Study Hours and Tutoring Assistance

For a 3-credit-hour college course, students should expect to spend approximately 6–9 hours per week outside of class reading, studying, completing assignments, and preparing for assessments. This time commitment is in addition to scheduled class meetings and is essential for success in the course. If you need additional help please visit the MSU TASP center located in the library. Visit the Tutoring and Academic Support Programs \(TASP\) website for more information about the tutoring services they provide and for scheduling a session.

Student Handbook

Refer to: Student Handbook

Academic Misconduct Policy & Procedures

Academic Dishonesty: Cheating, collusion, and plagiarism (the act of using source material of other persons, either published or unpublished, without following the accepted techniques of crediting, or the submission for credit of work not the individual's to whom credit is given). Additional guidelines on procedures in these matters may be found in the Office of Student Conduct. Office of Student Conduct

Moffett Library

Moffett Library provides resources and services to support student's studies and assignments, including books, peer-reviewed journals, databases, and multimedia materials accessible both on campus and remotely. The library offers media equipment checkout, reservable study rooms, and research assistance from librarians to help students effectively find, evaluate, and use information. Get started on this Moffett Library webpage to explore these resources and learn how to best utilize the library.

Grading

Course Grade – Course grades are based on the percentage of total points earned. The following assignments contribute to the final course grade.

Coursework

Comprehensive Management Plan

You will develop a comprehensive management plan to help you envision and plan for a productive learning environment and to reflect on why strong management skills are important. This performance-based assessment will be typed 12pt font TNR and turned in to TK20. This can be done in a word document or you may choose to create a webdoc using Googlesites.

Lesson Plan

Based on the content standards in your area and utilizing the WCoEPS lesson plan template, you will plan a lesson to help you understand its importance in content delivery as well management of the classroom. You must attach the reflection at the end of the plan and submit to TK20. The reflection will come from sharing your lesson plan as well as the questions provided.

Activities

You will complete three course activities that require you to apply concepts you have learned about in the course. Specific details are provided in D2L.

Observation Time Logs & Reflections

Students enrolled in Classroom Management (those seeking teacher certification and enrolled in the WCoEPS program) will complete 10 hours of public school field observations. These will need to be logged in TK20 and specific and approved screenshots will need to be submitted to D2L for documentation. Further details will be available in D2L.

Handwritten Notes

Each week, you will complete handwritten notes as you work through the assigned chapter and any additional resources provided for that week, such as videos, articles, presentations, or other learning materials. Your notes should demonstrate that you are actively processing the information rather than simply copying sentences from the text. Identify and record important concepts, definitions, theories, examples, connections, questions, and ideas that help you understand and remember the material. You may organize your notes in a format that works best for you, such as an outline, concept map, two-column notes, Cornell, or another meaningful format. A quick internet search can provide you with ideas. You can use the same format throughout or try several strategies. Taking notes by hand can encourage deeper processing of information because students must select, organize, and rephrase important ideas rather than simply transcribing them. Additionally, each week before you begin reading a new chapter, read through all of your previous notes up to that point.

Projects Required

The capstone project for the course is the Comprehensive Management Plan worth 100 points. This plan, mentioned above as well, is a demonstration of your learning from the entirety of the course. More specific assignment details will be provided in D2L and due dates are provided in the calendar.

Final Exam

This course does not have a final exam, rather, a capstone project.

Extra Credit

This course does not offer extra credit assignments.

Late Work

Late assignments will be considered on a case-by-case basis and only if the student contacts the instructor to request consideration. If approved, late work may earn a maximum of 70% of the available points.

The Lesson Plan, Field Placement Observations of 10 total hours and corresponding timelogs, reflections, and the Comprehensive Management Plan are all WCOEPS Accreditation Requirements for Texas Education Agency. These must be turned in to TK20 to the appropriate links for you to pass the course and continue in the program. Failure to complete any one of the following and upload them to TK20 will result in an "Incomplete" if you are not otherwise failing the course, in which that case you will receive an F. In the event you receive an Incomplete, it will become an F two weeks after the course ends if the requirements are not met at that time. You will not be sent reminders and it is your responsibility to complete the missing work and connect with the course instructor in order to get the Incomplete removed. It is also your responsibility to ensure that the teachers you observe approve your hours. Your assignment is not complete until the teacher approves the time via the email link to TK20.

