2. Daily Vocal Practice: Schedule and commit to at least 30 minutes of uninterrupted vocal practice six days a week. Turn your cell phone off or to airplane mode during this time.
3. Reading: Assigned reading is to be completed before the beginning of the week for the material covered during the week.
4. Writing: There will be two papers as well as two opportunities to write a bonus paper.

General Notes

Cell phones need to be turned to airplane mode during all classes and private sessions. Please record when you are singing in class or in a private session, so you can listen back for improvement.

Wear comfortable clothes and shoes suitable for movement and floor work during class and private sessions. Please wear audition dress when you perform your song.

No gum or food. Please always bring water to drink.

Songs and scenes will be selected and assigned by Dr. Edgar. These assignments are made thoughtfully to showcase a particular strength, focus on a particular area for improvement, and ensure that you are developing a variety of repertoire. Song and scene suggestions can be made by the student, but may not be best for development. I ask you to trust me as your devoted teacher and set up a meeting if you have concerns about your song assignment.
