Teaching Strategies

Independent reading assignments, written assignments, internet searches, quizzes, classroom discussion, Anatomage Table, and presentations.

Extra Credit

Any students desiring 1 extra credit point added to their final grade may email a photo of a dog to the professor with the subject line "Extra Credit." The deadline to submit a photo for credit is May 5, 2022 at 12pm.

Late Work

Late work is not accepted in this course. Special circumstances are individually evaluated by the professor.

Attendance

Attendance is mandatory. Excessive absences will result in a referral to the Dean of the College of Health Sciences and may result in your being dropped from the Program. Excessive absences are defined as: three (3) absences from lecture (except medical reasons – physician note required). Missed quizzes may only be made up if prior arrangements have been made. If a student is more than 10 minutes late to class it will count as tardy. Three (3) tardies will count as an absence.

Class Activities and Assignments

- Independent Module Readings

 - Module 1: Chapters 1, 2, & 3

 - Module 2: Chapters 4 & 5

 - Module 3: Chapters 7 & 8

 - Module 4: Chapters 10 & 12

- Module Exams (40%)

Quizzes will be given in class on specified dates and times.

Scantron answer sheets will be required for all quizzes and exams.

- Participation (15%)

Students must participate in class activities, projects, and discussions. Evidence of class participation includes: attendance, being on time, participating in class discussions, and submitting assignments on time. Each unexcused absence (see attendance) will be a 10 point deduction.

- Pathology Project (15%)

The purpose of this project is to reinforce the student's understanding of a pathologic condition and the medical imaging procedures used for diagnosing such pathology.

This project will be presented in class as a group presentation.

Detailed instructions for this project can be found on D2L.

Review the grading rubric for this assignment on D2L.

- Comprehensive Final Exam (30%)

The final exam is a comprehensive exam and will be administered during finals week.

Honor System

RADS 3133 adheres to the MSU Code of Conduct. In particular, academic dishonesty, however small, creates a breach in academic integrity. A student's participation in this course comes with the expectation that his or her work will be completed in full observance of the MSU Code of Student Conduct. A student should consult the current Student Handbook for answers to any questions about the code.

Many components of RADS 3133 are designed to be highly interactive with students helping each other learn. Students are encouraged to take full advantage of many resources available including online D2L course resources, Internet sites, other textbooks and journals, faculty, and peers when answering objectives. This interactive collegial learning environment is conducive to life-long learning.

Specific components of RADS 3133 are designed to represent the efforts of each student individually and are not to be shared or copied (plagiarized) from other sources. These components include the module quizzes, pathology report, and the comprehensive final exam. When students submit their efforts for grading, they are attesting they abided by this rule.

Cheating includes, but is not limited to: (1) use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, or examinations; (2) dependence upon the aid of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or completing other assignments; or (3) the acquisition of tests or other academic materials belonging to the university faculty or staff without permission.

Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to: the use of, by paraphrase or direct quotation without correct citation in the text and on the reference list, the published or unpublished works of another person. Students may not submit papers and assignments that they have previously submitted for this or other courses. The use of materials generated by agencies engaged in "selling" term papers is also plagiarism. Students are encouraged to review the tutorials and suggested websites for more information about plagiarism. Papers and other assignments may be submitted to an external agency for verification of originality and authenticity.

Academic dishonesty (cheating, plagiarism, etc.) will not be tolerated in this class. Whenever a student is unsure of whether a particular situation will be interpreted as academic dishonesty, the student should ask the instructor for clarification. If students are guilty of academic dishonesty, a grade of zero (0) may be given for the quiz, assignment, etc. Cases may also be referred to the Dean of Students for possible dismissal from the university.

Services for Students with Disabilities

In accordance with Section 504 of the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Midwestern State University endeavors to make reasonable accommodations to ensure equal opportunity for qualified persons with disabilities to participate in all educational, social, and recreational programs and activities. After notification of acceptance, students requiring accommodations should make application for such assistance through Disability Support Services, located in the Clark Student Center, Room 168, (940) 397-4140. Current documentation of a disability will be required in order to provide appropriate services, and each request will be individually reviewed. For more details, please go to Disability Support Services.
