Course Description

This course examines the administration of justice through the three major components of the criminal justice system: police, courts, and corrections. Students will explore management principles, organizational structures, and decision-making processes within these institutions.

Course Materials

Required Textbook

Peak, Ken. (2011). Justice Administration: Police, Courts, and Corrections Management (9th ed.).

Additional Readings

- Required readings will be posted inside each course module.
- Optional readings labeled “Additional Readings” are available to help deepen understanding but are not required.
- Documents will be uploaded in PDF format whenever possible for accessibility and compatibility.

Presentation of Course Content

Course materials may include:

- Readings
- Discussion boards

- Quizzes and tests
- Instructor materials
- PDF documents

Students are responsible for reviewing all required materials in each module.

---

Evaluation and Grading

Your grade is based on the following components:

1. Participation and Discussions

Participation in weekly discussions is required.

Grades are based on quality, not quantity.

Examples of high-quality participation include:

- Adding new ideas
- Asking thoughtful questions
- Making connections to the readings
- Providing meaningful responses

Short replies such as “I agree” or “Great post” do not earn full credit.

Your final grade may be adjusted by up to 5% based on overall participation.

2. Tests and Quizzes

There will be:

- Three section tests
- Weekly quizzes

The textbook is divided into three sections:

1. Police
2. Courts
3. Corrections

A test will be given after each section.

All tests and quizzes will be available for one full week.

Specific availability dates are listed in D2L.

Academic Integrity

Academic honesty is required at all times.

This includes:

- Writing your own work
- Citing sources properly
- Not copying or sharing answers

Violations such as plagiarism or cheating may result in:

- A failing grade
- Removal from the course
- Referral to the Chair of the Criminal Justice Department

---

Legal Disclaimer

Information in this course is for educational purposes only.

Nothing in this class should be taken as legal advice.

Students who need legal advice should contact a licensed attorney.

---

Faculty Expectation Message (FEM)

All students must read and acknowledge the Faculty Expectation Message.

This is a free grade, but failure to acknowledge it will result in removal from the class.

Accessibility Statement

Midwestern State University is committed to providing equal access to students with disabilities. Students who need accommodations should contact the Disability Support Services Office and notify the instructor as soon as possible.
