Course Description

This course is designed to continue to integrate generalist social work foundational knowledge and skills in actual social work settings. Emphasis is placed on individuals, families, small groups, and communities from a multicultural perspective. Fifteen hours per week is required in an approved agency placement.

Cooperatively run by faculty and students, Field Seminar 4236 is not simply another lecture class. It provides an open forum for the exchange of ideas, feelings, and experiences. It is a vehicle to examine issues and test out practice principles and values. It should also encourage the use of new understanding and the discussion of conflicting messages about theory vs. the "real world." Students should be able to use the seminar to learn to critically assess their field experiences and to give and receive both support and criticism. Discussions in the seminar are confidential unless ethical considerations dictate otherwise.

Field Practicum and Seminar II is structured to be developed by students and faculty to meet the needs of the particular students in field each semester. Participation is therefore essential. Students are expected to come prepared to discuss issues, questions and/or concerns related to agency placement. The seminar provides an opportunity for students to share experiences, to gain feedback on their performance, and to develop strategies for dealing with problems that may arise. Students have the responsibility to help the seminar work. The faculty are resource persons and as such, structure and facilitate discussion and share suggestions. As a part of this course, students must develop and present a portfolio demonstrating competence as developed throughout their MSU Texas BSW course of study in each of the nine social work competencies, found on pages 8-13 of the 2022 CSWE Educational Policy and Accreditation Standards.

Course Delivery

This seminar has been planned as a fully face-to-face course. The class will meet in its regularly scheduled room on all scheduled class days.

Students with health concerns or any symptoms of illness should communicate with the professor in advance to evaluate if they may need to attend live classes via Zoom. Students attending by Zoom must have advance approval and appear on video for the entire duration of the class.

If Midwestern State University campus operations are required to change, it is possible that course delivery or course format will change. Should that be necessary, students will be advised of the changes.

Class Participation

It is expected that students will contribute to the maintenance of a healthy learning environment, by paying attention to lectures, to fellow students' contributions in the class and by not being disruptive in class. It is expected that students actively participate in class discussions and exercises. It is also expected that everyone who shares ideas/views is respectful of others' time and ideas/views. We could agree to disagree, but we ought not to be disagreeable.

Class participation is expected not only at the time of class discussions but also during lectures by raising pertinent questions, by contributing relevant ideas and by sharing relevant examples. Students will be expected to read all the assigned materials prior to class and be prepared to engage in class discussions related to the class topics.

Laptop and Cell Phone regulation

No Photographing, recording, or text messaging is allowed without the permission of the instructor. Please turn off or set cell phones on silent. Please do not surf the internet or listen to music while in class. Please note that using electronic devices during class time will have an adverse impact on participation grade.

Writing Assistance

Begin drafting papers as early as possible and take advantage of the Tutoring & Academic Support Programs, located off the first floor of the Moffett Library. The MSU TASP Learning Center offers drop-in tutoring support for most general subject areas including but not limited to Writing, Math, Science, Business, and Foreign Languages. Students check in to work one-on-one with a tutor typically for an hour regarding specific concepts.

Academic Dishonesty: Cheating, collusion, and plagiarism (the act of using source material of other persons, either published or unpublished, without following the accepted techniques of crediting, or the submission for credit of work not the individual's to whom credit is given). Additional guidelines on procedures in these matters may be found in the student handbook, and the Academic Dishonesty Policy & Procedures section, found in Part II.

Field Practicum Grade Policy

Students must complete all learning experiences and assignments, including a minimum of 200 hours in the field practicum setting, during the semester in order to complete Field Practicum & Seminar II.

A course grade of below a B or an average of below 80% will be considered a failing grade. Students must repeat social work courses in which they receive a failing grade.

Learning Experiences Required

Practicum Learning Contract

The student and the field instructor are asked to develop a written agreement or Practicum Learning Contract to help with the student's personal and professional growth. This document encompasses the expectations of each in relation to teaching and learning objectives, assigned tasks, operating procedures, and issues around illness. Responsibility for negotiating and preparing the Practicum Learning Contract is shared between the assigned field instructor and the student intern. The student is responsible for submitting the Practicum Learning Contract to his/her FFL on the date indicated on the practicum calendar. This learning contract is used as a guideline by the student, the FI, and the FFL in planning field assignments and evaluating performance.

