Course Description

The language teaching community agrees that learning language and culture are inextricably connected. Thus, this course focuses on developing students' Spanish- language proficiency through modes of communication that reflect real life communication in the varied cultures of the Spanish-speaking world. By employing interpersonal, interpretive, and presentational communicative modes in Spanish, students will explore the ideas, values, beliefs, and other cultural aspects of Spanish-speaking peoples across the world and how these aspects work together to affect human experience.

Desire-to-Learn (D2L)

Extensive use of the MSU D2L program is a part of this course. Each student is expected to be familiar with this program as it provides a primary source of communication regarding assignments, examination materials, grades, and general course information. You can log into D2L through the MSU Homepage.

Skills and Outcomes

By the end of the course, students will have developed solid competencies in each of the five goal areas (the five C's): Communication, Cultures, Connections, Comparisons, and Communities. Main objectives include:

1. Ability to comprehend and respond to basic conversational patterns
2. Proficiency and knowledge of basic grammatical structures and terminologies
3. Basic proficiency in reading and writing the language
4. Knowledge of significant cultural practices and historical events from the Spanish-speaking world
5. Ability to use technology for e-mail and research of selected topics in Spanish
6. Ability to use the VHL Central Supersite for oral and written practice of Spanish.

Notice: Changes in the course syllabus, procedures, assignments, and schedule may be made at the discretion of the instructor and/or as required by the University.

Specific outcomes of the course are the following:

- Introducing yourself, greeting and saying goodbye to friends, learning courtesy expressions, talking about yourself and others, spelling your name, performing simple math problems, asking, and telling time
- Describing your university and classroom, exchanging information about courses of study, talking about the calendar and dates, asking, and responding to simple questions

Academic Misconduct Policy & Procedures

Academic Dishonesty: Cheating, collusion, and plagiarism (the act of using source material of other persons, either published or unpublished, without following the accepted techniques of crediting, or the submission for credit of work not the individual's to whom credit is given).

Notice: Changes in the course syllabus, procedures, assignments, and schedule may be made at the discretion of the instructor and/or as required by the University.

Additional guidelines on procedures in these matters may be found in the Office of Student Conduct.

Midterm Progress Report

In order to help students keep track of their progress toward course objectives, the instructor for this class will provide a Midterm Progress Report through Navigate. Midterm grades will not be reported on the students' transcript; nor will they be calculated in the cumulative GPA. They simply give students an idea of where they stand at the midpoint of the semester. Students earning below a C at the midway point should meet with the instructor and/or take advantage of tutoring options.

Attendance

You are required to be in class for the entire 50-minute period. Arrive on time. You may be counted absent if you are more than 10 minutes late for class or if you leave class early.

Absences due to official university functions or illness will be dealt with on an individual basis and should be discussed with the instructor outside of class time. There are no "excused" absences from regular class periods and the instructor will take attendance every day. Each absence lowers your attendance grade. The attendance grade is calculated by dividing the number of days that you are in class by the number of days that the course meets. (Example for 2 absences out of a total of 57 class days: $55/57 = .9649... = 96.49\%$). The attendance grade contributes 5% to the final course grade.

This syllabus serves as notice that you may be dropped from the class without further notification if you are absent more than six times. A Conduct and Attendance Referral may be sent to the Dean of Students upon the fourth absence. If you decide to drop the course, you must follow university procedure for dropping a course to receive a W. If the instructor drops you, you will receive a WF or F.

Participation

The participation grade contributes 10% to your course grade and is based upon your use of Spanish in the classroom and via optional recorded chats with classmates or with an online avatar. Don't worry about speaking perfect Spanish. Accuracy will come with practice and repetition. Each week you will complete a participation self-assessment (see example below) based on the frequency that you respond to my questions in Spanish and on your participation in pair activities with another classmate in the classroom. I may change your self-assessment score if I do not feel that you are accurately or fairly assessing your own participation. Please feel free to discuss with me if you disagree with any adjustments that I make. You can monitor your participation grade in the D2L gradebook.