If you receive an Incomplete for the course due to unforeseen circumstances or because you did not complete one of the required WCOEPS or TEA assessments/activities or upload correctly to TK20, you will be notified only once. Neither the registrar nor your instructor will send reminders. It is your responsibility to download the necessary materials from D2L before the course closes and to contact your instructor for guidance on submitting the work to remove the Incomplete. The "I" will become an "F" two weeks after the course is complete (into the next long semester) if the required assignment is not complete and documented in TK20.

Desire-to-Learn (D2L)

Extensive use of the MSU D2L program is a part of this course. Each student is expected to be familiar with this program as it provides a primary source of communication regarding assignments, examination materials, and general course information. You can log into D2L through the MSU Homepage. If you experience difficulties, please contact the technicians listed for the program or contact your instructor.

Attendance

Effective August 2, 2026, the State of Texas adopted new requirements related to the delivery of asynchronous coursework in educator preparation programs. Under the new requirements, asynchronous coursework is defined as self-paced, non-simultaneous instruction in which students access course materials and complete assignments within the time frame prescribed by the course. A course is considered asynchronous when more than 50% of the coursework is delivered asynchronously.

To ensure that this course meets the new state requirements, students will be required to participate in a synchronous Zoom meeting once each week. These meetings will provide opportunities for live instruction, discussion, interaction, and engagement with the instructor and classmates.

Students are expected to attend and actively participate in each weekly Zoom meeting. The Zoom link is available in the Communications Tab in D2L. This schedule is being implemented to ensure that the course complies with current Texas requirements governing the delivery of educator preparation coursework

Online Computer Requirements

Taking an online class or a course that utilizes D2L extensively requires you to have access to a computer (with Internet access) to complete and upload your assignments. It is your responsibility to have (or have access to) a working computer in this class. *Assignments and tests are due by the due date, and personal computer technical difficulties will not be considered reason for the instructor to allow students extra time to submit assignments, tests, or discussion postings. Computers are available on campus in various areas of the buildings as well as the Academic Success Center. Your computer being down is not an excuse for missing a deadline!! There are many places to access your class! Our classes can be accessed from any computer in the world which is connected to the internet. Contact your instructor immediately upon having computer trouble. If you have technical difficulties in the course, there is also a student helpdesk available to you. The college cannot work directly on student computers due to both liability and resource limitations however they are able to help you get connected to our online services. For help, log into D2L.

Recording Classes

Recording classes is generally prohibited without the professor's explicit permission. Such recordings, when permitted, are for personal use only and may not be uploaded to the internet or otherwise shared, transmitted, or published without the professor's prior consent. Some faculty may not permit recordings of their classes. When it is feasible and appropriate, students may record classes to accommodate disabilities under the Americans With Disabilities Act, with prior approval of Disability Support Services. Such recordings may not be uploaded to the internet or otherwise shared, transmitted, or published.

Instructor Class Policies

Instructor Response Policy

For office hours, appointments are recommended to avoid conflicts with other student appointments. Zoom appointments also available for other times outside of office hours. The best way to contact me is via email. I will check my email between the hours of 8:00AM and 5:00 PM Mon-Fri. I will attempt to contact you within 24 hours; however, this does not apply on weekends or holidays. Once you contact me via email, we can then set up a virtual, phone, or in-person meeting, depending on your needs.

Classroom Conduct

Students are expected to assist in maintaining a classroom environment which is conducive to learning. Inappropriate behavior in the D2L online classroom or face-to face class shall result, minimally, in a request to drop the class. Failure to demonstrate appropriate classroom behaviors and the student may receive an instructor drop with an "F" for the course.

An instructor may drop a student any time during the semester for failure to participate, for consistently failing to meet class assignments, for an indifferent attitude, or for disruptive conduct. The instructor must give the student a verbal or written warning prior to dropping the student from the class. An instructor's drop of a student takes precedence over the student-initiated course drop of a later date. The instructor will assign a grade of either WF or F through the first 8 weeks of a long semester, the first 6 weeks of a 10-week summer term, or the 11th class day of a 4 or 5 week summer term consisting of 20 days. After these periods the grade will be an F. The date the instructor drop form is received in the Office of the Registrar is the official drop date.

