Activities and Assignments

This course is one that was constructed so that the material builds upon itself to result in a final paper and application of learning. It is not recommended to work ahead. See the Course Schedule in this syllabus, as well as the course calendar in D2L, for specific information about activities and due dates.

If students have technical difficulties, they should use the "Help" link on D2L, contact the MSU Information Systems Support Staff, and send an email to the professor explaining what happened. Waiting until the last minute to ask for help or reporting incidents AFTER a due date or an exam expires may result in a grade of zero, even if it was a failure of D2L.

- All work submitted to the instructor will be considered complete and final, and will be graded as such.
- All assignments must be written at the baccalaureate level and will be graded for accuracy, completeness, quality, spelling, grammar, and integrity.
- Because of the nature of the assignments, late submissions will not be accepted. It is the expectation of the faculty that you complete work on time.

- Rubrics are available for all written assignments and can (and should) be viewed by the students prior to submitting any work.

Course Modules:

Syllabus & Course Resources

Students should begin the course by viewing the Syllabus. Also, you will find PowerPoint presentations covering various course topics. It is HIGHLY recommended that students review all of these documents as they progress through the course.

Module 1 –

Students will find the Research Question Approval section. In the Research Question Approval section, first read the Formulating a Research Question document, then access the Research Question Approval form. Upload the completed form to the dropbox.

You will need to conduct your surveys and obtain your data as well as analyzing the data you collected. Once this is completed, you will need to find articles pertaining to your research topic for your poster and paper.

Module 2 –

Students will review the Types of Research Overview, Plagiarism Overview, and Synthesizing Overview.

Within the Plagiarism section, students should begin by accessing the Avoiding Plagiarism document, and follow instructions to review the Harvard Guide to Using Sources. After reviewing that document, students should review the Plagiarism Evaluation Assignment instructions and upload the completed document to the dropbox.

You will need to complete the Introduction section, Methods section, Results section, and the Conclusion section. These will be the basis for your poster and the beginning components of your paper. In addition, you need to complete the UGRCA Forum Abstract Form for approval to participate in the Celebration of Scholarship Event.

Module 3 –

Within this module, you will need to develop your poster for the Celebration of Scholarship. You will utilize the content you created within the last course period for this. There are examples of poster presentations within the module for you to view.

The Poster Presentation within this course is the development and presentation of the student's research findings during Midwestern State University's Celebration of Scholarship. All students must present their research posters during the event on Thursday, April 24th. Faculty will utilize the Research Symposium Rubric to determine a score for each presentation. The scores from each faculty will be collected and averaged to determine a final grade for the overall presentation.

You must finalize your poster so we can send them out for printing.

Module 4 –

In the Title & Reference Page section, review the sample title page and sample reference list, and the Title & Reference Page instructions. Upload the completed title & reference pages to the dropbox.

Students will find the Writing a Research Paper notes, Writing a Research Paper instructions, and information on where to find a sample student paper. You need to begin writing your research paper, which will be due in Module 5.

Module 5 – Complete and submit your rough draft of your research paper. This draft will be graded as a finalized version of your paper, providing you with feedback and revision requests for your final paper submission within Module 6.

Module 6 -

Students should begin by reading the instructions for the final paper. This assignment should be very straight forward. Students should review all feedback provided by the instructor on the research question approval, title and reference page, and research paper rough draft assignments and correct all mistakes. This will require you to open the previous assignments, review the feedback/comments provided by the professor, and make the requested revisions. This may require some restructuring of the paper, changes in references, etc. The final paper should be free from all previously indicated errors, and substantial effort to improve the previous draft should be obvious to the instructor. Upload the final document to the dropbox.

Missed Assignment Policy

If a student is going to miss an assignment, it is the student's responsibility to contact the instructor prior to the exam or assignment deadline. A 10% reduction will be taken for each day (weekends and holidays included) after the scheduled assignment due date.
