Course Description

The student will learn about vocal anatomy and production through assigned readings, lectures, a midterm exam, and a final reflective paper. The student will develop vocal technique for speaking healthily and communicating effectively on stage through application of techniques and exercises, and the performance of two monologues and a scene.

This is a performance-oriented course that focuses on developing the foundational skills in vocal production for the stage. Students will be introduced to exercises in relaxation, alignment, breath support, resonance, articulation, and phonation. Techniques for assessing emotional and psychological truths will be practiced as well as drawing emotional connections to sounds, words, and images. Students will study the International Phonetic Alphabet to understand regional and standard American dialects.

Course Objectives

- Develop correct posture, breath support and vocal placement for healthy vocal technique.
- Work on communicating effectively with clear diction.
- Extensive study of the International Phonetic Alphabet.
- Work with heightened and non-formal language.
- Apply acting technique and character development to create complete performances.
- Expand knowledge of the theatre canon.

Textbook & Instructional Materials

- A Pronouncing Dictionary of American English by John S. Kenyon and Thomas A. Knott
- The Actor Speaks; Voice and the Performer by Patsy Rodenburg
- Yoga mat or towel for floor work.
- Three-ring binder

Academic Misconduct Policy & Procedures

Academic Dishonesty: Cheating, collusion, and plagiarism (the act of using source material of other persons, either published or unpublished, without following the accepted techniques of crediting, or the submission for credit of work not the individual's to whom credit is given). Additional guidelines on procedures in these matters may be found in the Office of Student Conduct.

Grading

Grades will be comprised of IPA (International Phonetic Alphabet) quizzes (25%), a midterm exam (10%), a final reflective paper (10%), three performances (15% each), and additional assignments and class participation (10%).

The student is allowed three absences per semester. Three late arrivals equal one absence. Any additional absences will result in a 10% reduction from the final grade.

90% or above=A, 80% or above =B, 70% or above=C, 60% or above=D and 59% or below=F.

Table 1: Percentages allocated to each assignment

Assignments	Percentage
IPA Quizzes (9 best of 11)	25%
Midterm Exam	10%
Final Reflective Paper	10%
Monologue #1 Performance	15%
Monologue #2 Performance	15%
Scene Performance	15%
Additional Assignments and Class Participation	10%
Total Percentage	100%

Table 2: Total percentage for final grade.

Grade	Percentage
A	90% or above
B	80%-89%

Grade	Percentage
C	70%-79%
D	60%-69%
F	Less than 60%

Additional Assignments

Throughout the semester homework regarding character development will be assigned. Assignments should be uploaded to D2L. Assignments are due by 9:00am and late work will not be accepted. Additional assignments and class participation will count as 10% of your final grade.

Quizzes

Being on September 9, 2022, we will have a weekly IPA (International Phonetic Alphabet) quiz on Friday. Some of the quizzes will be done outside of class time as IPA translations of your sonnet, monologues, and scenes. Other quizzes will be done in class with text provided by Dr. Edgar. Your best 9 out of 11 quizzes will count as 25% of your final grade. Your two quizzes with the lowest scores will not be counted toward your final grade.

Mid-Term Exam

There will be a midterm exam on October 12, 2022 during class time. You will receive a midterm review study guide on October 5th and we will have a midterm review session in class on October 10, 2022. The midterm will count as 10% of your final grade.

Final Reflective Paper

There will be a reflective final paper due on December 5, 2022 by 10:00am through D2L. This paper will be reflective on your experiences in Voice & Diction class throughout the semester. You will give examples of techniques and tools you learned that were helpful to your development as an actor. The paper will be two to three pages in length, double-spaced in a 12-point font. Your reflective final paper will count as 10% of your final grade.

MSU Productions and Extra Credit

Attend both Midwestern plays this semester The Glass Menagerie and Peter and the Starcatcher. Your ticket is free to both of these shows with your validated Midwestern Student ID. Seating may be limited for these productions, please ensure you reserve your tickets early. An analysis bonus paper (additional 5% added to your final grade) addressing the vocal production of an actor of your choice will be due one week after the production closes.

Late Work

Late work will not be accepted with the exception of an emergency.

Make Up Work/Tests

No make-up work or tests will be accepted with the exception of an emergency.

