Course Description

Interpersonal Communication is designed to give students an understanding of communication concepts and practical experience in the communication process. Topics include self-concept, perception, verbal and non-verbal communication, listening, speaking and influencing, conflict management, and mass communication. The impact of gender and culture on communication will be examined. Participation in activities and exercises will provide opportunity to learn how to communicate more effectively in one-on-one, small-group and team situations.

Textbook & Instructional Materials

No textbook is required for this course. Bring paper and pen to each class meeting and be prepared to take notes.

Student Handbook

Refer to: Student Handbook

Academic Misconduct Policy & Procedures

Academic Dishonesty: Cheating, collusion, and plagiarism (the act of using source material of other persons, either published or unpublished, without following the accepted techniques of crediting, or the submission for credit of work not the individual's to whom credit is given). Additional guidelines on procedures in these matters may be found in the Office of Student Conduct. Office of Student Conduct

Moffett Library

Moffett Library provides resources and services to support student's studies and assignments, including books, peer-reviewed journals, databases, and multimedia materials accessible both on campus and remotely. The library offers media equipment checkout, reservable study rooms, and research assistance from librarians to help students effectively find, evaluate, and use information. Get started on this Moffett Library webpage to explore these resources and learn how to best utilize the library.

Grading

Course Grade - Daily exercises account for 50% of the final grade. (The two lowest daily grades will be dropped when averaging the final grade.) An essay on ethics accounts for 20% of the final grade. Final group presentation accounts for 30% of the final grade.

Table 1: Points allocated to each assignment

Assignments	% of grade
Daily exercises	50%
Ethics essay	20%
Final group presentation	30%

Table 2: Total percentage for final grade.

Grade	Points
A	90% and above
B	80 to 89%
C	70 to 79%
D	60 to 69%
F	Less than 60%

Homework

Homework will mostly involve the preparation of the ethics essay and the final group presentations. Students may need to review class notes to be prepared for daily exercises.

Quizzes

Daily exercises may require students to remember previous material but will not be quizzes per se.

Projects Required

Students will generate an essay outside of class demonstrating ethical reasoning skills. Students will prepare and present a group final presentation. Additionally, students will do daily teamwork, presentation, listening, and analysis exercises in class. (The lowest two grades of daily exercises will not be calculated in determining the student's final grade.)

Extra Credit

No extra credit work will be assigned or accepted.

Late Work

The Ethics Essay will be submitted through D2L. Students will have four weeks from the date of assignment to the due date. Please submit work early if you can. Technical difficulties will not be accepted as an excuse for not submitting on time. Any work submitted after the due date and time will not be accepted.

Make Up Work/Tests

Only in the case of a documented emergency will students be allowed to submit their final presentations on any day other than the day assigned.

Important Dates

- Last day for term schedule changes: August 27
- Deadline to file for December 2026 graduation: September 21
- Last day to drop with a grade of "W": November 23 by 4:00 p.m.

Desire-to-Learn (D2L)

Use of the MSU D2L program is a part of this course. Each student is expected to be familiar with this program as it provides a primary source of communication regarding assignments, examination materials, and general course information. You can log into D2L through the MSU Homepage. If you experience difficulties, please contact the technicians listed for the program or contact your instructor.

Attendance

Students are expected to attend all meetings of the classes in which they are enrolled. In this course, students perform daily exercises, which will account for 50% of the course grade. The two lowest daily exercise scores will be dropped when averaging the final grade. This means that any absences beyond two during the semester will result in a lower course grade. Also, please recognize that interpersonal communication requires multiple people; your absence from the class deprives your classmates of an opportunity to communicate with you. This class is a collaboration and works best when everyone is present and supportive of each other.

Recording Classes

Recording classes is generally prohibited without the professor's explicit permission. Such recordings, when permitted, are for personal use only and may not be uploaded to the internet or otherwise shared, transmitted, or published without the professor's prior consent. Some faculty may not permit recordings of their classes. When it is feasible and appropriate, students may record classes to accommodate disabilities under the Americans With Disabilities Act, with prior approval of Disability Support Services. Such recordings may not be uploaded to the internet or otherwise shared, transmitted, or published.

