Academic Misconduct Policy & Procedures

Academic Dishonesty: Cheating, collusion, and plagiarism (the act of using source material of other persons, either published or unpublished, without following the accepted techniques of crediting, or the submission for credit of work, not the individual's to whom credit is given). Additional guidelines on procedures in these matters may be found in the Office of Student Conduct. Self-plagiarism: Commonly described as recycling or reusing one's own specific words from previously published or submitted work. While self-plagiarism does not cross the line of actual theft of others' ideas, it can create issues in the scholarly and academic realms. Beyond verbatim sections of text, self-plagiarism can also refer to the publication of identical papers in two places (sometimes called "duplicate publication.") Papers, projects, or other assignments previously submitted in other courses will not be accepted in this course.

Email/Course Announcement Requirements

You are required to access and review your emails and D2L Course Announcements regularly. I will often email the entire class with updates regarding your discussions, projects, and assignments. It is your responsibility to check your email regularly to prevent the possibility of missing important information.

Course Tools

1. Syllabus: Contains the syllabus.
2. Announcements: All announcements will be posted under the NEWS section on the course homepage.
3. Weekly Course Content Modules: I have broken down your reading assignments, discussion boards, and exams/quizzes and placed them into individual weekly modules. You will also find PowerPoints that pertain to the assigned chapters for that week.
4. Learning Tools: Here, you will find information that may help you during this course, including online research databases tips and APA Guidelines.

Discussion Boards

Discussion content and questions will be posted on certain weeks throughout the semester. You can see the weeks that will include a discussion assignment on the course schedule within this syllabus. During the weeks that have discussions, an initial post must be submitted by Wednesday at 11:59 PM CST. Two substantial responses must be made within the discussion board by Sunday at 11:59 PM CST. Each discussion has a max point value of six points. Two points will be given for your initial post, and two points will be given for each of your response posts. All discussion boards are expected to raise thoughtful questions, incorporate content from readings, build on the ideas of others, expand the class' perspective, and appropriately challenge perspectives and assumptions. Students must support their posts in proper APA formatting, including in-text citations and complete reference entries. Initial posts should be at least 200 words in content. Response posts should be at least 100 words in content.

Case Studies

Throughout the semester, I will assign case studies that cover the reading assignments for that specific week. You will answer these case studies using the knowledge and understanding of what you have learned from your reading assignments. Some of these will be thought-provoking and will require you to think outside the box. Some may ask specific knowledge-based questions, and some may require you to utilize your own opinions and thoughts. Your answers must have factual information to back up your thoughts. A simple "yes" or "no" or "I agree with that" will not suffice. Your answers need to be saved as a WORD document and placed in the appropriate dropbox. Case Studies will be graded based on the accuracy of the answers, the student's efforts, and the quality of writing.

Quizzes

There will be three quizzes. Quizzes are located under the Assessments tab and may consist of multiple-choice, short answers, definitions, listing, true-false, or essays. Students are expected to analyze and apply their education knowledge gained throughout the course. They are timed and may only be taken once. You may use learning resources to help you with the quizzes; however, you may NOT consult with your classmates.

Teaching Plan

Students must work individually to develop a teaching/lesson plan. You must submit your topic to the instructor for approval. A teaching plan is a detailed description of an individual lesson. Ideally, anyone who needed to teach your topic should be able to utilize your lesson plan with little to no modifications. Your lesson plan should be developed well enough that the instructor would have everything that they would need to carry out your lesson. The teaching plan must have a minimum of three objectives, a target audience, any methods of instruction used, an evaluation of effectiveness (for both the instructor and participants), and all required resources. For example, if you reference a video or informational handout, I expect you to include those materials. You do not have to create those additional materials, but you will be expected to give your sources credit. All outside sources must be cited in the correct APA format. Each student will develop and submit their plan into the designated dropbox. There are Asthma Teaching Plan examples in the course Learning Tools; therefore, do not select Asthma as your topic. Please note that these are merely examples and do not include other documents also submitted. There are numerous ways to create a teaching plan. You may mimic these or develop your own template. Please read Chapter 10, pages 488-493, where you will find additional teaching plan examples. The Teaching Plan is due by Sunday, April 24th at 11:59 PM.

Late Work

D2L is designed so that students are locked out of the system after the deadline has passed. Please make a note of all deadlines and adhere to them. All assignments must be completed by 11:59 PM on the due date. Any coursework not completed and submitted on time will be graded as a zero. Before the due date, don't hesitate to contact me regarding circumstances that may prevent you from completing an assignment on time.