Supervision

Meet weekly with the Agency Field Instructor for at least one (1) hour. Individual supervision is required to address specific student learning needs. Attend staff meetings. Meet with other field interns for group supervision if offered. Prepare case presentations.

Content of Field Practice

Students are expected to carry a minimum of 3 cases for the semester. Students are strongly encouraged to work with diverse ethnic and cultural groups. Students will be given the opportunity to observe and perform social work duties as part of direct and indirect practice under close supervision.

Weekly Field Seminar

The weekly field seminar led by the FFL will provide a supervised learning experience in a community-based social service agency. Seminars are designed to integrate the knowledge, values, and skills presented in the classroom with the field practicum experience. In each seminar, students will be required to critically assess their own practice skills and discuss the dimensions of social work practice from their emerging professional experiences in the field.

Seminar Topics (class, social work department)

- Mandated reporting laws and protocol—instruction on reporting child abuse and elder abuse as a mandated reporter;
- Process recording as a therapeutic tool;
- Use of supervision in the field internship;
- Code of ethics;
- Ethical Issues;
- Multiple social work roles at the BSW graduate level;
- Diversity and cultural awareness in working with the disenfranchised and marginalized populations.

Assignments

Community Needs Analysis, Organizational Analysis, and Plan of Action

This assignment has three parts.

- 1) Community Needs Analysis
- 2) Organizational Analysis
- 2) Advocacy for social and economic justice.

Part I: Community Needs Analysis

The purpose of this part of the assignment is to learn about the community surrounding the agency. Students will collect data regarding the population and diversity of the community, major community institutions/organizations, linkages in the community with smaller and larger systems (individuals, families, groups, other organizations, state, and nation), and changes in the community over time (use Ecomap). Throughout their internship period, students will identify and describe social problems relevant to their agency's purpose and function that would lend themselves to a community approach and/or intervention. Students will analyze the community using a SWOT analysis (Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities, Threats). Based on this analysis, students will assess any gaps that may exist in services and recommend an intervention that addresses unmet needs in the community.

In order to understand the community surrounding your field agency, you are asked to collect information about the community regarding the:

1. Type of populations in the community (racial composition, economic status, literacy, age, ability status, etc.);
2. Major community institutions (ex. Nonprofits, community-based organizations, churches, schools, hospitals, and so forth);
3. Kind of relationship your agency has with those organizations (ex. Health services, educational service, food service and so forth); and
4. Changing conditions in the community over a period/ issues in the community (ex. Increased impoverishment, crime, migration, immigration, etc.)

Finally, you are expected to utilize the Eco-map tool to gather information from the community in the areas mentioned above.

In your presentation, you will discuss what your agency has done to address those issues.

Part II: Organizational Analysis and Plan of Action

Provide background information on the organization where you are completing your field placement (demographics, focus of organization, and other information) and what community need(s) the organization meets. Discuss the issues that affect the organization; focus on client status. Use the class readings to understand the issues relevant to organization client status. The following topics should be addressed:

1. Introduction: Who is this and why is this organization working with them?
2. What are the issues affecting this organization/client status as they articulate them? Discuss these in terms of human rights/justice.

3. What are the strengths and resources (potentials and realized) available to this organization in client status? What are the challenges/obstacles?
4. What needs to change? How should social workers be involved in this change? Elaborate a possible plan for change in consultation with stakeholders (include goals, objectives, who, what, when, and how)
5. Conclusion.

Part-III: Advocating for Economic and Social Justice (policy)

Find common themes of economic and social justice that connect the organization with the community in order to exert influence on key stakeholders. Observe how the agency takes action with clients, support systems, and/or the community to increase economic and social justice efforts at the agency/organization. Link these actions to case advocacy or policy advocacy or both. Discuss how the outcomes of these actions impact client systems. Prepare a reflective presentation based on observations and/or interactions in the agency. Include advocacy recommendations.

Students will make a presentation in class for 10-12 minutes.

