students of Midwestern State University, resolve to uphold the honor of the University by affirming our commitment to complete academic honesty. We resolve not only to be honest but also to hold our peers accountable for complete honesty in all university matters.

We consider it dishonest to ask for, give, or receive help in examinations or quizzes, to use any unauthorized material in examinations, or to present, as one's own, work or ideas which are not entirely one's own. We recognize that any instructor has the right to expect that all student work is honest, original work. We accept and acknowledge that responsibility for lying, cheating, stealing, plagiarism, and other forms of academic dishonesty fundamentally rests within each individual student.

We expect of ourselves academic integrity, personal professionalism, and ethical character. We appreciate steps taken by University officials to protect the honor of the University against any who would disgrace the MSU student body by violating the spirit of this creed.

Written and adopted by the 2002-2003 MSU Student Senate.

Travel Plans: Please do not make travel plans that would hinder your access to a computer or the internet. You are responsible for maintaining electronic(s) equipment and internet access every day during this semester including finals week.
