Course Description

The language teaching community agrees that learning language and culture are inextricably connected. Thus, this course focuses on developing students' French- language proficiency through modes of communication that reflect real life communication in the varied cultures of the French-speaking world. By employing interpersonal, interpretive and presentational communicative modes in French, students will explore the ideas, values, beliefs and other cultural aspects of French -speaking peoples across the world and how these aspects work together to affect human experience.

Skills and Outcomes

By the end of the course, students will have developed solid competencies in each of the five goal areas (the five C's): Communication, Cultures, Connections, Comparisons, and Communities. Main objectives include:

1. Ability to comprehend and respond to intermediate conversational patterns
2. Proficiency and knowledge of intermediate grammatical structures and terminologies
3. Basic proficiency in reading and writing the language
4. Knowledge of significant cultural practices and historical events from the French -speaking world
5. Ability to use technology for e-mail and research of selected topics in French
6. Ability to use the Supersite for oral and written practice of French

Study Hours and Tutoring Assistance

Approximately one hour of study is suggested on a daily basis for success in this course. You are welcome to come to my office or meet with me via Zoom or Skype when you have questions about topics presented in class. Before you visit for me for tutoring, please make sure you have watched the tutorials/presentations at the VHL Central Supersite. Typically, tutoring is also available for free with our departmental tutor and/or with the MSU Tutoring Center (McCullough Hall). As soon as I have information about these tutoring options, I will share them with you.

Student Handbook

Refer to: Student Handbook 2018-2019

Academic Misconduct Policy & Procedures

Academic Dishonesty: Cheating, collusion, and plagiarism (the act of using source material of other persons, either published or unpublished, without following the accepted techniques of crediting, or the submission for credit of work not the individual's to whom credit is given). Additional guidelines on procedures in these matters may be found in the Office of Student Conduct.

Attendance

Your presence in class is essential for you to acquire competency in a foreign language. As such, your grade will be penalized if you do not attend class.

Notice

Changes in the course syllabus, procedures, assignments, and schedule may be made at the discretion of the instructor and/or required by the University.

If you decide to drop the course, you must follow university procedure for dropping a course in order to receive a W. If the instructor drops you, you will receive a WF or F.

Grading

Course Grade: The following components make up the course grade. The number of quizzes and graded homework assignments will vary according to the discretion of the instructor.

Table 1:

Assignments	% of Course Grade
Quizzes	15%
Homework Assignments	15%
Participation	10%
Papers	10%
Exams	25%
Oral Presentation	5%
Comprehensive Final Exam	20%

Table 2: Total percentages for final grade.

Grade	Points
A	90 - 100
B	80 – 89
C	70 – 79
D	60 – 69
F	Less than 60

Midterm Progress Report

In order to help students keep track of their progress toward course objectives, the instructor for this class will provide a Midterm Progress Report through each student’s WebWorld account. Midterm grades will not be reported on the students’ transcript; nor will they be calculated in the cumulative GPA. They simply give students an idea of where they stand at the midpoint of the semester. Students earning below a C at the midway point should meet with the instructor and/or take advantage of tutoring options.

Homework Assignments

Online homework assignments will be made from the VHL Central Supersite daily. These assignments include written, audio and video activities. Each assignment is to be completed before class begins on the due date. Homework completed after the deadline will not be accepted. Failure to turn in the homework on time will result in a grade of zero for the given assignment. For each lesson in the VHL Central Supersite an average of all the homework assignments for that lesson will be recorded in the D2L course gradebook.

Notice

Changes in the course syllabus, procedures, assignments, and schedule may be made at the discretion of the instructor and/or required by the University.

Participation

Participation is based upon your use of French in the face-to-face classroom and/or via recorded chats with classmates and/or with an online avatar. Don't worry about speaking perfect French. Accuracy will come with practice and repetition. I will record points for participation in the face-to-face classroom when you volunteer to answer questions or you participate in conversations in French with a classmate.

Exams

There will be an several exams throughout the semester. If you are absent from an exam, you must present documented proof of illness or university activity to your instructor. Otherwise, you will receive a grade of zero.

Final Exam

The comprehensive final exam covers all materials studied during the course. The exam consists of multiple choice, matching, and/or written/short answer portions.

Extra Credit

No extra credit assignments are given to individuals that are not offered to the entire class. All extra credit assignments will be offered at the discretion of the instructor.

Late Work

No late work is accepted.

Make Up Work/Quizzes/Exams

No make-up work is accepted, and no make-up quizzes will be offered.

If you know you will miss an exam due to an official university function, please make arrangements with your instructor prior to the absence and as soon as possible. If you are absent from an exam, you must present documented proof of illness or university activity to your instructor before an early or make up exam will be scheduled.

Important Dates

Last Day to drop with a grade of "W:" October 30.
Final Exam: Saturday, Dec. 9 (10:30 am-12:30 p.m.)
See course schedule for other important dates.

Desire-to-Learn (D2L)

Extensive use of the MSU D2L program is a part of this course. Each student is expected to be familiar with this program as it provides a primary source of communication regarding assignments, examination materials, and general course information. You can log into D2L through the MSU Homepage.

Instructor Class Policies

Please be polite to your instructor and fellow students. Pay attention to the instructor and to your fellow students when they are speaking. Do not engage your classmates in conversation in English during class.

Please silence your devices during class. Text messaging or the use of non-authorized electronic devices is prohibited. Please speak with your instructor if you have questions.

Notice