ExamPrepConnect

This online ASWB Licensure exam prep program offers a blend of theoretical content knowledge along with practical advice, delivered in an accessible and motivational voice. It offers a wide array of activities that appeal to different learning styles. The FREE EPC Mobile App for 24/7 study places every tool for success in the palm of your hands. EPC is designed to provide equity of access and enable users to get the tools you need to prepare for the licensure exam. Since EPC is an all-digital product, the author can update test questions and content to reflect any changes that occur in the licensure exam.

Students are graded on EPC completion percentage, rather than based on prep material scores. Students are expected to complete 100% of the EPC program.

Social Work Portfolio

The Social Work Portfolio serves multiple purposes for the students, faculty, and the MSU BSW Program. The portfolio is as an opportunity for students to critically reflect on their learning throughout the BSSW Program and relate it to the nine 2022 Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) competencies. The portfolio may also serve as an outcome measure for the Program, allowing the faculty to assess areas in the curriculum that need enhancements or modifications. The portfolio is a sample of students' knowledge, skills, values, and cognitive & affective processes and is intended to be a collection of documents that can be used when meeting with prospective employers. See additional handout sheet for this assignment \(Attachment I\).

Summative Reflection

Write a minimum 6-page typed Summative Reflection due at the end of SOWK 4246. It will be evaluated on the depth of analysis and content and how it highlights growth between Field I and Field II. It should describe how you experienced and understood generalist social work practice from a multicultural perspective and your ability to describe the social work principles in your work with individuals, families and/or groups. See additional handout sheet for this assignment (Attachment II).

Weekly Field Logs / Field Journal

Student documentation of activities performed in the agency.

Field Agency Timesheets

Submit monthly timesheets to the Faculty Field Director.

Field Evaluations

- Submit mid-semester and semester-end student evaluations that have been jointly reviewed and signed by the student and Field Instructor.
- Submit an Evaluation of the Field Placement Experience to the Faculty Field Director at the end of the semester.
- Complete Field Program and Faculty Field Director evaluations at the end of the semester.

Performance evaluation in agency

A LEARNING CONTRACT that outlines your goals and objectives for your field placement (see materials in D2L) to be developed in consultation with your field instructor. If during the year, you feel you need to re-negotiate this contract, the field instructor should be involved. You will be graded on your progress toward meeting the objectives of your learning contract.

200-Hour Minimum

Students must complete a minimum of 200 hours in the Practicum during the semester, and these hours must be verified by the Field Instructor. Completion of these 200 hours must occur no later than the end of week 16.

Seminar Participation and Attendance

Field Practicum and Seminar II is structured to be developed by students and faculty to meet the needs of the particular students in field each semester. Participation is therefore essential. Students are expected to come prepared to discuss issues, questions and/or concerns related to agency placement. The seminar provides an opportunity for students to share experiences, to gain feedback on their performance and to develop strategies for dealing with problems that may arise. Students have the responsibility to help the seminar work. The faculty are resource persons and as such, structure and facilitate discussion and share suggestions. The field seminar is a critical adjunct to the field experience.

Students are mandated to attend a weekly field seminar during the semester. Students absent for permitted, legitimate reasons will be allowed to make-up a seminar in accordance with the make-up policy. The following conditions provide the only acceptable reasons for a student's absence: 1) Illness of the student or an illness in the immediate family which requires the absence of the student from the seminar in which case the student's FFL may require a doctor's statement; 2) A death in the immediate family of the student; and 3) An absence for other reasons may be excused if, in the judgment of the student's FFL, circumstances warrant.

Make-up Policy: The student's FFL will assign the student an alternative assignment. The alternative assignment could be a written report (minimum 4 pages) about the missed topic of the field seminar. For example, if the student missed the seminar which addressed ethical dilemmas in their field placement work; the FFL may ask the student to write a paper on that topic. Failure to complete a makeup assignment will result in a No Credit grade which means you fail the entire field education course.

Late Work

All assignments must be submitted on time. Students who need additional time to complete assignments must meet with the FFL at least one class session prior to the assignment's due date to discuss the accommodations that need to be made. It is the student's responsibility to request this meeting.

Late work will be penalized ½ letter grade per 24-hour time period. Failure to submit any assignment within 7 calendar days of the due date will result in a failing grade for the assignment. You should get with the instructor as soon as possible if an emergency occurs interfering with your ability to meet a due date.