Name _____	Class _____			Date _____
	More than 2 times per class	1 or 2 times per class	2 or 3 times each week	1 time per week	never
I respond to Instructor's questions:
	always	most always	sometimes	rarely	never
I work with classmates on activities:

You also have many opportunities to earn participation points toward your grade using the VHL Central Supersite Partner and Virtual Partner Chats. These activities are optional and are intended to supplement your in-class participation. They are due weekly by Monday at the start of your class, but you can complete them any time prior. Chats submitted after the weekly due date will not be graded. You can find a list of all partner and virtual partner chats, including references to the textbook pages where they appear, under General Course Documents on our D2L page. These are also viewable in the Calendar view at the VHL Central Supersite

The virtual partner chats are designated with this icon:

The partner chats are designated with this icon:

The virtual partner chats are completed on your own with an online “avatar” asking you questions. The partner chats are completed with one of your fellow classmates. Each chat can earn you 5 points toward a 100 for the Participation Grade category. Your Spanish does NOT have to be perfect, but please follow the directions and answer all questions in complete sentences in Spanish.

Quizzes in class and in D2L (Desire-To-Learn)

A weekly quiz based on homework and class work will be given either in class, typically on Fridays, or in D2L (Desire to Learn). If the week’s quiz is given in D2L, it will become available Friday by 5:00 pm and will be due by start of class on Monday. These quizzes will contribute 7.5% to your course grade. No late work is accepted, and no make-up quizzes are given. Your lowest grade in this category will be dropped at the end of the semester.

Core Curriculum Assessment

One of the D2L Quizzes will also serve as an assessment of the student’s performance of the core curriculum objectives in the specific context of this course. The short answer quiz will be based upon a film or article(s) that I will assign around the middle of the semester. The film or article(s) will present students with an ethical dilemma or issue for resolution. In their responses, students should demonstrate that they have adequately researched and considered the topic in the framework of the core curriculum objectives.

The core objectives for the Language, Philosophy and Culture Foundational Component Area are addressed in this course according to the following descriptions:

- Critical Thinking Skills: Students will demonstrate creative thinking, innovation, inquiry and analysis, evaluation, and synthesis of information.
- Communication Skills: Students will demonstrate effective development, interpretation, and expression of ideas through written, oral, and visual communication.
- Personal Responsibility: Students will demonstrate the ability to connect choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision making.
- Social Responsibility: Students will demonstrate intercultural competence, knowledge of civic responsibility and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities.

In responding to the topic, students must identify their core beliefs and the origins of those core beliefs, recognize the ethical issue(s) presented and the relationships between issues, state a position on the issue(s) and connect their position to implied actions and consequences¹.

Homework Assignments

You will have almost daily homework assignments on the VHL Central Supersite. Some of the assignments are for the presentation of vocabulary and/or tutorials for grammar topics. These assignments include written, audio and video activities. The purpose of these assignments is to help you learn the material, so you should use all the VHL resources (vText, vocabulary cards, etc.) to complete these “homework” type activities.

Notice: Changes in the course syllabus, procedures, assignments, and schedule may be made at the discretion of the instructor and/or as required by the University.

Each assignment is to be completed by the start of class time on the due date (see calendar/dashboard in VHL Central Supersite). Homework completed after the due date will be accepted but with a 5% penalty assessed for each day past the original due date for that assignment. For each lesson in the VHL Central Supersite, an average of all the homework assignments for that lesson will be recorded in the D2L course gradebook. Once the lesson grade has been recorded in the D2L gradebook, no late work will be accepted. These lesson grades contribute 7.5 % to your course grade. You are welcome to work ahead in the online program. Your lowest grade in this category will be dropped at the end of the semester.

Language Lab Quizzes

You will take six listening comprehension quizzes in the World Languages Laboratory in Bea Wood 127/128. The quizzes are based on videos related to the vocabulary, grammar and cultural concepts presented in each lesson. You may preview these videos at the VHL Central Supersite and you will need to access the site in the Language Laboratory to complete your quizzes.

Please show your MSU Student ID to the lab attendant to receive your quiz. You will receive a quiz and a Scantron. Please do not write on the quiz. After you complete the quiz, please sign out at the lab attendant’s desk. Make-up and/or late quizzes are not permitted. Your lowest lab grade will be dropped at the end of the semester. Please note the due dates below. A schedule of lab hours will be posted on D2L as soon as it is available.

Final Exam

The comprehensive final exam covers all materials studied during the course. The exam consists of a multiple choice, matching, and/or true false portion and a written/short answer portion.