Important Dates

Last day for term schedule changes: August 25, 2022

Deadline to file for graduation: September 26, 2022

Last Day to drop with a grade of "W:" October 24, 2022 by 4pm

Desire-to-Learn (D2L)

Extensive use of the MSU D2L program is a part of this course. Each student is expected to be familiar with this program as it provides a primary source of communication regarding assignments, examination materials, and general course information. You can log into D2L through the MSU Homepage. If you experience difficulties, please contact the technicians listed for the program.

Attendance

Students are expected to attend all meetings of the classes in which they are enrolled. A student with excessive absences may be dropped from a course by Dr. Edgar. The student is allowed three absences per semester. Three late arrivals will equal one absence. Any additional absences will result in a 10% reduction from the final grade.

Instructor Class Policies

Course Requirements

1. Participation: Daily participation in class activities and discussions. Always be warmed-up physically and vocally.
2. Daily Vocal Practice and IPA study: Schedule and commit to at least 25 minutes of uninterrupted practice and/or study five days a week. Turn your cell phone off or to airplane mode during this time.
3. Reading: Assigned reading is to be completed before the beginning of the week for the material covered during the week.
4. Productions: Attend both Midwestern plays this semester The Glass Menagerie and Peter and the Starcatcher. Your ticket is free to both of these shows with your validated Midwestern Student ID. Seating may be limited for these productions, please ensure you reserve your tickets early.

General Notes

Cell phones need to be turned off or to airplane mode during all classes. Dedicate class time to being present and learning your craft.

Wear comfortable clothes and shoes suitable for movement and floor work during class. Please wear audition dress when you perform your monologues and something representative of your character in your scene.

No gum or food. Please always bring water to drink.

Monologues can be chosen by you, but will need to be email to Dr. Edgar for approval. Content warnings will be given for strong language and/or mature material.

Scenes will be selected and assigned by Dr. Edgar. These assignments are made thoughtfully to showcase a particular strength, focus on a particular area for improvement, and ensure that you are developing a variety of repertoire. Scene suggestions can be made by the student, but may not be best for development. I ask you to trust me as your devoted teacher and set up a meeting if you have concerns about your scene assignment.

Change of Schedule

A student dropping a course (but not withdrawing from the University) within the first 12 class days of a regular semester or the first four class days of a summer semester is eligible for a 100% refund of applicable tuition and fees. Dates are published in the Schedule of Classes each semester.

Refund and Repayment Policy

A student who withdraws or is administratively withdrawn from Midwestern State University (MSU) may be eligible to receive a refund for all or a portion of the tuition, fees and room/board charges that were paid to MSU for the semester. HOWEVER, if the student received financial aid (federal/state/institutional grants, loans and/or scholarships), all or a portion of the refund may be returned to the financial aid programs. As described below, two formulas (federal and state) exists in determining the amount of the refund. (Examples of each refund calculation will be made available upon request).

Services for Students with Disabilities

In accordance with Section 504 of the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Midwestern State University endeavors to make reasonable accommodations to ensure equal opportunity for qualified persons with disabilities to participate in all educational, social, and recreational programs and activities. After notification of acceptance, students requiring accommodations should make application for such assistance through Disability Support Services, located in the Clark Student Center, Room 168, (940) 397-4140. Current documentation of a disability will be required in order to provide appropriate services, and each request will be individually reviewed. For more details, please go to Disability Support Services.

College Policies

Campus Carry Rules/Policies

Refer to: Campus Carry Rules and Policies

Smoking/Tobacco Policy

College policy strictly prohibits the use of tobacco products in any building owned or operated by WATC. Adult students may smoke only in the outside designated-smoking areas at each location.

Alcohol and Drug Policy

To comply with the Drug Free Schools and Communities Act of 1989 and subsequent amendments, students and employees of Midwestern State are informed that strictly enforced policies are in place which prohibits the unlawful possession, use or distribution of any illicit drugs, including alcohol, on university property or as part of any university-sponsored activity. Students and employees are also subject to all applicable legal sanctions under local, state and federal law for any offenses involving illicit drugs on University property or at University-sponsored activities.

Grade Appeal Process

Update as needed. Students who wish to appeal a grade should consult the Midwestern State University Undergraduate Catalog
