Course Description

The instructor has designed this course first and foremost with the intention of providing her students with a basic understanding of the themes and events that dominated the American past since the Civil War. For obvious reasons, she has not designed the course to be in anyway comprehensive, but rather foundational. It is a course from which further exploration of this nation's history may be launched. In addition to providing students with a broad knowledge of US History, the course will help students critically analyze historical events. The course design also includes interpretive techniques to help students better understand what it is that historians do.

Required Book

*Eric Foner, Give Me Liberty! An American History 6th ed., vol. 2

D2L

Extensive use of D2L is part of this course. The instructor will use D2L for posting syllabi, course communication, course schedule, assignment instructions, and gradebook. You should regularly check D2L for information pertaining to class.

Computer Requirements

Taking an online course requires you to have access to a computer (with Internet access) to complete quizzes and exams as well as to upload any assignments. It is your responsibility to have (or have access to) a working computer. Computer technical difficulties will not be considered a valid reason for the instructor to allow students extra time to take or submit assignments. Computers are available on campus in various areas of the buildings as well as the Academic Success Center. Your computer being down is not an excuse for missing a deadline!

Academic Dishonesty

Cheating, collusion, plagiarism, and the use of Artificial Intelligence (AI) are forms of academic misconduct and will result in a zero for the assignment. While some professors may permit or even encourage the use of artificial intelligence, it is NOT allowed in this class. Note that the instructor uses Turnitin.com to check for both plagiarism and Artificial Intelligence.

Movie Assignment

*Students are expected to write a 5-6-page essay on Bonnie & Clyde (1967). Further instructions can be found on our class dashboard on D2L. Click on "Content," and then click on "Movie Assignment Instructions." In your essay, you must answer each of the questions asked.

*The essay must be typed, in 12-point font, Times New Roman, and be double-spaced. The margins should be 1 inch on the top and bottom and 1.25 on the left and right.

*Submit your movie assignment via D2L. On our D2L class dashboard, click on "Assessments." Then click on "Assignments." You should see a folder entitled "Bonnie & Clyde." You must upload your essay on the scheduled due date: February 21.

Exams

*This course includes two exams, a midterm and a final, both of which will consist of 50 multiple choice questions. Study guides are posted on D2L.

*Students will take both exams on D2L.

*The instructions for taking the exams are as follows:

1. Log onto D2L
2. Click on the 9-block square at the top of the page and find our class. Click on it.
3. Once on our classroom dashboard, click on "Assessments" near the top of the page.

Extra Credit

*Virtual extra credit options, usually Zoom talks by academics, can be found under "Content" on our D2L classroom dashboard. Click on "Extra Credit" to see this semester's two options. You may attend one or both. Attending one of these zoom talks will be considered a "Bonus Quiz." As such, your lowest quiz will be replaced with a 100. Note that Zoom informs the instructor what time you log-in to the meeting and what time you leave. To earn the extra credit, you must stay for the duration of the talk.

Make Up Work/Exams

*If you fail to take an exam or quiz by the given deadline, you must provide a legitimate excuse as to why if you expect to make it up. Legitimate examples are family deaths and illnesses (documented by a doctor's excuse). Forgetting is not an acceptable excuse.

Midterm Progress Report

*To help students keep track of their progress toward course objectives, the instructor will provide a Midterm Progress Report. Midterm grades will not be reported on the students' transcript, nor will they be calculated in the cumulative GPA. They simply give students an idea where they stand at the midpoint of the semester. Students earning below a C at the midway point should schedule a zoom meeting with the instructor.
