Course Description:

This is an introductory course to macroeconomics. This specific branch of economics focuses on studying an economy as a whole, that is, in the aggregate. #### Homework:

Homework assignments will be given after the completion of each chapter. All questions are solvable based on the lectures. Students are required to submit the assignments before the due date. No late submissions accepted. The homework assignments consist of multiple-choice questions provided through D2L. These assignments are due by the course calendar, generally by Monday night at 11:59 PM. There is one assignment for each chapter covered. There will be approximately 20-35 multiple choice questions per assignment weighed so that the maximum total points for the assignment is 100 (percentage). You will be allowed unlimited attempts on the homework.

Exams:

The exams must be taken as scheduled. All exams are online and will be monitored through RESPONDUS LOCKDOWN BROWSER, which will require students to have access to a video webcam. Every student is expected to have access to a webcam from the beginning of the semester. However, these monitoring tools are not compatible with Chromebook Laptop, Phones and Tablets. Contact MSU Distance Education to get proper instructions to execute this. There are no make-up exams in this course and students missing an exam without a valid excuse will receive an exam grade of zero for the specific exam. A valid excuse is defined as an authorized absence (see Midwestern State University Undergraduate Catalog for the definition) or such event deemed acceptable by the instructor. No make-up exams are given for the unexcused missed exams. There are three exams (and a cumulative final). Unit Exams consist of 20-30 multiple choice questions from each unit. Late work is not accepted and there will be no make-up assignments or exams under any circumstances. The student is responsible for having an appropriate internet connection. The student is responsible for submitting each assignment by the deadline set online. The student will have an adequate amount of time for each assignment and must not fall behind. Missing an assignment means earning zero credits.

Late Work:

If students miss an exam or assignment without prior approval from the instructor, a make-up exam or late submission of work is not allowed.

However, for those who have missed homework submission and got a zero grade, I may give you a grace period at the end of the semester, but only 80% of the points will be counted. Most importantly, this opportunity will be given solely based on your instructor's decision.

Attendance Policy:

Since this course is taught asynchronously over the web, we have no regular scheduled meeting times, and therefore no required in-classroom attendance. Your grade is completely determined by your work and participation. In lieu of a normal physical attendance policy based on absences, your attendance will be measured by your assignments being turned in on time and reading the discussion board posts. As such, missing any three assignments or failing to login to the class web site for two consecutive weeks is equivalent to three unexcused absences, and in accordance with the Student Handbook and Undergraduate Catalog, can result in being administratively withdrawn from the course, which results in a grade of "F". D2L allows me to document each time you log into the course and what messages you have read in the discussion board.

Grading and Evaluation:

Online courses are a double-edged sword. You have the benefit of an extremely flexible schedule, since there are no regular class meetings. But with the flexibility comes an enormous responsibility on your part as a student to manage your time efficiently. All work is expected to be turned in by the due date. Work turned in late will not be accepted unless prior arrangements have been made with me. This includes completing exams during the scheduled time.

Procrastination is the sure way to a failing grade in an online course. It is so vital to keep up with the reading assignments and ask questions as soon as material seems unclear or confusing to you. You simply cannot afford to put things off or try to cram the night before an exam. It is important to start reading early and do your assignments as soon as possible. Give yourself as much time as possible to ask questions and get feedback. The night before the exam is not a good choice.