Make Up Work/Tests

Make up work will only be considered in cases of university excused absences or verifiable emergencies. Students will not be allowed to take make up exams after the original exam has been given. If you cannot take the exam on the required day and time, you must make arrangements in advance to take it PRIOR to the scheduled administration of the exam.

Important Dates

Last day for term schedule changes: January 16-19

Deadline for May graduates to file for graduation: February 12th

Last Day to Drop with a grade of "W:" 4:00 p.m. March 25th

Refer to: Drops, Withdrawals & Void

Desire-to-Learn (D2L)

Use of the MSU D2L program is a part of this course. Each student is expected to be familiar with this program as it provides a source of communication regarding assignments, examination materials, and general course information. You can log into D2L through the MSU Homepage. If you experience difficulties, please contact the technicians listed for the program or contact your instructor.

Social Work Field Practicum Seminar Attendance Policy

Students are expected to attend all meetings of this class and to arrive before class begins. If unable to attend class, please inform the instructor directly via email or office phone before the class start time. If unable to attend class due to an emergency, please inform the instructor as soon as possible. Students must meet with FFL to request an alternative assignment as allowed by the make-up policy. Please note that for each "uninformed class absence" a 0 will be assigned for the class period participation grade. Coming late to class, inattentive or disruptive behavior during class (including inappropriate cellphone or computer use) and leaving early from class will have an adverse impact on attendance and participation grade.

Each unexcused absence will result in a subtraction of 5 points from the student's final grade at the end of the course.

After three absences the student will be dropped from the class.

For an absence to be excused the student must inform the instructor in advance of the reason for the absence and provide documentation supporting the need for the class absence.

An absence will be considered officially excused if the student:

- a. Presents a written excuse from the Office of Student Affairs.
- b. Presents a written excuse from a physician.
- c. Presents written documentation of attending a mandatory function (e.g., basketball team, band, etc.).
- d. Obtains permission from the instructor in advance of the absence.

Authorized absences due to required participation in university-sponsored activities must be approved by the college dean or Athletic Director and the Provost. These absences will not count against the student when the student presents a signed letter to the instructor at least two class days prior to the date of the absence. Only prior notification can guarantee lack of penalty for these absences. It is the responsibility of the student to arrange with the instructor to make up all work missed during an authorized absence. Academically related activities (class field trips, attendance at conferences, etc.) which result in absences require the cooperation of individual faculty members. Even though such activities are educational in nature, they do not qualify as university-sponsored activities.

Instructor Class Policies

All students registered for courses in the Social Work Department are expected to adhere to the responsibilities, and behavior as articulated in both the Student Handbook and the NASW (National Association of Social Workers) Code of Ethics. An essential feature of these codes is a commitment to maintaining intellectual integrity and academic honesty. I have a zero-tolerance policy for cheating or plagiarism, and violations will result in substantial penalties including a failing grade on the assignment with no make-up opportunity and/or a referral to the Dean of Students.

Repeated accidental or willful cheating or use of someone else's words, ideas, or evidence without attribution will be met with a failing grade in the course and a referral to the Dean of Students, regardless of whether the first occurrence was in this course. If you have any doubts or questions about what constitutes academic misconduct, please do not hesitate to contact me. Students are expected to display professional decorum at all times. This includes, but is not limited to, respecting classmates and the instructor. In this regard, it is expected that students will not hold side conversations, use cell phones, or engage in other types of unprofessional behaviors once class has begun.

Diversity: It is my intent to present material and activities that are respectful of diversity. It is also my intent that students from all perspectives and diverse backgrounds be well-served by this course, that students' learning needs be addressed both in and out of class, and that the diversity that students bring to this class be viewed as a resource, strength, and benefit. Your suggestions about how to improve the value of diversity in this course are encouraged and appreciated.

Examples of violations that may lead to termination include (but are not limited to) the following:

1. Failure to meet or maintain academic grade point requirements as established by the University and the Social Work program.
2. Academic cheating, lying, or plagiarism (turnitin.com will be used to check the originality of the text).
3. Behavior judged to be in violation of the NASW Code of Ethics.
4. Failure to meet generally accepted standards of professional conduct, personal integrity, or emotional stability requisite for professional practice.
5. Inappropriate or disruptive behavior toward colleagues, faculty, or staff (at the department or in the field placement).

