Methods of Instruction

This course will be presented in a manner that will allow you to learn independently, from each other, through the discussion board, email, and postings. While you may work somewhat at your own pace, I have found that most students appreciate the structure of due dates. Please adhere to the due dates and adjust your study schedule accordingly.

Internet courses are a convenient and effective method of learning, however they require as much work and attention as traditional instruction. The following will ensure success this semester:

1. Plan, plan, and plan some more. Schedule time to collect the necessary documents and ensure that the sound and visual quality for submissions are acceptable. Also, allow a cushion of time from submission of videos/documents and the due date in case there are technical issues that you need to address.
2. Please adhere to all deadlines and due dates-this will help you plan-you may complete assignments early but do not turn them in late.
3. Please read and re-read assignments. Get clarification as soon as can (do not wait until the night before).
4. All assignments are due Friday night by 11:59pm unless otherwise specified. You have at least 2 full weeks to complete your assignments; therefore, no late work will be accepted.

Assignments

All written work should be written in a professional manner, even if it is a discussion thread or response to a classmate. Confidentiality will be respected at all times.

Article/Chapter/Book Reviews will be written in the format required by your training center or Qualified Instructor that is associated with.

This course will have some core requirements to verify training objective completion and discussion participation for attendance purposes. You will work independently on completing the necessary requirements and discussion posts. I have given you some due dates to keep you on track and keep you from waiting until the last minute to complete assignments.

Discussion Thread and Replies

Since this course is online and majority of the work is self-paced, the opportunity to interact with one another will be delivered through quality interactions in three discussion throughout the semester. The discussion posts are open for viewing from the beginning and that will allow you some time to give thoughtful reflection and formulate a response prior to the window opening. The window to respond with your original post and two replies is approximately 3 weeks. Please make sure your all three responses are submitted by the end of the three week window to receive full participation credit. The discussions will not be opened earlier or later than scheduled, so take time to plan out and schedule when to submit.

Article/Chapter/Book Review

Students will submit an Article/Chapter/Book Review that they have independently written in the format that was approved by their training center/QI. The articles, chapters, and/or books should come from a list approved by your Qualified Instructor as well. It is acceptable to upload one previously written and submitted to their QI/Training Center. However, if you have taken other MSU courses for the dyslexia program, do not submit the same reviews that you have previously submitted. The article must be dyslexia related.

Video of Lesson Demonstration, Qualified Instructor Evaluation, and Self-Critique/Reflection of Submitted Video

Videos should have good sound quality and visual presentation. Attach your video in D2L using the dropbox provided. MP4 is the best option for video submissions. Also, your video must be under 2G. Do not wait until the last minute to upload your video and if you have taken other MSU courses for the dyslexia program, do not submit the same video lesson that you have previously submitted.

Lesson Demonstration videos are preferred for this course.

Qualified Instructor Evaluations and Self-Critique/Reflections should correlate with the video submitted. Also, to receive a grade for an uploaded item, ensure any scanned images of the documents are legible and of good quality.

Practicum Hours Log

Students will submit their hours on the same approved form requested by the training center/Qualified Instructor attending/attended. If you are still in training, submit all hours you have accumulated to the point of document submission. If you have completed training, submit the total hours on the approved form.

Desire-to-Learn (D2L)

Extensive use of the MSU D2L program is a part of this course. Each student is expected to be familiar with this program as it provides a primary source of communication regarding assignments, examination materials, and general course information. You can log into D2L through the MSU Homepage. If you experience difficulties, please contact the technicians listed for the program or contact your instructor.

Attendance

Students are expected to attend all meetings of the classes in which they are enrolled. Although in general students are graded on intellectual effort and performance rather than attendance, absences may lower the student's grade where class attendance and class participation are deemed essential by the faculty member. In those classes where attendance is considered as part of the grade, the instructor should so inform students of the specifics in writing at the beginning of the semester in a syllabus or separate attendance policy statement. An instructor who has an attendance policy must keep records on a daily basis. The instructor must give the student a verbal or written warning prior to being dropped from the class. Instructor's records will stand as evidence of absences. A student with excessive absences may be dropped from a course by the instructor. Any individual faculty member or college has the authority to establish an attendance policy, providing the policy is in accordance with the General University Policies.

Attendance expectations for this course specifically will be collected through D2L log-in, participation in discussions, and assignment submissions.

Online Computer Requirements

Taking this class requires you to have access to a computer (with Internet access) to complete and upload your assignments. It is your responsibility to have (or have access to) a working computer in this class. Assignments and tests are due by the due date, and personal computer technical difficulties will not be considered reason for the instructor to allow students extra time to submit assignments, tests, or discussion postings.

Computers are available on campus in various areas of the buildings as well as the Academic Success Center. Your computer being down is not an excuse for missing a deadline!! There are many places to access your class! Our classes can be accessed from any computer in the world which is connected to the internet. Contact your instructor immediately upon having computer trouble. If you have technical difficulties in the course, there is also a student helpdesk available to you. The college cannot work directly on student computers due to both liability and resource limitations however they are able to help you get connected to our online services. For help, log into D2L.

Appendix B: Note about COVID

Scientific data shows that being fully vaccinated is the most effective way to prevent and slow the spread of COVID-19 and has the greatest probability of avoiding serious illness if infected in all age groups. Although MSU Texas is not mandating vaccinations in compliance with Governor Abbott's executive orders, we highly encourage eligible members of our community to get a vaccination. If you have questions or concerns about the vaccine, please contact your primary care physician or health care professional. Given the recent rise in cases, individuals are also strongly encouraged to wear facial coverings when indoors among groups of people, regardless of vaccination status. Although MSU Texas is not currently requiring facial coverings, they have been an effective strategy in slowing the spread.
