Course Description

The instructor has designed this course first and foremost with the intention of providing her students with a basic understanding of U.S. history since the Civil War. For obvious reasons, the course is intended to be foundational rather than comprehensive. It is a course from which further exploration of the nation's past may be launched. In addition to providing students with a broad knowledge of history, the course will help students analyze people, places, and events. The course design also includes interpretive techniques that help students better understand what it is that historians do.