7. Documented evidence of criminal activity occurring during the course of study.

For additional university-wide policies and regulations, see the MSU Undergraduate Catalog. This web site contains information on grading, incomplete grades, cheating on exams, plagiarism, and expectations of student behavior.

Change of Schedule

A student dropping a course (but not withdrawing from the University) within the first 12 class days of a regular semester or the first four class days of a summer semester is eligible for a 100% refund of applicable tuition and fees. Dates are published in the Schedule of Classes each semester.

Refund and Repayment Policy

A student who withdraws or is administratively withdrawn from Midwestern State University (MSU) may be eligible to receive a refund for all or a portion of the tuition, fees and room/board charges that were paid to MSU for the semester. HOWEVER, if the student received financial aid (federal/state/institutional grants, loans and/or scholarships), all or a portion of the refund may be returned to the financial aid programs. Two formulas (federal and state) exist in determining the amount of the refund. (Examples of each refund calculation will be made available upon request).

Services for Students with Disabilities

In accordance with Section 504 of the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Midwestern State University endeavors to make reasonable accommodations to ensure equal opportunity for qualified persons with disabilities to participate in all educational, social, and recreational programs and activities. After notification of acceptance, students requiring accommodations should make application for such assistance through Disability Support Services, located in the Clark Student Center, Room 168, (940) 397-4140. Current documentation of a disability will be required in order to provide appropriate services, and each request will be individually reviewed. For more details, please go to Disability Support Services.

College Policies

Campus Carry Rules/Policies

Effective August 1, 2016, the Campus Carry law (Senate Bill 11) allows those licensed individuals to carry a concealed handgun in buildings on public university campuses, except in locations the University establishes has prohibited. The new Constitutional Carry law does not change this process. Concealed carry still requires a License to Carry permit, and openly carrying handguns is not allowed on college campuses. For more information, visit Campus Carry.

Active Shooter

The safety and security of our campus is the responsibility of everyone in our community. Each of us has an obligation to be prepared to appropriately respond to threats to our campus, such as an active aggressor. Please review the information provided by MSU Police Department regarding the options and strategies we can all use to stay safe during difficult situations. For more information, visit Safety / Emergency Procedures. Students are encouraged to watch the video entitled "Run. Hide. Fight." which may be electronically accessed via the University police department's webpage: "Run. Hide. Fight."

Course Changes

Although much thought, study, and research has gone into designing the course and learning opportunities, often the most significant learning comes in unexpected moments. The instructor cannot predict these times but respond to them. Changes in the course syllabus, procedure, assignments, and schedule may be made at the discretion of the instructor.

Social Work Portfolio (Attachment I)

The Social Work Portfolio serves multiple purposes for the students, faculty, and the MSU BSW Program. The portfolio is as an opportunity for students to critically reflect on their learning throughout the BSSW Program and relate it to the nine 2022 Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) competencies. The portfolio may also serve as an outcome measure for the Program, allowing the faculty to assess areas in the curriculum that need enhancements or modifications. The portfolio is a sample of students' knowledge, skills, values, and cognitive & affective processes and is intended to be a collection of documents that can be used when meeting with prospective employers.

Required Format

Each student's Social Work Portfolio must consist of the following:

- I. Title Page: Students must create a title page that has their name, university, anticipated degree and semester/year of anticipated graduation. This is an opportunity to create a professional, visually appealing introduction to your portfolio.
- II. Table of Contents: Create a table of contents that shows readers where they can find the different components of the portfolio and what, specifically, is included.
- III. Resume & Cover Letter: Students are strongly encouraged to work with the MSU Career Management Center on developing your resume & cover letter. They provide a Resume Tips video and the From Campus to Career Mustangs Survival Guide provides resume writing tips and resume samples. Email cmc@msutexas.edu to schedule one-on-one time with the CMC staff to develop your resume. The CMC also provides assistance with cover letter, interview, networking, and job search skills.
- IV. Evidence of Meeting the CSWE Competencies: Students must provide at least one (1) learning product documenting each of the 9 competencies.
 - a. Learning products must be selected from the Menu of Learning Products (to be provided in class).
 - b. Students may use one learning product for multiple competencies if it is listed for all of those competencies.
 - c. For each selected learning product, the student must have earned a minimum of a "B" grade. The learning products do not need to be the versions on which the instructor wrote the grade or made comments. Instead, students can use final versions of the learning products that they have saved. While not required, students can submit versions of the learning products on which the instructor wrote the grade or made comments. Students must provide evidence of the final grade awarded on each learning product (such as a screenshot or instructor letter).

