Exams

Exams are open book and divided by chapters. Please refer to D2L for more information.

Projects Required

The following two projects are required to receive credit for this course. Accommodated Lesson Planning and Dyslexia training. See below and D2L for more details.

Accommodated Lesson Planning: MUST COMPLETE (For the rubric and more information refer to details in D2L)

Lesson Accommodation Plan

The purpose of this assessment is to evaluate your ability to identify and describe specific instructional accommodations to meet the needs of different types of learners in the classroom. After reading and completing the activities in this module, please follow the instructions below.

1) Go to the Teaching Tolerance website to choose a lesson plan.

<https://www.tolerance.org/classroom-resources/lessons>

Use the drop-down menus to narrow the plans down to those appropriate for the grade level(s) aligned with the certification you are seeking. Choose a lesson plan appropriate for your grade level and/or content area.

List your certification area and copy the URL for your chosen lesson plan in the chart.

2) Review the Lesson Accommodation Plan Grading Rubric.

3) Based on the lesson plan, please complete the following chart to demonstrate how you would modify that lesson to meet the needs of different types of student populations. You should base your answers on research-based strategies that have been identified as being effective with each particular learner group. You should describe in detail how you would use the strategies you identify as modifications to demonstrate your understanding of how to implement the strategies.

4) Include rationale for your accommodation decisions. Your rationale should include references to specific studies or professional resources that support the use of the strategy for each group. You may use the readings and materials provided in the module or if needed, you may conduct your own research to find studies or professional resources that support your planned modifications.

You should cite the resource in your rationale with a short citation in parentheses with author last name and data such as (Smith, 2018). Please provide reference listings for the sources in the space provided after the chart. You should only use professional education resources to support your rationale and not unreliable online sources such as Wikipedia.

Dyslexia Training: MUST COMPLETE (For more information refer to details in D2L)

Dyslexia Training

1. Access

Desire-to-Learn (D2L)

Extensive use of the MSU D2L program is a part of this course. Each student is expected to be familiar with this program as it provides a primary source of communication regarding assignments, examination materials, and general course information. You can log into D2L through the MSU Homepage. If you experience difficulties, please contact the technicians listed for the program or contact your instructor.

Attendance

Students are expected to participate in online discussions and complete work assigned through D2L in which they are enrolled.

Online Computer Requirements

Taking an online class requires you to have access to a computer (with Internet access) to complete and upload your assignments. It is your responsibility to have (or have access to) a working computer in this class. Assignments and tests are due by the due date, and personal computer technical difficulties will not be considered reason for the instructor to allow students extra time to submit assignments, tests, or discussion postings. Computers are available on campus in various areas of the buildings as well as the Academic Success Center. Your computer being down is not an excuse for missing a deadline!! There are many places to access your class! Our online classes can be accessed from any computer in the world that is connected to the internet. Contact your instructor immediately upon having computer trouble. If you have technical difficulties in the course, there is also a student helpdesk available to you. The college cannot work directly on student computers due to both liability and resource limitations however they are able to help you get connected to our online services. For help, log into D2L.

Change of Schedule

A student dropping a course (but not withdrawing from the University) within the first 12 class days of a regular semester or the first four class days of a summer semester is eligible for a 100% refund of applicable tuition and fees. Dates are published in the Schedule of Classes each semester.

Refund and Repayment Policy

A student who withdraws or is administratively withdrawn from Midwestern State University (MSU) may be eligible to receive a refund for all or a portion of the tuition, fees and room/board charges that were paid to MSU for the semester. HOWEVER, if the student received financial aid (federal/state/institutional grants, loans and/or scholarships), all or a portion of the refund may be returned to the financial aid programs. As described below, two formulas (federal and state) exists in determining the amount of the refund. (Examples of each refund calculation will be made available upon request).

Services for Students with Disabilities

In accordance with Section 504 of the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Midwestern State University endeavors to make reasonable accommodations to ensure equal opportunity for qualified persons with disabilities to participate in all educational, social, and recreational programs and activities. After notification of acceptance, students requiring accommodations should make application for such assistance through Disability Support Services, located in the Clark Student Center, Room 168, (940) 397-4140. Current documentation of a disability will be required in order to provide appropriate services, and each request will be individually reviewed. For more details, please go to Disability Support Services.

College Policies

Campus Carry Rules/Policies

Refer to: Campus Carry Rules and Policies

Smoking/Tobacco Policy

College policy strictly prohibits the use of tobacco products in any building owned or operated by MSU TEXAS. Adult students may smoke only in the outside designated-smoking areas at each location.

Alcohol and Drug Policy

To comply with the Drug Free Schools and Communities Act of 1989 and subsequent amendments, students and employees of Midwestern State are informed that strictly enforced policies are in place which prohibits the unlawful possession, use or distribution of any illicit drugs, including alcohol, on university property or as part of any university-sponsored activity. Students and employees are also subject to all applicable legal sanctions under local, state and federal law for any offenses involving illicit drugs on University property or at University-sponsored activities.

Campus Carry

Effective August 1, 2016, the Campus Carry law (Senate Bill 11) allows those licensed individuals to carry a concealed handgun in buildings on public university campuses, except in locations the University establishes has prohibited. The new Constitutional Carry law does not change this process. Concealed carry still requires a License to Carry permit, and openly carrying handguns is not allowed on college campuses. For more information, visit Campus Carry.

Active Shooter

The safety and security of our campus is the responsibility of everyone in our community. Each of us has an obligation to be prepared to appropriately respond to threats to our campus, such as an active aggressor. Please review the information provided by MSU Police Department regarding the options and strategies we can all use to stay safe during difficult situations. For more information, visit Safety / Emergency Procedures. Students are encouraged to watch the video entitled "Run. Hide. Fight." which may be electronically accessed via the University police department's webpage: "Run. Hide. Fight."

Grade Appeal Process

Update as needed. Students who wish to appeal a grade should consult the Midwestern State University MSU Catalog