Instructor Class Policies

Laptop computers, tablets, and phones will not be allowed for note-taking in class. Please keep all electronic items off of the desk surfaces. Turn off all devices before the start of class so that there are no interruptions. (Do not set phones to vibrate; turn them off.) If you wear a smartwatch, use it for nothing more than checking the time; if you are paying too much attention to your smartwatch, I will ask you to remove it and put it away. Headphones and air pods are also prohibited.

When class time allows for students to do research for the final group presentations, I will designate time for using electronic devices. Otherwise, I shouldn't see them during class time.

It is not necessary to dress more formally for the final presentations. However, throughout the semester, students should be aware of how their dress may interfere with the communication process. Generally, brimmed caps, hoodies, or anything else that might obscure eye contact should be avoided.

Please be aware of how your behavior and attitude affect other students. Any student who is disruptive or rude will be dismissed from the class and given a zero on that day's exercise.

Although this course is labeled as a speech class, it is just as much (or more) a listening class. Your attention and support toward other students is necessary for everyone to have a successful semester.

No food is allowed in the classroom. Beverage containers should be well sealed. Any spills must be cleaned up by the person responsible. Do not chew gum during class: it is rude to speak with gum in your mouth, and it is equally rude to be chewing as an audience member.

Please pick up after yourself and insure that the classroom is clean and ready for the next group of students.

Change of Schedule

A student dropping a course (but not withdrawing from the University) within the first 12 class days of a regular semester or the first four class days of a summer semester is eligible for a 100% refund of applicable tuition and fees. Dates are published in the Schedule of Classes each semester.

Refund and Repayment Policy

A student who withdraws or is administratively withdrawn from Midwestern State University (MSU) may be eligible to receive a refund for all or a portion of the tuition, fees and room/board charges that were paid to MSU for the semester. HOWEVER, if the student received financial aid (federal/state/institutional grants, loans and/or scholarships), all or a portion of the refund may be returned to the financial aid programs. (Examples of each refund calculation will be made available upon request).

Services for Students with Disabilities

In accordance with Section 504 of the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Midwestern State University endeavors to make reasonable accommodations to ensure equal opportunity for qualified persons with disabilities to participate in all educational, social, and recreational programs and activities. After notification of acceptance, students requiring accommodations should make application for such assistance through Disability Support Services, located in the Student Wellness Center, \(940\) 397-4140. Current documentation of a disability will be required in order to provide appropriate services, and each request will be individually reviewed. For more details, please go to Disability Support Services.

Emergency Aid Resources for Basic Needs

Unexpected life circumstances can affect anyone. If you are experiencing challenges meeting basic needs—such as housing, utilities, food, transportation, healthcare, technology, textbooks or other life necessities, resources may be available to help. Visit the Student Emergency Support and Resources webpage to learn more, and explore emergency support opportunities through MSU and how to access them. College Policies

Campus Carry Rules/Policies

Refer to: Campus Carry Rules and Policies

Smoking/Tobacco Policy

College policy strictly prohibits the use of tobacco products in any building owned or operated by WATC. Adult students may smoke only in the outside designated-smoking areas at each location.

Alcohol and Drug Policy

To comply with the Drug Free Schools and Communities Act of 1989 and subsequent amendments, students and employees of Midwestern State are informed that strictly enforced policies are in place which prohibits the unlawful possession, use or distribution of any illicit drugs, including alcohol, on university property or as part of any university-sponsored activity. Students and employees are also subject to all applicable legal sanctions under local, state and federal law for any offenses involving illicit drugs on University property or at University-sponsored activities.

Campus Carry

Effective August 1, 2016, the Campus Carry law (Senate Bill 11) allows those licensed individuals to carry a concealed handgun in buildings on public university campuses, except in locations the University establishes has prohibited. The new Constitutional Carry law does not change this process. Concealed carry still requires a License to Carry permit, and openly carrying handguns is not allowed on college campuses. For more information, visit Campus Carry.

Active Shooter

The safety and security of our campus is the responsibility of everyone in our community. Each of us has an obligation to be prepared to appropriately respond to threats to our campus, such as an active aggressor. Please review the information provided by MSU Police Department regarding the options and strategies we can all use to stay safe during difficult situations. For more information, visit MSUReady – Active Shooter. Students are encouraged to watch the video entitled “Run. Hide. Fight.” which may be electronically accessed via the University police department’s webpage: "Run. Hide. Fight."