- d. Students must choose at least one (1) learning product from Field Seminar I.
 - e. On a title page or running header, students must label each learning product with the course number and name as well as the name of the assignment as listed on the Menu of Learning Products.
 - f. All learning products must have been completed individually or individual student contributions to group projects must be highlighted.
- V. Summative Reflection: The summative reflection is a way for students to explain how they have met the required competencies by reflecting on each chosen learning product and their field practicum experience, and how they both have aided the students in attaining the competencies. Students also must reflect upon their professional growth in the Program. (Minimum of 6 pages)
- VI. Miscellaneous: May contain other evidence that reflects professional development such as training certificates, awards, reference letters, transcripts, evaluations, etc. Think about what documents might be useful for potential employers to see.

Presentation: Students will present their portfolios and discuss their learning reflection for not more than 10 minutes. Presentations should be made as they would be given if making a presentation during a job interview.

Summative Reflection (Attachment II)

The purpose of this assignment is to provide an opportunity for the student to describe how they experienced and understood generalist social work practice from a multicultural perspective while completing course and field work throughout their time in the BSW program. The summative reflection is a way for students to explain how they have met the 9 CSWE competencies by reflecting on each chosen course assignment (learning product) and their field practicum experience, and how they both have aided the students in attaining the competencies.

Students also must reflect upon their professional growth in the Program. The summative reflection also gives the student an opportunity to describe social work principles in working with individuals, families and/or groups. This paper should be at least 6 pages long, however, to elaborate in-depth, as required, you may need to exceed 6 pages. The paper must be written in APA style.

In the Summative Reflection, elaborate on how each chosen course assignment has helped you to meet the specified CSWE competency. Your reflection must be comprised of 3 sections:

I. How have these assignments helped you to meet each competency?

- (a.) How the one learning product chosen from the Menu of Learning Products for this competency helped you meet the competency you are addressing?
- (b.) How your field practicum experience helped you meet the competency you are addressing?

1. List the competency and then describe it in your own words.
2. Name the one learning product (assignment) that you have chosen from the menu for the competency and a particular aspect of your field experience (a particular case, skill you gained, training you had, ability you gained etc.).
3. Describe the one learning product and the particular aspect of the field experience on which you are focusing and how they helped you meet that competency. Provide details about the learning product and field experience with examples of how they helped you reach the competency.

Present explanations by competency, not by learning product.

Be sure that you are discussing a learning product from the menu which you have also included in the e-portfolio. Those learning products must be on the menu for that competency. Make sure you discuss both the chosen learning product and the field experience for each competency.

To write this reflection, make sure to first read the competency. To help clarify what the competency means, also review the behaviors that are aligned with the competency (see your syllabi or learning contracts).

Think about how the assignment helped you to achieve the competency. What were the parts of the assignment that helped you develop certain knowledge, skills or abilities? What did the assignment teach you? How does that connect to the competency?

Reflect on how your field practicum experience aided you in reaching the competency. What experiences, learned skills, abilities, and knowledge have you attained in the practicum? Is there a particular situation or case that helped you attain the competency? Describe it. How do they connect to the competency?

II. Reflect on your professional growth and goals over your time in the Program Discuss what your goals were coming into the BSW Program. Then reflect on whether you have met all of them, some of them, or none. Talk about how you have grown and what contributed to this growth. Be specific; give examples.

III. Lessons Learned for Future Practice What learning experiences from your classes and internship will you use in future practice? What are the lessons you have learned that you will carry with you? Be specific; give examples.
