Grading Approach and Evaluation

Leading up to each project, we will have discussions about my expectations and requirements for each assignment. I will also discuss ideas and sketches with each student individually and monitor your work time as you progress on your editions. All of this will go into consideration with the final result of each assignment. On each project due date, I will take your completed edition along with your sketchbook for grading. I will consider technical skills, exploration, conceptual expression, and improvement/effort.

Projects

All work is expected to be completed and ready for presentation at the assigned date (critique). It is EXTREMELY important to stay up to date with assignments and projects. Late work is unacceptable. Every effort must be made to turn projects in on time.

YOU are responsible for finding out what work was missed during your absence, and turning in work missed due to an absence. I will not remind you that a project was due during your absence.

IF you are absent on a project due date, and IF you are within the three allowable unexcused absences, work is DUE at the beginning of the next class period attended. (See critique section below for absent-during-crit policy).

Critiques

Class critiques are intended to help evaluate the strengths and weaknesses within each project by practicing new vocabulary and design concepts presented in class. They will take place on a regular basis and are designed to encourage the development of your technical and conceptual skills. Your participation and the expression of ideas and opinions in critiques are a major part of this course.

All critiques will begin at 9:15 sharp. You are expected to install and uninstall your artwork for critiques (before we start; plan to arrive early on critique days). Prints must be editioned and presentation-ready before critique! Missing critique is equivalent to missing an exam and will be penalized via 5% project grade reduction.

Attendance

Attendance and attitude are influencing factors on your grade. Attendance is always expected, including on "work days". Art requires time—if you miss class excessively, not only will it impact your attendance, but your projects will bear the effect as well (missing out on peer and instructor feedback/interaction). You should come to class prepared to work. Attendance is required for the entire class period. Excused absences are those which involve a documented health problem, family emergency, official university function, or religious holiday. Incompletes for the course will only be considered in extreme cases of personal injury or family emergencies.

You are allowed only 3 absences! NOTE THE POLICY FOR CRITIQUE ABSENCES. After 3 absences you run the risk of being penalized via 5% attendance grade reduction. Please email me ahead of time if you will be absent.

Studio Access

The print studio is available for your use whenever scheduled classes are not in session. You must leave the studio better than you find it. The studio, supply cabinet and other materials are accessible via room and lock codes that will be provided. Please keep this information limited to only other students enrolled in the course. Use of equipment, supplies, and presses are for enrolled printmaking students only, and enrolled students can only use what they've been trained in and have instructor permission for.

IF YOU ARE IN THE BUILDING AFTER CLASS HOURS, YOU MUST BE ABLE TO PROVIDE YOUR STUDENT ID AND PROOF OF ENROLLMENT IN CLASS IF AN OFFICER ASKS FOR IT. IF YOU HAVE A PROBLEM AND NEED ASSISTANCE, CALL THE CAMPUS POLICE AT 397-4239.

Studio Maintenance

General studio clean up will be the last 15 minutes of each class session. Students will maintain discipline in studio safety precautions, maintenance and up keep throughout the semester. The instructor will drop those students not willing to take active part in those goals.

Conduct Statement

Classroom behavior that interferes with either the instructor's ability to conduct the class or the ability of other students to benefit from the instruction will result in the instructor's removing the disruptive student(s) from the class, either temporarily or permanently (instructor drop), and receive a final lower grade, up to and including an F. Electronic devices (i.e. cell phones, iPods, iPads, personal computers, etc.) are not allowed to be used in class except with the expressed authorization of the instructor. The use of any recording devices or recording media during the class and lectures is prohibited. Students in violation of these rules will be sanctioned at the discretion of the instructor, and penalties may include lowering of the student's grade, up to and including an F, and to include an instructor drop.

In this course, the use of generative artificial intelligence is prohibited, whether it is for writing or for image generation (even generating sketches/ideas). The use of such tools and programs in this course qualifies as academic misconduct. It conflicts with our course goals of developing personal voice, whether written or visual. We will learn and discuss other strategies of idea development.

The instructor reserves the right to initiate an instructor drop with a grade of W, WF, or F, as specified in the Student Handbook (see link above) for reasons to include attendance issues, academic performance in the class, indifferent attitude, or disruptive conduct.

Department of Art will endeavor to comply with the intent of state laws or acts and the University Health and Safety Program in an effort to maintain a safe academic and working environment.

Smoking/Tobacco Policy

College policy strictly prohibits the use of tobacco products in any building owned or operated by WATC. Adult students may smoke only in the outside designated-smoking areas at each location.

Alcohol and Drug Policy

To comply with the Drug Free Schools and Communities Act of 1989 and subsequent amendments, students and employees of Midwestern State are informed that strictly enforced policies are in place which prohibits the unlawful possession, use or distribution of any illicit drugs, including alcohol, on university property or as part of any university-sponsored activity. Students and employees are also subject to all applicable legal sanctions under local, state and federal law for any offenses involving illicit drugs on University property or at University-sponsored activities.

Campus Carry

Effective August 1, 2016, the Campus Carry law (Senate Bill 11) allows those licensed individuals to carry a concealed handgun in buildings on public university campuses, except in locations the University establishes has prohibited. The new Constitutional Carry law does not change this process. Concealed carry still requires a License to Carry permit, and openly carrying handguns is not allowed on college campuses. For more information, visit Campus Carry.

Active Shooter

The safety and security of our campus is the responsibility of everyone in our community. Each of us has an obligation to be prepared to appropriately respond to threats to our campus, such as an active aggressor. Please review the information provided by MSU Police Department regarding the options and strategies we can all use to stay safe during difficult situations. For more information, visit MSUReady – Active Shooter. Students are encouraged to watch the video entitled "Run. Hide. Fight." which may be electronically accessed via the University police department's webpage: "Run. Hide. Fight."