Acceptable Use of Artificial Intelligence (AI) Tools

Artificial intelligence (AI) tools can be valuable resources for learning when used appropriately. However, the writing, analysis, and critical thinking demonstrated in course assignments must reflect your own work. The primary purpose of these assignments is to help you develop the knowledge and skills required for success in this course and in your future profession.

Students may use AI as a learning resource, but not as a substitute for their own thinking or writing. Acceptable uses of AI include generating examples to help you understand a concept or assignment, providing templates or organizational formats, clarifying difficult concepts or suggesting alternative wording that you then rewrite in your own words, assisting with research by identifying additional information or viewpoints, and brainstorming ideas for lesson activities or other course-related projects. Whenever AI is used in these ways, the AI tool must be properly cited according to the citation guidelines provided for the course.

Submitting work that is substantially generated by AI and presented as your own is a violation of academic integrity. Assignments for which the instructor determines that the majority of the content was generated by AI may receive a grade of zero. Students who receive a zero for this reason may revise and resubmit the assignment in their own original writing for a maximum of 50% of the available points.

Some assignments may include specific instructions regarding the appropriate use of AI. Students are expected to follow those assignment-specific guidelines.

Inclement Weather

In the event that the university is closed for a short time due to inclement weather, course work that is posted in the course calendar is still due unless a notification is posted in D2L on the News page stating otherwise. In most cases courses will not be offered digitally synchronously unless the closing extends beyond a brief period and is otherwise noted on the D2L News page. Students enrolled in courses with observations, internships, and field work, will be handled on a case by case basis.

Change of Schedule

A student dropping a course (but not withdrawing from the University) within the first 12 class days of a regular semester or the first four class days of a summer semester is eligible for a 100% refund of applicable tuition and fees. Dates are published in the Schedule of Classes each semester.

Refund and Repayment Policy

A student who withdraws or is administratively withdrawn from Midwestern State University (MSU) may be eligible to receive a refund for all or a portion of the tuition, fees and room/board charges that were paid to MSU for the semester. HOWEVER, if the student received financial aid (federal/state/institutional grants, loans and/or scholarships), all or a portion of the refund may be returned to the financial aid programs. As described below, two formulas (federal and state) exists in determining the amount of the refund. (Examples of each refund calculation will be made available upon request).

Services for Students with Disabilities

In accordance with Section 504 of the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Midwestern State University endeavors to make reasonable accommodations to ensure equal opportunity for qualified persons with disabilities to participate in all educational, social, and recreational programs and activities. After notification of acceptance, students requiring accommodations should make application for such assistance through Disability Support Services, located in the Student Wellness Center, (940) 397-4140. Current documentation of a disability will be required in order to provide appropriate services, and each request will be individually reviewed. For more details, please go to Disability Support Services.

Campus Carry

Effective August 1, 2016, the Campus Carry law (Senate Bill 11) allows those licensed individuals to carry a concealed handgun in buildings on public university campuses, except in locations the University establishes has prohibited. The new Constitutional Carry law does not change this process. Concealed carry still requires a License to Carry permit, and openly carrying handguns is not allowed on college campuses. For more information, visit Campus Carry.

Active Shooter

The safety and security of our campus is the responsibility of everyone in our community. Each of us has an obligation to be prepared to appropriately respond to threats to our campus, such as an active aggressor. Please review the information provided by MSU Police Department regarding the options and strategies we can all use to stay safe during difficult situations. For more information, visit MSUReady – Active Shooter. Students are encouraged to watch the video entitled “Run. Hide. Fight.” which may be electronically accessed via the University police department’s webpage: "Run. Hide. Fight."

State and federal law require University employees to report sex discrimination and sexual misconduct to the University's Office of Title IX. As a faculty member, I am required to report to the Title IX Coordinator any allegations, personally observed behavior, or other direct or indirect knowledge of conduct that reasonably may constitute sex discrimination or sexual misconduct, which includes sexual assault, sexual harassment, dating violence, or stalking, involving a student or employee. After a report is made, the office of Title IX will reach out to the affected student or employee in an effort to connect such person(s) with resources and options in addressing the allegations made in the report. You are also encouraged to report any incidents to the office of Title IX. You may do so by contacting:
